Request a refund for digital games

We understand that sometimes purchases of digital game products don't go as planned. When that happens, we'll help you request a refund.

Related topics

Refunds are typically issued for requests meeting the following criteria:

- Requests are made within 14 days of the purchase date
- Requests are for games in which you haven't accumulated a significant amount of play time

Note As a limited exception, digital game products may be eligible for a refund within 30 days if you're unsatisfied with the license agreement or warranty, but only if you do not make or retain any content.

If your refund request is approved, you'll see it being processed on your Microsoft account, and you'll no longer be able to access the digital game product. Refunds may take several business days or longer to appear in your account, so you may want to check with your financial institution to understand when the applicable payment method will be credited.
