Teaching Music Improvisation with Technology Michael Fein,2017-02-03 Incorporating technology in music classrooms can take the mystery out of improvisation What music technology does is establish a strong foundation for chord scale phrase ear training and listening exercises creating a solid backdrop for student expression As author and educator Mike Fein shows technology is a valuable tool that can be used effectively to supplement student practice time while also developing the skills necessary to become a proficient improviser Complete with notated exercises accompaniment tracks and listening resources this book gives teachers methods to set their students free to make mistakes and to develop their own ear for improvisation at their own pace Broken down into significant areas of music technology each chapter focuses on developing a new skill and guides readers to tangible outcomes with the assistance of hands on activities that can be immediately implemented into the classroom In addition to these hands on activities each chapter provides the reader with an iPad Connection to various iOS applications which allows teachers and students another albeit significantly less expensive medium through which to learn share and create art This book will appeal to music educators of students in grades K-12 It will serve collegiate music education courses secondarily and will also appeal to those music educators who work with improvisation and technology

Global Meets Digital Vinod Jain,2023-06-02 The world today is at the intersection of two megatrends Globalization and Digitalization a business revolution unfolding in real time Global Meets Digital captures the many nuances of this revolution succinctly including its impact on our lives and business An immediate implication of this revolution is that the economic principles that underpinned business and strategy for hundreds of years such as diminishing returns to scale and resource scarcity are no longer valid for a large and growing number of products and services The book will challenge you to think differently not just about digital products but also about physical products In the global digital world products are of three kinds physical digital and smart machines products that are both physical and digital and connected to the internet a distinction missed by most books on strategy and global business The economics of each kind of products is distinct from that of the others which has strategic implications for all kinds of businesses implications such as how to compete and how to create and capture value With several mini case studies and over 100 company examples the book covers themes and cutting edge issues like the paradox of globalization digital disruption disruptive business models exponential technologies Internet of Things competition in digital markets winner take all market dynamics Industry 4.0 how to innovate strategizing for the New Normal and value creation and value capture in both B2C and B2B contexts The book derives its underpinnings from the practice of global and digital business while theory remains in the background Intended specifically for an executive professional audience Global Meets Digital should also be of value to business students and professors learning to dip their toes into a digital world Vinod Jain is an expert in global and digital strategy award winning professor Fulbright Scholar and author of an MBA textbook Global Strategy He taught at the Rutgers Business School Newark and New Brunswick and the Robert H Smith School of Business University of Maryland College Park At Maryland he was also the Founding Director of the federally funded Center for International Business Education and Research and Academic Director of Smith School's Executive MBA program in China Since leaving Maryland he has taught in China Denmark Finland Poland and India as a visiting or term professor His opinion pieces have appeared in The Washington Post The Baltimore Sun Mensa Bulletin and Economic Times and Mint India's 1 and 2 business dailies among other media In the past he worked as a middle and senior level executive with American and British multinationals Vinod has a PhD in Strategy and International Business from the University of Maryland College Park MS in Management from UCLA and MS and BS Hons in Statistics from the Indian Statistical Institute Calcutta
