Scripture And Exegesis In Early Imami Shiism:

Scripture and Exegesis in Early Imāmī Shiism Meir M. Bar-Asher, 2021-09-20 Since the publication in 1921 of Ignaz Goldziher's Die Richtungen der islamischen Koransauslegung which includes a discussion of Imām exegesis no comprehensive work on this topic has appeared In the intervening years important Imām commentaries on the Qur'ān have become available making possible a reappraisal of the subject The present study aims to contribute to this task primarily by examining the features and methods of Imām exegesis Principally it offers a description and analysis of the major tenets of Imām doctrine as reflected in the earliest Imām works of exegesis and related sources up to the Major Occultation of the twelfth Imam in 329/941 These include among others the belief in a primordial covenant between God and the Shī'a and the superhuman and mystical qualities with which the Imams were graced such as their God-given infinite knowledge their intercession on behalf of their community their immunity from sin and error etc Other tenets relate to the attitude of Imām Shiism to its enemies e.g. the duty to denigrate and dissociate from them These and similar ideas are constant motifs in Imām exegesis and are linked time and again with various Qur'ānic verses Relying on classical and modern Arabic sources Sunnī and Shī'alike as well as on a wide range of western research Meir Bar-Asher sheds new light on the Imām methods of exegesis and on the principal Imām doctrines as reflected in the early Imām exegetical corpus
