Remote Jobs Team Roster This Week:

Bingo Capitalism Kate Bedford, 2019-09-26 Casinos are often used by political economists and popular commentators to think critically about capitalism. Bingo, an equal chance numbers game played in many parts of the world, is overlooked in these conversations about gambling and political economy. Bingo Capitalism challenges that omission by asking what bingo in England and Wales can teach us about capitalism and the regulation of everyday gambling economies. The book draws on official records of parliamentary debate, case law, regulations, and in-depth interviews with both bingo players and workers to offer the first socio-legal account of this globally significant and immensely popular pastime. It explores the legal and political history of bingo and how gender shapes and is shaped by diverse state rules on gambling. It also sheds light on the regulation of workers, players, products, places, and technologies. In so doing, it adds a vital new dimension to accounts of UK gambling law and regulation. Through Bingo Capitalism, Bedford makes a key theoretical contribution to our understanding of the relationship between gambling and political economy, showing the role of the state in supporting and then eclipsing environments where gambling played a key role as mutual aid. In centring the regulatory entanglement between vernacular play forms, self-organised membership activity, and corporate leisure experiences, she offers a fresh vision of gambling law from the everyday perspective of bingo.

Football, Community and Social Responsibility Chris Stone, 2025-04-23 This book shines a light on the value and effectiveness of football clubs' community engagement work, the cultural value of sport, and the position sport plays within people's daily lives. The book considers the deep historical roots that many football clubs have as charitable institutions within their civic locales. Including original research carried out during the COVID-19 pandemic, the book presents an in-depth case study of Everton FC and their associated charitable trust. It takes a close look at the outreach work that they undertook during the pandemic to support vulnerable people in the local community and considers the value of that work more generally for local residents, football fans, club staff, and other stakeholders. The book also places the Everton case study in the context of wider debates around the use of sport in the service of humanity and corporate social responsibility in the sport industry. This is fascinating reading for any student, researcher, policy maker, practitioner, or football fan with an interest in sport for development, community work, the relationship between sport, consumption, and wider society, ethical business, or the English Premier League.
