Tourism, Global Crises and Justice Raymond Rastegar,Freya Higgins-Desbiolles,Lisa Ruhanen,2024-09-27 This book gathers theoretical and empirical studies exploring the link between global crises sustainable tourism and the justice challenges being faced by vulnerable groups individuals and society While any crisis may exacerbate existing inequalities the crises of the 21st century are compounding and complicating the ways the impacts unfold and engulf individuals communities and indeed the global community Recent crises revealed how dependent our economies and societies are on the tourism and hospitality industries While studies of crises in tourism have proliferated with concerns for risk management recovery and resilience COVID 19 has exposed the need to think more profoundly on this topic In such circumstances therefore tourism actors must respond to the sustainability and justice challenges resulting from current and future crises by rethinking redefining and reorienting tourism The chapters in this edited volume present a discussion of pertinent themes that consider just transformations issues of climate justice diverse worldviews and knowledges possibilities for solidarity through tourism and concerns with power and decolonisation This book will be of great interest to upper level students researchers and academic of tourism development studies and sustainability as well as professionals in the field of tourism management The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Sustainable Tourism

A Sustainable Tourism Workforce Shelagh Mooney,Richard N.S. Robinson,David J. Solnet,Tom Baum,2024-02-15 This book brings together issues of social justice and the neglect of a sustainable orientation to the tourism workforce This has resulted in an impoverished unsustainable and transient workforce that does not meet the aims of UN sustainable goals within the sector or indeed the UNTWO Code of ethics towards its employees The introductory review and 15 chapters in this volume each make a unique and distinct contribution to knowledge The opening review presents a critique of current definitions of sustainability in an employment and specifically in a tourism employment context acknowledging and critiquing extant literature It uniquely recognises the themes submitted on the topic of sustainable work in the book as well as those which comprise the final selection of chapters These exercises culminate in the presentation of a refreshed conceptualisation of sustainable employment The chapters were mapped onto a proposed conceptual framework which recognises the multi dimensional influences of the evolving Sustainable Development Goals SDGs recent Sustainable Human Resource Management SHRM and tourism literature and fresh contributions to theory Additionally the introductory review offers concluding remarks that the authors hope will influence and guide future research endeavours The book will be invaluable to educators students and policymakers interested in information and guidance on managing sustainable tourism Several chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sustainable Tourism Highly Successful Student Startups & Their Stories SujAI G PillAI,2025-02-24 WORLD S FIRST AUGMENTED REALITY BOOK COVER https talkingbook in Scan the cover to watch exclusive interviews with successful founders and even take a selfie with them using AR technology What if the next world changing startup is being built in a college dorm right now This groundbreaking book uncovers the inspiring journeys of student entrepreneurs who turned bold ideas into global businesses while still in college From the late night cravings that led to Insomnia Cookies to the gaming revolution sparked by Twitch this book explores the challenges breakthroughs and defining moments of 50 legendary student founded startups including DoorDash Hinge Teespring FedEx Palantir Pinterest TheSkimm and more What You ll Learn How young founders built successful startups from scratch The struggles risks and defining moments behind every success story The power of networking mentorship and university support How students turned simple ideas into multi million and billion dollar companies The future of student entrepreneurship AI Web3 climate tech and beyond Who is this book for Students Aspiring Entrepreneurs Learn how to launch your own startup Educators Institutions Discover how to foster a culture of innovation Parents Understand how to support young entrepreneurs Startup Enthusiasts Gain insights from real world startup success stories This book is more than just inspiration it s a blueprint for turning ideas into reality Whether you re a student with a dream a professor guiding future innovators or an investor searching for the next big thing this book will show you how student startups are changing the world and how you can be part of it Start your journey today https talkingbook in
