Market Me Paul D Barchitta, 2019-06-17 When it comes to marketing the biggest myth may be that it's deceptive, misleading and unethical. Paul D Barchitta highlights the foundation and building blocks that anchor a solid marketing strategy in this guide that answers questions such as: What is marketing all about? Why is it such an exciting time to be a marketer? What are the four P's of marketing? Why you must think like the customer? The author also examines topics that can serve as a blueprint for success from defining who is your customer when and why they adopt your innovation to the decision-making process that the customer goes through. Why taking a snapshot of your product offerings? Why new products are the lifeblood of an organization and the importance of developing a brand are analyzed as well. Dissecting the methods of how products are promoted from why advertising is a mentality to the effectiveness of the relationship that a salesperson can have with a customer are reviewed.
