Geschichte Indiens Hermann Kulke, Dietmar Rothermund, 2018-01-26 Der indische Subkontinent blickt auf eine lange faszinierende Geschichte zurück von der rätselhaften Indus Kultur über die Geburt von Hinduismus und Buddhismus sowie verschiedene Großreiche bis zur britischen Kolonialherrschaft und zur ersten Demokratie der Welt Hermann Kulke und Dietmar Rothermund bieten mit ihrem Buch einen Schlüssel zum Verständnis des riesigen Landes in dem uralte Traditionen krasse soziale Gegensätze und hochmoderne Technik und Wirtschaft nebeneinander existieren Das erfolgreiche Standardwerk wurde für diese Ausgabe bearbeitet und aktualisiert Culinary Culture in Colonial India Utsa Ray, 2015-01-05 This book utilizes cuisine to understand the construction of the colonial middle class in Bengal who indigenized new culinary experiences as a result of colonial modernity This process of indigenization developed certain social practices including imagination of the act of cooking as a classic feminine act and the domestic kitchen as a sacred space The process of indigenization was an aesthetic choice that was imbricated in the upper caste and patriarchal agenda of the middle class social reform However in these acts of imagination there were important elements of continuity from the pre colonial times The book establishes the fact that Bengali cuisine cannot be labeled as indigenist although it never became widely commercialized The point was to cosmopolitanize the domestic and yet keep its tag of Bengaliness The resultant cuisine was hybrid in many senses like its makers Different Types of History Bharati Ray, 2009 Change, Continuity and Complexity Jae-Eun Shin, 2018-05-30 The Mahavidyas are the representative Tantric feminine pantheon consisting of ten goddesses It is formed by divergent religious strands and elements the māt and yogin worship the cult of Kālī and Tripurasundarā Vajrayāna Buddhism Jain Vidyadevīs āiva and Vaiśāva faith r vidyā the Brahmanical strand of Puranic traditions etc This volume is the first attempt to explore the historical process through which these traditions culminated in the Mahavidyā cult and the goddesses with different origins and contradictory attributes were brought into a cluster with special reference to socio political changes in the lower Ganges and Brahmaputra Valley between the 9th and 15th centuries CE Based on a close analysis of Purāṣa Tantras and inscriptional evidence and on extensive field research on archaeological remains as well as sacred sites Jae Eun Shin discusses the two trajectories of the Mahavidyas in eastern Indic traditions Each led to the systematization of Dāśamahavidyas in a specific way one as ten manifestations of Durgā upholding dharma in the cosmic dimension and the other as ten mandalic goddesses bearing magical powers in the actual sacred site Their attributes and characteristics have neither been static nor monolithic and the mode of worship prescribed for them has changed in a dialectical religious process between Brahmanical and Tantric traditions of the region This is the definitive work for anyone seeking to understand goddess cults of South Asia in general and the history of eastern Indic traditions in particular To aid study the volume includes images diagrams and maps Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Studying Early India Brajadulal Chattopadhyaya, 2006 A focal

Crete Beyond the Palaces Leslie Preston Day,Margaret S. Mook,James D. Muhly,2004-12-31 This volume presents papers from the conference Crete 2000 A Centennial Celebration of American Archaeological Work on Crete 1900 2000 held in Athens from July 10 12 2000 The American School of Classical Studies at Athens and the Institute for Aegean Prehistory INSTAP Study Center for East Crete organized the conference Scholars participating in the American and joint Greek American on Crete or studying material from these excavations were invited to present papers at the conference The volume is divided into the following sections Trade Society and Religion Chronology and History Landscape and Survey and Technology and Production Political Culture, Public Policy, and the American States John Kincaid,1982 The American Historical Association's Guide to Historical Literature American Historical Association,1995 Contains nearly 2 000 annotated citations primarily English language works divided into forth eight sections citations refer chiefly to works published between 1961 and 1992 Politics and National Formation in Bangladesh Aminur Rahim,1997 International Studies in Sociology and Social Anthropology ,1991 Peasant Studies ,1985 Seminar ,1999 Contemporary Chinese Thought ,1999 Translations and studies Art, Politics, and Cultural Identification in Sudan Mohamed A. Abusabib,2004 It is now widely acknowledged that the issue of Sudan s cultural and political identity is one of the root causes of the Sudanese crisis that has crippled the country since its independence in 1956 and plunged it into a civil war regarded as the longest in Africa Nevertheless this issue continues to be a grossly neglected topic in scholarship concerning Sudan On the other hand the politics of intellectual and artistic production have been inseparable from the pivotal issue of identity ever since the advent of Sudanese nationalism in the 1920s But there has yet been no publication dedicated to the topic of identity as one of the major concerns in modern Sudanese artistic production This study thus undertakes a critical examination of key discourses concerning the cultural basis of modern Sudanese literature visual art music and dance and it attempts to highlight their underlying political and ideological orientations The terms Arabism Afro Arabism Africanism Islamism and Sudanism have developed within these discourses as defining concepts describing the country s ethnic and cultural origins thereby serving as identity constructs The study also examines the relation between the political and the artistic institutions as well as the policy of the Islamization of the Arts launched by the present Islamist regime and its outcome The study may also be viewed as an endeavor to discover within the aesthetic field the missing Sudanese collective memory Stated otherwise this is an effort to redeem the lost Sudanese pedigree that has long been deliberately mystified misconceived and misconstrued for the sake of certain political and cultural strategies Another aim of the study is to introduce Sudanese arts and the specific Sudanese aesthetic political debate concerning the topics of culture and identity to both the general reader and specialists as well as to Africanists in general and scholars of African arts and literature in particular

Colony and Empire William G. Robbins, 1994 Popular writers and historians alike have perpetuated the powerful myth of the rugged individualist single handedly transforming the American West In reality William Robbins counters it was the Guggenheims and Goulds the Harrimans and Hearsts and the Morgans and Mellons who masterminded what the West was to become Remove the romance he shows and a darker West emerges a colonial like region where industrial statesmen aided by eastern U S and European capital manipulated investments in pursuit of private gain while controlling wage earning cowboys and miners Robbins argues that understanding the impact of capitalism on the West from the fur trade era to the present is essential to understanding power influence and change in the region Showing how global capitalism had a more profound impact on the modern West than individual initiative he explores violence and racism along the Texas Mexican border colonial style company towns in Montana and the Northwest contrasting traditions astride the U S Canadian boundary pace setting agribusiness and exploitation of labor in California the growing power of metropolitan centers and dependence of rural areas and the emergence of a sizable federal influence To grasp the essence of the West s dramatic transformation Robbins contends you must look to the mainstays of material relations in the region the perpetually changing character of political and economic culture the inherent instability of resources and the larger constellations of capitalist decision making Consequently he shows shy Western success and failure prosperity and misfortune and expansion and decline were all inseparably linked to the evolution of capitalism at the local regional national and global levels In the tradition of Patricia Nelson Limerick s Legacy of Conquest Robbins s study challenges some of our most revered images of the West and invigorates the ongoing debates over its history and meaning for our nation Pacific Affairs , 1968 Includes book reviews and bibliographies Culture Wars and Local Politics Elaine B.
