Performance, Transparency, and the Cultures of Surveillance James M. Harding, 2018-01-23 Examines the pervasive presence of surveillance and how surveillance technologies alter the performance of everyday life Nomination of Gordon R. Clapp United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Public Works, 1947 Dreamer Who's Been Extremely Blessed Edgar Francis Poree Jr., 2013-03-18 Edgar Frances Poree Jr a lifelong resident of Louisiana looks back at his struggles disappointments and successes in this memoir that examines the African American experience in the South As a Black male he dealt with deeply rooted prejudices religious discrimination and conflict with older members of the Black community He constantly faced inner turmoil but he remained steadfast in his focus to achieve his goals and navigate the transition from segregation to integration Poree learned to be resourceful early convincing the owner of a nearby grocery store to give him a job cleaning the store and organizing the shelves He went on to start his own business polishing hardwood floors while in the seventh grade His love for music eventually helped him earn a scholarship at Xavier University in New Orleans and from there he was on his way From his teaching career to his successes as a business executive and civic leader Poree shares his memories of real people real places and real divisions His hope is that you'll be emboldened encouraged and inspired to achieve your own dreams Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1959 A Practical Guide for Policy Analysis Eugene Bardach, Eric M. Patashnik, 2023-07-17 Drawing on more than 40 years of experience with policy analysis best selling authors Eugene Bardach and Eric M Patashnik use practical tips and real world examples to equip effective accurate and persuasive policy analysts The Seventh Edition of A Practical Guide for Policy Analysis offers new case studies expanded discussion new guidance for policy analysis in a polarized age and step by step strategies for the budding analyst as well as the seasoned professional Morality Politics in American Cities Elaine B. Sharp, Yvette M. Alex-Assensoh, 2005 Topless bars casino gambling needle exchange programs for drug addicts there's no question morality issues remain front and center in urban politics Presenting a systematic analysis of culture war issues at the local level Elaine Sharp shows how American cities deal with these ongoing concerns Drawing on a sample of ten strategically chosen cities she explains differences in how municipalities respond to controversies surrounding sex business abortion clinics legalized gambling gay rights and drug use By analyzing the relative importance of subculture economics and institutional arrangements in the disputes she points the way toward richer and more complete understanding of how different cities respond differently to these hot button issues Far more than a statistical study Morality Politics in American Cities is a collection of fascinating stories of real people grappling with down to earth issues and real life drama richly informative case studies that will captivate students and interested citizens alike Mayors public health directors activists and others speak their minds about the pros and cons of these controversies Here are officials in one city confronting the Vatican over funding for abortion services those in another battling a local university over its refusal to provide health benefits to gay partners of faculty members and still others mounting a massive community sponsored attack on topless clubs These stories provide detailed evidence to support classifications needed for comparing cities experience with each of the five morality issues They also corroborate inferences drawn from the comparisons by showing what considerations were in play as local officials grappled with these issues Overall the study shows that cultural factors usually dominate policymaking in local politics except when specific economic interests are at stake and also observes that county level governments are more important than previously thought in terms of morality issue decisions As provocative as it is informative Morality Politics in American Cities demonstrates that such issues same sex marriage for example are multidimensional and often difficult to resolve Its conclusions however contingent mark an important step in the ongoing process of understanding important differences in approaches to these issues and clearly show how moral conflicts continue to define American politics

Political ethics proper* Francis Lieber,1881 Prosecuting War Crimes and Genocide Howard Ball,1999 Combining history politics and critical analysis he revisits the killing fields of Cambodia documents the three month Hutu machete genocide of about 800 000 Tutsi villagers in Rwanda and casts recent headlines from Kosovo in the light of these other conflicts BOOK JACKET Politics and Political Systems John W. Ellsworth,Arthur A. Stahnke,1976 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1870 Government and the Food Industry: Economic and Political Effects of Conflict and Co-Operation L. Tim Wallace,William R. Schroder,1997-09-30 These 23 contributions combine a theoretical and experiential approach to analyzing the threats and opportunities that food industry managers experience as a result of governmental incentives and restrictions. The authors explore the ways in which the private sector reacts to the stimulus of public support measures, the terms of trade between specific firms' interests and governments, and the ways in which markets and terms might evolve. Both the New Zealand and US food industries are considered. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc. Portland, OR. Political Risk in Thirty Five Countries Michael Kent O'Leary, William D. Coplin, 1983. Report forecasting the risk up to 1988 in 35 countries that political problems or trade barriers will create obstacles to trade or endanger foreign enterprise or multinational enterprise operations. Assesses implications for trade of three possible combinations of political power and trade policy for each country.
