The Affordable Christmas Mary Hunt, 2014-09-02 Christmas may be the most wonderful time of the year but it's also one of the most stressful and most expensive. Expectations run high and it's tempting to whip out the credit cards to create the perfect Christmas for your family with lavish meals, new decorations, and the latest greatest gadgets and fashions for everyone on your Christmas gift list. But you don't have to overspend or go into debt to have a fabulous holiday. Financial expert Mary Hunt shows readers how. She helps readers assess their financial situation, commit to no new debt, and think creatively about their gift list. With Mary's guidance, readers will identify what has caused them to overspend in the past and approach this Christmas with a plan and a new attitude toward holiday spending. This just might be the best gift you can give yourself and your family. This book is an updated edition of Debt Proof the Holidays Kiplinger's Personal Finance

, 1997-12 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments, taxes, money management, home ownership, and many other personal finance topics Simplify Your Holidays Marcia Ramsland, 2008-09-16

Organization and simplification expert Marcia Ramsland tackles the holidays with an eight-week plan designed to make Christmas a season of celebration, not stress. Most people begin to prepare for Christmas as soon as Thanksgiving is over, which can create great stress since Thanksgiving happens at a different time every year. However, Halloween is consistently eight weeks before Christmas, so beginning then ensures enough time to prepare and plan for both Christmas and Thanksgiving, and to make this a season of joy for yourself and your family. This planner addresses all the details of the busy holiday season, including buying, wrapping, and sending presents; sending Christmas cards; home decorations; and cooking and baking. What sets this planner apart is a day-by-day plan that breaks every task into manageable pieces, and a daily devotional journal that keeps the reader focused on the reason for all the activity, encouraging a spirit of praise, not panic. Editor & Publisher Newspaper Data Book, 2008
