Playing Dangerous:

Therapeutic Approaches in Work with Traumatized Children and Young People Patrick Tomlinson, 2004-07-15

Therapeutic Approaches in Work with Traumatized Children and Young People provides a clear and comprehensive link between theory and practice. The author shows how practice in residential child care, fostering and other areas of work with children can be developed in a way that is thoughtful and underpinned by a sound theoretical base. Emotional Vertigo, Between Anxiety and Pleasure Danielle Quinodoz, 1997. In this unique prize-winning study, Danielle Quinodoz unravels the unconscious significance of the feelings of vertigo which arise in situations where there is no immediate physical danger of falling and no organic cause. She traces the origins of such emotional vertigo to inner anxieties around separation which are expressed somatically at different levels according to the level of anxiety. Through a detailed case study of a patient who developed the symptoms of vertigo during analysis, the author offers some thought-provoking insights into the vicissitudes of the object relationship and the importance of the role of the analyst in helping the patient translate sensation into representation. She also reflects on the links between anxiety and pleasure in the experience of vertigo, clearly exemplified in sports such as rock climbing or skiing and shows how vertigo is inexorably linked to questions of equilibrium at the psychic as well as the physical level. Emotional Vertigo is an excellent introduction to some of the central themes of current psychoanalytic thought. The Eight Katherine Neville, 2015-07-21. The fascinating 1 international bestseller of a quest across centuries by two intrepid women to reunite the pieces of a powerful ancient chess set. Los Angeles Times Book Review: A fabulous bejeweled chess set that belonged to Charlemagne has been buried in a Pyrenees abbey for a thousand years. As the bloody French Revolution rages in Paris, the nuns dig it up and scatter its pieces across the globe because when united, the set contains a secret power that could topple civilizations. To keep the set from falling into the wrong hands, two novices, Valentine and Mireille, embark on an adventure that begins in the streets of Paris and leads to Russia, Egypt, Corsica, and into the heart of the Algerian Sahara. Two hundred years later, while on assignment in Algeria, computer expert Catherine Velis finds herself drawn unwillingly into the deadly Game still swirling around the legendary chess set, a game that will require her to risk her life and match wits with diabolical forces. This ebook features an illustrated biography of Katherine Neville, including rare images from her life and travels. The Dreams, the Visions and Realizations Patricia L.

Ritchie, 2015-03-11. This book is an on-going recording of my soul journey toward ascension. There are three sections: Dream, Visions, and Conversations with my Angels, and lastly, Nineteen Life Lessons from an angel named O, pronounced awe. Topics include how a multi-dimensional world is created, fire letters, codes of creation, the process of creation and transformation of souls and light bodies and spaceships, as well as others. My Angels are Yo Weh, Black Eagle, and O, as well as others without names. The most important message from Yo Weh: The galaxy is shifting. Contemporary Ergonomics 1995 Ergonomics Society. Conference, 1995-04-01. Play in Hospitals Nicky Everett, Cath Hubbuck, Fraser Brown, 2023-04-10. Exploring how practitioners make use of play's developmental benefits and therapeutic healing properties to aid the child's healthcare journey this reflective book expands and enhances the knowledge base underlying the practice of play in hospitals The work of health play specialists and child life specialists in hospitals in the UK and around the world requires a deep level of clinical knowledge so that preparing children for procedures can be done with skill and precision It builds on an understanding of both child development and the impact of traumatic experiences so that children's deepest fears and biggest emotions can be faced without flinching It also relies on an acceptance that play is the foundation of everything the child's safest most natural space and from this trust strength and resilience can grow and be nurtured This new edited text explores the breadth depth and skills of these trained healthcare practitioners providing play for babies children young people and adults and places the power of play squarely at the centre of most clinical settings Its starting point of the theory that underpins practice is explored and developed through a combination of reflective essays case study chapters from the UK and around the world and the newly emerging use of play in diverse settings Drawing on the collective work of over 30 play specialists child life specialists play service managers lecturers and researchers this book is unique in all it offers to paediatric practitioners and settings in training and in practice It is an important resource for healthcare play specialists playworkers children's nurses occupational therapists and more
