Foundation Center each and every day I encountered numbers of individuals looking for grant money. Although I tried to be as supportive as possible in the face of the particular problems shared by this group of library users, my own reaction was one of relative helplessness. Simply stated, most of the fund-raising guides, printed directories, and computer files purportedly created to serve the fund-raising public are of little or no use to individuals who seek funding on their own. These resources are directed. The Foundation Center is the independent nonprofit organization established by foundations to provide information for the grant-seeking public. vii viii I PREFACE toward the nonprofit tax-exempt agency which is the most common recipient of foundation corporate and government largess. They are not designed to respond to the special requirements of the individual grant seeker. In the applicant eligibility index, the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance defines individuals as homeowners, students, farmers, artists, scientists, consumers, small business persons, minors, refugees, aliens, veterans, senior citizens, low-income persons, health and educational professionals, builders, contractors, developers, handicapped persons, the physically afflicted. In short, practically everyone qualifies. Nonprofit Corporation Forms Handbook, 1991 Post Office Guide Great Britain. Post Office, 1893
