Emmy Award Winning Nighttime Television Shows, 1948-2004 Wesley Hyatt, 2015-09-11 Since the early days of television well before most households had a set the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences has been handing out honors for the industry's best efforts Now fans can read about their favorites and perhaps rediscover some forgotten pleasures in this reference to prime time and nighttime Emmy winners Beginning with the heated charade contest known as Pantomime Quiz which won Most Popular Program of 1948 in the first Emmy Awards ceremony held in 1949 each of more than 100 winning shows gets star treatment with an entry that includes the year of award or awards air times hosts guests casts and a full discussion of the show's history and run Many of the entries include original interviews with cast or crew members With such rich information each show's entry constitutes a chapter in the history of television through the story of the show and the people who made it happen The best of variety drama game shows comedies adventures and many more categories are featured An appendix offers interesting facts and figures and ranks shows according to such statistics as longest run longest delay from debut to win and most Emmys won How to Succeed in Business Without Really Crying Carol

Leifer, 2014-04-08 A prolific comedy writer of Saturday Night Live and Seinfeld fame reflects on what it takes to get ahead in showbiz in this remarkable memoir that's packed with anecdotes advice and humor Steve Martin For many years television comedy was an exclusive all boys club until a brilliant comedian named Carol Leifer came along blazing a trail for funny women everywhere From Late Night with David Letterman and Saturday Night Live to Seinfeld The Ellen Show and Modern Family Carol has written for and or performed on some of the best TV comedies of all time This hilarious collection of essays charts her extraordinary three decade journey through show business illuminating her many triumphs and some missteps along the way and offering valuable lessons for women and men in any profession Part memoir part guide to life and all incredibly funny How to Succeed in Business without Really Crying offers tips and tricks for getting ahead finding your way and opening locked doors even if you have to use a sledgehammer Choose Ryan Levesque, 2021-03-16 Now in paperback from the author of Ask a meticulous step by step plan for entrepreneurs and start up businesses to choose the right market to serve What type of business should you start It's a question that for the past 10 years Inc 500 CEO and best selling author Ryan Levesque featured for his work in The Wall Street Journal USA Today Forbes and Entrepreneur has guided thousands of entrepreneurs through the journey of answering One of the biggest reasons why so many new businesses fail is because in the quest to decide what business to start most of the conventional wisdom is wrong Instead of obsessing over what as in what should you sell or what should you build you should first be asking who As in who should you serve The what is a logical question that will come soon enough But choosing your who is the foundation from which all other things are built That is what this book is all about Levesque's meticulously tested step by step process is designed to minimize your risk of failure and losing money upfront giving you clarity on what type of business to build and the confidence to finally take that leap and get started     The $11 Billion Year Anne Thompson, 2014-03-18 This chronicle of 2012 is a slice of what happened during a watershed year for the Hollywood movie industry It s not the whole story but it s a mosaic of what went on and why and of where things are heading What changed in one Hollywood year to produce a record breaking box office after two years of decline How can the Sundance Festival influence a film s fate as it did for Beasts of the Southern Wild and Searching for Sugar Man which both went all the way to the Oscars Why did John Carter misfire and The Hunger Games succeed How did maneuvers at festivals such as South by Southwest SXSW Cannes Telluride Toronto and New York and at conventions such as CinemaCon and Comic Con benefit Amour Django Unchained Moonrise Kingdom Silver Linings Playbook Les Mis rables The Life of Pi The Avengers Lincoln and Argo What jeopardized Zero Dark Thirty s launch What role does gender bias still play in the industry What are the ten things that changed the 2012 Oscar race When it comes to film Anne Thompson a seasoned reporter and critic addresses these questions and more on her respected daily blog Thompson on Hollywood Each year she observes the Hollywood machine at work the indies at Sundance the exhibitors jockeying at CinemaCon the international scene at Cannes the summer tentpoles the fall s smart films and festivals the family friendly and big films of the holiday season and the glamour of the Oscars Inspired by William Goldman s classic book The Season which examined the overall Broadway scene through a production by production analysis of one theatrical season Thompson had long wanted to apply a similar lens to the movie business When she chose 2012 as the year to track she knew that box office and DVD sales were declining production costs were soaring and the digital revolution was making big waves but she had no idea that events would converge to bring radical structural movement record setting box office revenues and what she calls sublime moviemaking Though impossible to mention all 670 plus films released in 2012 Thompson includes many in this book while focusing on the nine Best Picture nominees and the personalities and powers behind them Reflecting on the year Thompson concludes The best movies get made because filmmakers financiers champions and a great many gifted creative people stubbornly ignore the obstacles The question going forward is how adaptive these people are and how flexible is the industry itself     Start Your Own Home Business After 50 Robert W. Bly, 2013 Offers information to retirees on using their retirement income to build a profitable at home business

Norman Lear Tripp Whetsell, 2024-11-12 An in depth telling of the Norman Lear s seven decade career that Publishers Weekly calls a lovingly detailed portrait and a fitting tribute to a consequential figure in television history and Booklist praises as an extensive and comprehensive look at a comedic legend Beginning in the 1970s writer and producer Norman Lear forever altered the television landscape with such groundbreaking situation comedies as All in the Family Maude Good Times Sanford and Son The Jeffersons and One Day at a Time For over half a century his body of work boldly tackled race class sexuality politics and religion topics previously considered too taboo to be the subject of comedy on the small screen Norman Lear His Life and Times is the unforgettable story of an extraordinary seven decade career Veteran author and entertainment journalist Tripp Whetsell offers an intimate portrait of

Lear that is the product of years of research and numerous interviews Whetsell shows how Lear created the gold standard for television comedies producing shows that were the first to give underrepresented members of society an authentic prime time voice while encouraging audiences to confront their own humanity and shortcomings In the process he explores one of television s most transformative periods detailing Lear s legacy as one of its chief architects and catalysts This affectionate and candid tribute combines show business history with an illuminating consideration of the inner workings of the man in the white hat a figure who singlehandedly redefined an entire medium by reflecting the world around him Emmy,2008
