Challenges to the Global Trading System Sumner La Croix, Peter A. Petri, 2007-03-21 In this book the participants of the thirtieth Pacific Trade and Development Conference debate whether global negotiations have ended once and for all or are suffering temporarily from globalization fatigue Meeting America's Security Challenges Beyond Iraq Sarah Harting, 2008 On December 4 2007 leading practitioners and analysts in the U S defense community conferred on possible approaches to meeting America's future security challenges Many noted that these challenges coupled with demands on the military forces will require significant changes in how the Department of Defense trains equips and postures its forces and in how the U S government is organized for the advancement of U S interests abroad Latin American Identity in Online Cultural Production Claire Taylor, Thea Pitman, 2013-03-05 This volume provides an innovative and timely approach to a fast growing yet still under studied field in Latin American cultural production digital online culture It focuses on the transformations or continuations that cultural products and practices such as hypermedia fictions net art and online performance art as well as blogs films databases and other genre defying web based projects perform with respect to Latin Americanist discourses as well as their often contestatory positioning with respect to Western hegemonic discourses as they circulate online The intellectual rationale for the volume is located at the crossroads of two equally important theoretical strands theories of digital culture in their majority the product of the anglophone academy and contemporary debates on Latin American identity and culture The Cambridge Companion to Latina/o American Literature John Morán González, 2016-06-13 The Cambridge Companion to Latina/o American Literature provides a thorough yet accessible overview of a literary phenomenon that has been rapidly globalizing over the past two decades It takes an innovative approach that underscores the importance of understanding Latina/o literature not merely as an ethnic phenomenon in the United States but more broadly as a crucial element of a trans American literary imagination Leading scholars in the field present critical analyses of key texts authors themes and contexts from the early nineteenth century to the present They engage with the dynamics of migration linguistic and cultural translation and the uneven distribution of resources across the Americas that characterize Latina/o literature This Companion will be an invaluable resource introducing undergraduate and graduate students to the complexities of the field Creating and Maintaining Safe College Campuses Melvin Cleveland Terrell, Jerlando F. L. Jackson, 2023-07-12 This book serves as a sourcebook to enhance and evaluate safety programs generate new solutions and interventions comply with new legislation and present practical steps and guidelines to establish best practices It pays particular attention to the factors that may give rise to crime considering high risk drinking and examining the intersection between hate crimes and violence Devoting chapters to discrimination in all its forms whether against international students students of color or on the basis of ethnicity or sexual orientation it reviews the range of issues relating to harassment and violence against women and engages with hazing and the presence of guns on campus The authors pay attention to the different circumstances that may apply in specific institutional types such as community colleges and minority serving institutions They offer perspectives from administrators campus security student affairs personnel faculty and policy makers The purpose is to provide readers with the context and tools to devise a comprehensive safety plan For administrators operating with few formal support systems advice is given on how to co opt individuals and resources from around the campus and the local community to assist in maintaining a safe and welcoming campus Click here for press release
