Rural Poverty In Asia Priority Issues And Policy Options:

Rural Poverty in Asia Muhammad Ghulam Quibria,1993 This collection of economic essays is the outcome of an Asian Development Bank study on rural poverty in selected Asian countries Rural Poverty in Developing Asia Muhammad Ghulam Quibria,1994 Impact on Health Poverty and Inequality among Chinese Minorities Ajit S. Bhalla,Shufang Qiu,2024-11-01 The number of poor people in China is huge despite recent economic advances The minorities in China constitute less than ten per cent of the entire population yet they represent forty to fifty per cent of the absolute poor This compelling book investigates the problem of poverty and inequality in and among Chinese ethnic minorities focusing in particular on two important questions Have the minorities shared the fruits of spectacular economic growth in China during the past two decades Is their backwardness due to ethnic and cultural factors or to extremely low incomes The authors examine the different factors explaining poverty the relationship between poverty and ethnicity poverty indicators that permit a comparison between minorities and non minorities or the Han majority economic and demographic characteristics of minorities and their educational occupational and gender profiles They consider whether special measures in favour of minorities introduced by the Chinese government have contributed to an improvement in their standard of living Poverty and Inequality among Chinese Minorities gives original research findings and new thinking on a highly topical issue in Chinese development economics and fills a gap in the existing economic literature The Elgar Companion to the Asian Development Bank M. G. Quibria,Albab Akanda,2024-02-12 Providing an authoritative yet accessible introduction to the Asian Development Bank ADB this comprehensive Companion offers a detailed examination of the ADB s objectives policies development outcomes strengths and weaknesses areas for reform and challenges going forward Poverty, Growth and Institutions in Developing Asia E. Pernia,A. Deolalikar,2003-10-07 The theme of this book is that economic growth is key but institutions and other national and subnational attributes matter as well They are critical to explaining differences in social development and poverty reduction across countries and subnational areas that cannot be accounted for by growth alone The book concludes that a more complete strategy needs to consider various institutional factors at the national and subnational levels to achieve rapid and sustained poverty reduction Indeed paying attention to these factors will benefit both growth and poverty reduction Handbook of Regional and Urban Economics Peter Nijkamp,E.S. Mills,P.C. Cheshire,1986 Fifteen essays in this handbook are divided into four parts Part I surveys basic spatial and spatially related research Part II surveys literature on specific urban markets Part III is devoted to studies of urban development and problems in developing countries Part IV contains papers on specific urban problems and sectors Microcredit and Poverty Alleviation Tazul Islam,2012-11-28 The attempt of the Grameen Bank to alleviate poverty and enhance the skills and productivity of its rural women clients provides the fascinating backdrop to this important study of micro credit institutions Tazul Islam examines the real extent to which the Grameen Bank s credit alone policy has been successful in securing the Bank s financial sustainability its practical role in alleviating poverty and its actual impact on the productivity of its clients This book concludes by considering alternative policy options that hold out the possibility of increased poverty alleviation Why Are Some Countries Richer Than Others? Jesus Felipe, 2008-10 Provides evidence of a problem with the influential testing and assessment of Solow's 1956 growth model proposed by Mankiw et al 1992 and a series of papers evaluating the latter First the assumption of a common rate of technical progress maintained by Mankiw et al 1992 is relaxed Solow's model is extended to include the different levels and rates of technical progress of each country This increases the explanatory power of the cross country variation in income capital of the OECD countries to over 80% The estimates of the parameters are statistically significant and take the expected values and signs Second the estimates merely reflect a statistical artifact This has serious implications for the possibility of actually testing Solow's growth model Illus Challenges for Asia's Trade and Environment Douglas H. Brooks, 1998 Rural Performance and Agricultural Growth A. M. Balisacan, 1993 The Economic Development of Southeast Asia Hal Hill, 2002 Viet Nam, Foreign Direct Investment and Postcrisis Regional Integration Vittorio Leproux, 2004 Theory and Practice in the Choice of Social Discount Rate for Cost-benefit Analysis, 2007 Flood Insurance as a Flood Management Tool Tun Lin, 2007 Measuring Underemployment Guntur Sugiyarto, 2007 Defining and Measuring Inclusive Growth Ifzal Ali, Hyun H. Son, 2007 Developing an Interregional Input-output Table for Cross-border Economies Benson Sim, Francisco Secretario, Eric Suan, 2007 ADB Publications Asian Development Bank, 2006 Bond Market Development in East Asia Raul V. Fabella, Srinivasa Madhur, 2003 In postcrisis Asia the development of domestic bond markets is increasingly seen as one of the key requirements to strengthen the financial sectors of East Asian countries and to reduce their vulnerabilities to future financial crises There is a great diversity in terms of the level of bond market development across East Asian countries Judged by several indicators of bond market development Hong Kong China and Singapore are ahead of other countries followed by a second tier consisting of Korea Malaysia and Taipei China and a third tier consisting of People's Republic of China Philippines and Thailand Indonesia's bond market is perhaps the most nascent among East Asian bond markets Initiatives to develop bond markets in East Asia should focus on i sustaining a stable macroeconomic environment with low inflation and stable interest rates ii developing a healthy government bond market that would serve as a benchmark for the corporate bond market iii completing the postcrisis agenda of banking sector restructuring iv improving corporate governance v strengthening the regulatory framework for bond market vi rationalizing tax treatment of bonds vii broadening the investor base and viii promoting the growth of regional bond market centers Since at present there is a great diversity in the levels of bond market development across countries significant country specific deciphering of these requirements will be needed for developing country strategies for bond market development Social Science Review, 2000

Adopting the Tune of Appearance: An Mental Symphony within Rural Poverty In Asia Priority Issues And Policy Options

In a global consumed by displays and the ceaseless chatter of instant communication, the melodic beauty and emotional symphony created by the written word often diminish into the background, eclipsed by the constant noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. But, nestled within the pages of Rural Poverty In Asia Priority Issues And Policy Options a marvelous fictional treasure filled with raw emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an elegant musician of language, this interesting masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden songs and profound influence resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths with this emotional assessment, we shall discover the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing type, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
