SDA Organizational Structure Barry David Oliver, 1989 In this investigation of the administrative structures of the Seventh day Adventist church Oliver examines the historical precursors of reorganization during the years of 1888 1903 He proposes reasons for the reorganization of the church in 1901 1903 and ascertains how the principles involved were related to soteriology ecclesiology eschatological vision and the sense of mission in the church Oliver makes applications to the continuously changing contemporary church Dynamic Truth Rolf Pöhler, 2020-08-28 DYNAMIC TRUTH is a reprint of the author's groundbreaking dissertation on Change in Seventh day Adventist Theology Submitted in 1995 and initially published in 1999 Part I and 2000 Part II it is the first and only in depth study to date dealing with the issue of doctrinal development from an Adventist perspective Part I analyzes the intricate problem of doctrinal development and presents a historical survey of theories of doctrinal change classifying them in three ideal types In the author's view a dialectic approach concerned about substantial continuity as well as authentic change can best avoid the pitfalls of dogmatic immobilism and revisionism Part II provides a detailed study of the problem of doctrinal change in a Seventh day Adventist setting It analyzes the extent nature and direction of doctrinal developments in the light of the religious background of the church and the social forces at work in it It also discusses the church's response to doctrinal adjustments and Ellen G White's involvement in and conception of doctrinal change The study concludes that Adventist teachings have been significantly affected by theological and hermeneutical developments under the impact of social forces nudging the church closer towards evangelical Protestantism Ellen White co founder of the church was personally involved in theological change Her concept of doctrinal development shows a remarkable depth of insight and presents a well balanced approach to the dynamics of faith and truth Towards an Adventist Version of Communio Ecclesiology Tihomir Lazić, 2019-11-13 This book explores how Seventh day Adventists like other Christians can benefit from generating their own version of communio ecclesiology It starts by offering a critical analysis of the status quo of the existing Adventist portrayal of church as remnant and suggests potential ways of moving this tradition forward To articulate a more rounded and comprehensive vision of the church's rich and multifaceted relational nature this book draws on the mainstream Christian koinonia based framework Consequently it provides possible solutions to some of the most divisive ecclesial issues that Christian communities face today regarding church structure ministry mission communal interpretation and reform As it sets on a new footing the conversation between Adventism and other mainstream Christian traditions the methodology of this book serves as a pathway for any Christian community to use when revisiting and enhancing its own current theologies of the church Adventist Interchurch Relations Stefan Höschele, 2022-09-05 This study presents the first comprehensive analysis of Seventhday Adventist interchurch relations a 20 million member body whose ecumenical stance has so far been underresearched For the sake of interpreting denominational involvement and reservations in Adventism as well as beyond the study develops a new academic approach to ecumenism based on Relational Models Theory a comprehensive social science paradigm of interpreting human relationships The resulting typology of ecumenical interactions and the historical case study of Adventism suggest that such a relational interpretation of ecumenical interaction sheds light on many of the unresolved issues in ecumenics such as divergent concepts of unity difficulties in recognition processes and the permanence of denominationalism Seeking a Sanctuary Malcolm Bull, Keith Lockhart, 2007 The story of a large yet little known Protestant denomination Andrews University Seminary Studies Andrews University.
