Lee,2021-07-16 2021 ASHE CIHE Award for Significant Research on International Higher Education U S Power in International Higher Education explores how internationalization in higher education is not just an educational endeavor but also a geopolitical one By centering and making explicit the role of power the book demonstrates the United States's advantage in international education as well as the changing geopolitical realities that will shape the field in the future. The chapter authors are leading critical scholars of international higher education with diverse scholarly ties and professional experiences within the country and abroad. Taken together, the chapters provide broad trends as well as in-depth accounts about how power is evident across a range of key international activities. This book is intended for higher education scholars and practitioners with the aim of raising greater awareness on the unequal power dynamics in internationalization activities and for the purposes of promoting more just practices in higher education globally.

Research Handbook on University Rankings Hazelkorn, Ellen, Mihut, Georgiana, 2021-12-10. Gathering unique and thoughtful contributions from leading international scholars, this timely Research Handbook offers diverse perspectives on university rankings twenty years after the first global rankings emerged. It presents an in-depth analysis that reflects the current state of research on rankings, their influence, and impact. Rankings and the Reshaping of Higher Education

Ellen Hazelkorn, 2015-03-23. University rankings have gained popularity around the world and are now a significant factor shaping reputation. This second edition updates Ellen Hazelkorn's first comprehensive study of rankings from a global perspective, drawing in new original research and extensive analysis. It is essential reading for policymakers, managers, and scholars. The University under Pressure

Elizabeth Popp Berman, Catherine Paradeise, 2016-02-26. Universities are under pressure. Their resource environment is evolving; demands for accountability have increased; and demographic shifts are changing higher educational needs. This volume provides a cross-national picture of how the university as an organization is reacting to and threatened by a period of intense pressure. Guide to the Best Colleges in the U. S., 2001

Kaplan, Inc., 2000-08. Enriched with Kaplan's unparalleled expertise and commitment to research, this easy-to-use guide provides in-depth information on more than 400 colleges with a unique focus on selecting and gaining admission to the college that best meets the individual student's academic, financial, and lifestyle needs. Illustrations and photos. The Top American Research Universities, 2013

The Top American Research Universities John V. Lombardi, Craig W. Abbey, Diane D. Craig, 2018-12. Like Nobody's Business Andrew C. Comrie, 2021-02-23. How do university finances really work? From flagship public research universities to small private liberal arts colleges, there are few aspects of these institutions associated with more confusion, myths, or lack of understanding than how they fund themselves and function in the business of higher education. Using simple, approachable explanations supported by clear illustrations, this book takes the reader on an engaging and enlightening tour of how the money flows. How does the university really pay for itself? Why do tuition and fees rise so fast? Why do universities lose money on research? Do most donations go to athletics? Grounded in hard data, original analyses, and the practical experience of a seasoned administrator, this book provides refreshingly clear answers and comprehensive insights for anyone on or off campus who is interested in the business of the university: how it earns its money, how it spends it, and how it all works. Quality Assurance and University Rankings in Higher Education in the Asia Pacific
