Me, My Bike and a Street Dog Called Lucy Ishbel Holmes, 2018 This new title from Bradt tells the inspiring and emotional story of Ishbel Holmes also known as World Bike Girl a Scottish Iranian woman who became a champion racing cyclist in spite of having been abandoned by her family and who set off on the adventure of a lifetime despite her lack of experience money or equipment Ishbel Holmes was determined to cycle the world but her journey took a completely unexpected turn when despite her initial instincts not to she rescued a street dog in Turkey Ishbel was lost and alone when she started on her epic trip but in Lucy found a companionship never previously known Between the two there formed a deep bond and their relationship was followed and supported by thousands of readers online before becoming a media sensation overnight when Ishbel put out a plea for help to transport Lucy to an animal shelter three hundred miles away This heart rending tale is about more than just the relationship between a woman and her dog It is a testimony to the human spirit overcoming present day challenges and churning up long buried and painful memories from Ishbel s earlier life It is also a tale of adventure one person s determination to cross an unfamiliar country by bike and the unforgettable scenes that greet her on the Turkey Syria border and into Syria itself And it is a loving portrait of Lucy the street dog that was determined not to let Ishbel go and whose dogged persistence helped to break down the barriers around her heart and in so doing change her life in ways she had never imagined Ultimately this is a tale of love and healing a modern fable that touches the soul and reminds us all of the need to belong Stories I Stole from Georgia Wendell Steavenson, 2004-02-24 Fed up with working for Time magazine in London Steavenson moved to Georgia on a whim Stories I Stole relates her time there in twenty vodka fuelled episodes drawn from all over the country tales of love friendship and power cuts of duelling Georgian style of horse races in the mountains wars and refugees broken hearts fixed elections drinking sessions and a room containing a thousand roses Stories I Stole is a wonderful example of a writer tackling an unconventional subject with such wit humanity and sheer literary verve that one is unable to imagine why one never learnt more about Georgia before Stories I Stole is a magnificent first book erudite engaged candid and blissfully poetic PROLOGUE The author visits a bizarre Stalin theme park culminating in the eery viewing of Stalin's death mask SHASHLIK TAMADA SUPRA The author visits Khaketi where she is introduced to the tamada culture of exaggerated hospitality a point of honour hospitality During a marathon toasting session at dinner she realizes It is a kind of aggression When they did not know you well they filled your glass and filled it again and carefully watched how you drank it This was the Georgian way friend or enemy with nothing in between History was lost in tradition drinking a way of remembering and forgetting at the same time SHUKI The frustration of living with unpredictable power and water supplies during extremely cold winters the heat and or electricity is often turned off due to reasons ranging from sabotage corruption non payment theft black clan economics and incompetence Nevertheless this leads to a particular happiness when the light does come on The author discovers the heavenly comfort of public baths Times were difficult people had very little money A lot of men were unemployed and all the old good professional jobs teachers nurses police engineers were state jobs and paid less than 50 a month Half Tbilisi owed the other half money ETHNIC CLEANSING The author visits Abkhazia where a refugee has asked her to find the apartment that war caused him to flee She finds a woman living there who is a refugee herself after her own house was burned down she discovered the fully furnished house in Abkhazia shortly after it was vacated and has been living there ever since proudly tending the garden of the previous occupant WHO ARE THE ABKHAZ On the beach with Shalva whom she suspects is Abkhaz KGB He feeds her the party line about the Abkhaz occupation and she feels like screaming truths at him You won the war You threw out all the Georgians You have your homeland to yourselves apart from the Armenian villages and the pockets of Russians and what is this place It's a black hole There are barely any cars barely any petrol no factories nothing works no private businesses a curfew no salaries barely any pensions a shell of a university a terrible hospital etc etc But Shalva doubts that the West is paradise Here we have everything we need The land is fertile THE DUEL The story of Dato and Aleko they get into a car wreck and Dato's face is horribly scarred Aleko steals Dato's wife and Dato challenges him to a fight When Aleko beats Dato
