

The Quarterly Journal of Speech's Areas of Focus

Topic: Sociology | Words: 679 | Pages: 2

A journal is a type of publication done for a specialized group and thus focused on a particular field of study. An example of a journal is the Quarterly Journal of Speech (QJS). It was established in 1985 and is owned by the National Communication Association. QJS is a quarterly journal that is produced four issues in a year, in the months of February, May, August, and November. It is peer-reviewed and publishes articles and research papers specialized in communication arts. It is currently being published by Taylor & Francis (Routledge). The aim of this report is to discuss the current areas of focus of the journal and the significance of the journal to the Rhetoric.

Current Focus of Quarterly Journal of Speech

Quarterly Journal of Speech publishes studies in rhetorical viewpoints on texts, dialogues, and cultural norms. The journal encourages research work that extends and improves cultural customs in communicative theory and criticism, as well as academic research that charts new frontiers in knowledge. The articles in QJS cover a wide range of topics, from evaluating presidential addresses to examining contemporary cultural texts like television and movies, to high-level research on the physical sense of place and channel. QJS presents publications that address the question of how rhetoric creates meaning and significance in the globe. It endeavors to explain the role language play in defining identity, impacting political discourse, and assisting us in comprehending and organizing our daily lives.
