States of Immersion Across Media Philippe Bédard, Alanna Thain, Carl

Therrien, 2025-10-01 Immersion across media opens our perception to altered states of consciousness Far from disconnecting us from our surroundings these experiences reframe how we connect to the world and to others In this age of technological acceleration myriad new media forms redefine our immersive habits and patterns of gratification States of Immersion Across Media invites readers to slow down and reflect on immersive practices both new and old their impact on our bodies the affective attunements they evoke the disruptions they afford and the creative encounters they generate

Goffman and Social Organization Greg Smith, 2002-11-01 Erving Goffman is considered by many to have been one of the most important sociologists of the post war era His close observation of everyday life and his concern with the ways in which people play roles and manage the impressions they present to each other led to his pioneering creation of a new dramaturgical perspective for sociology His later analysis explored the field of deviance and many of his works in this area are now considered as sociological classics including Asylums The Presentation of the Self in Everyday Life and Stigma This collection brings together many of today's leading sociologists to pursue and build upon the diverse aspects of Goffman's legacy The contributors present chapters on key topics of Goffman's work Issues covered include mental illness and institutionalism the incorporation of literary intertexts in Goffman's writings Goffman's relationship to ethnomethodology the singularity of Goffman's ethnography Ranging from his critique of institutionalization to his understanding of the minute details of face to face interaction this collection reveals the richness of Goffman's own work as well as his contribution to sociology today and will be essential reading for students and academics alike     Group Psychotherapy ,1964     Commentationes Scientiarum Socialium ,1990     Dictionary of American Slang and Colloquial Expressions Salim Khan Anmol ,2025-09-03

Doyle,1994 Doyle shows that though setting and circumstances may change POW stories share a common structure and are driven by similar themes Capture incarceration isolation propaganda torture capitulation or resistance death spiritual quest escape liberation and repatriation are recurrent key motifs in these narratives     Eisenhower's Heart Attack Clarence G. Lasby,1997 Previous Eisenhower biographers have touched on his heart condition but Clarence Lasby is the first to examine the impact of the president's health on the nation He offers a dramatic revisionist account of the events surrounding the president's 1955 heart attack and subsequent efforts by the president and his staff to minimize its political impact Drawing on newly opened medical records and personal papers of Eisenhower's physicians Lasby challenges virtually everything we have believed about the president's heart attack Most disturbingly he has discovered that the president's personal physician Dr Howard Snyder misdiagnosed the attack as a gastrointestinal problem and waited ten hours before sending Eisenhower to the hospital Lasby also sets the record straight on how the president and his aides managed the public's understanding of events and he offers evidence that Eisenhower Dr Snyder and press secretary James Hagerty withheld and recast information to serve the president's political priorities Equally important Lasby's book offers a touching portrait of a proud man faced with a debilitating disease It examines Ike's private struggle to lead a full life despite his condition and analyzes his decision to seek a second term even against the advice of cardiologist Paul Dudley White It also shows how a man who had always carefully joked after his health now became obsessed with it     Jazz Times ,2005 America's jazz magazine Feb 1991     School Library Journal ,2006     The Bulletin ,1963     Behind a Convict's Eyes K.
