Playing At Home:

Playing at Home Gill Perry, 2013-11-15 Art Since the 80s a new series from Reaktion Books seeks to offer compelling surveys of popular themes in contemporary art In the first book in the series Gill Perry reveals how the house and the idea of home have inspired a range of imaginative and playful works by artists across the globe Exploring how artists have engaged with this theme in different contexts from mobile homes and beach houses to haunted houses and broken homes Playing at Home shows that our relationship with houses involves complex responses in which gender race class and status overlap and that through these relationships we turn a house into a home Perry looks at the works of numerous artists including Tracey Emin Rachel Whiteread Michael Landy Mike Kelley and Peter Garfield as well as the work of artists who travel across continents and see home as a shifting notion such as Do Ho Suh and Song Dong She also engages with the work of philosophers and cultural theorists from Walter Benjamin and Gaston Bachelard to Johan Huizinga and Henri Lefebvre who inform our understanding of living and dwelling Ultimately she argues that irony parody and play are equally important in our interpretations of these works on the home With over one hundred images Playing at Home covers a wide range of art and media in a fascinating look at why there s no place like home
