The Penguin Freud Library Sigmund Freud, 1985
Richards, 1990 The Penguin Freud Library Sigmund Freud, The Penguin Freud Library, Psychoanalysis and Literary Theory Mathew R. Martin, 2022-08-30 Psychoanalysis and Literary Theory introduces the key concepts figures and movements of both psychoanalytic theory and the history of literary criticism and theory engaging with Freud Zizek Plato posthumanism and beyond Divided into two parts concepts and movements the structure of the book is clear and accessible Each chapter builds upon the one before allowing the reader to progress from little or no background in psychoanalysis philosophy or literary theory to the ability to engage actively with the relatively sophisticated ideas presented in later sections of the work Mathew R Martin consistently directs attention to the task of interpreting texts by illustrating abstract theoretical points with literary texts and at apposite moments provides brief readings of selected texts This book will be essential reading for academics and students of psychoanalytic studies literary criticism and literary theory Laughter and Ridicule Michael Billig, 2005-07-19 From Thomas Hobbes fear of the power of laughter to the compulsory packaged fun of the contemporary mass media Billig takes the reader on a stimulating tour of the strange world of humour Both a significant work of scholarship and a novel contribution to the understanding of the humourous this is a seriously engaging book David Inglis University of Aberdeen This delightful book tackles the prevailing assumption that laughter and humour are inherently good In developing a critique of humour the author proposes a social theory that places humour in the form of ridicule as central to social life Billig argues that all cultures use ridicule as a disciplinary means to uphold norms of conduct and conventions of meaning Historically theories of humour reflect wider visions of politics morality and aesthetics For example Bergson argued that humour contains an element of cruelty while Freud suggested that we deceive ourselves about the true nature of our laughter Billig discusses these and other theories while using the topic of humour to throw light on the perennial social problems of regulation control and emancipation The Feminist Uncanny in Theory and Art Practice Alexandra M. Kokoli, 2016-08-11 The Feminist Uncanny in Theory and Art Practice investigates the widely debated deeply flawed yet influential concept of the uncanny through the lens of feminist theory and contemporary art practice Not merely a subversive strategy but a cipher of the fraught but fertile dialogue between feminism and psychoanalysis the uncanny makes an ideal vehicle for an arrangement marked by ambivalence and acts as a constant reminder that feminism and psychoanalysis are never quite at home with one another The Feminist Uncanny begins by charting the uncanniness of femininity in foundational psychoanalytic texts by Ernst Jentsch Sigmund Freud Jacques Lacan and Mladen Dolar and contextually introduces a range of feminist responses and appropriations by Hélène Cixous Julia Kristeva and Sarah Kofman among others The book also offers thematically organised interpretations of famous artworks and practices informed by feminism including Judy Chicago's Dinner Party Faith Ringgold's story quilts and Susan Hiller's paraconceptualism as well as less well known practice such as the Women's Postal Art Even Feministo and the photomontages of Maud Sulter Dead lexicalised metaphors unhomely domesticity identity and dis identification and the tension between family stories and art's histories are examined in and from the perspective of different artistic and critical practices illustrating different aspects of the feminist uncanny Through a partisan yet comprehensive critical review of the fascinating concept of the uncanny The Feminist Uncanny in Theory and Art Practice proposes a new concept the feminist uncanny which it upholds as one of the most enduring legacies of the Women's Liberation Movement in contemporary art theory and practice

Civilization, Society and Religion Sigmund Freud, 1991 Civilized Sexual Morality and Modern Nervous Illness Vol IX 1959 Thoughts for the Times on War and Death Vol XIV 1957 Group Psychology and the Analysis of the Ego Vol XVIII 1955 The Future of an Illusion Civilization and its Discontents Vol XXI 1961 Why War Vol XXII 1964

Eva Hesse Vanessa Corby, Eva Hesse, 2010-06-22 In the ten years between 1960 and 1970 German born American artist Eva Hesse produced one of the most compelling art practices of the twentieth century Her death in 1970 has been a profound loss for contemporary art but the creative legacies of her practice continue to impact upon today's artists In this book Vanessa Corby presents a fascinating new analysis that starts from the position of a painter the book develops a novel art historical method to consider the manner in which artistic protocols and processes negotiate and transform culturally mediated historical experience Hesse's encounters with the work of Rico Lebrun the growing cultural significance of The Diary of Anne Frank and the capture and trial of Adolf Eichmann are each situated in relation to the artist's processes of picturing in order to supplement and shift current understanding of Hesse's art practice Corby aims to show that the artist's work emerged in parallel with the recognition of the event now

I Am the Other Maria A. Ferreira, 2005-02-28 The idea of human cloning has fascinated writers and philosophers for centuries and has been dramatized in myths and fiction This volume traces these fictional illustrations of human cloning from some of the earlier manifestations to more contemporary responses Using a feminist and psychoanalytic perspective this book examines parthenogenesis and other related fantasies and argues that cloning could be an important tool in helping women achieve a more egalitarian status Ferreira contemplates the new psychological implication for humanity that will arise as a result of the development and application of genetic engineering and the possible implementation of human cloning This is one of the first books wholly devoted to a specifically literary analysis of the many issues surrounding the fantasy of human cloning which could in fact become a reality at any moment It makes it a timely contribution to the controversial political social ethical cultural and philosophical debate on cloning and its numerous ramifications

The Psychopathology of Everyday Life Sigmund Freud, 1976

Cultural Tropes of the Contemporary American West Barnard Edward Turner, 2005 This study explores the abiding fascination and provocation of the American frontier West in the contemporary period in contexts which both ground it historically and extrapolate from it refracting it through contemporary film literature science fiction and the rhetoric of information technology A historical geopolitical specificity in granted by chapters on D H Lawrence in New Mexico contemporary Montana literature and two popular movies set there and in Oregon respectively The American West is more generally considered strategically in its connections to Europe as in Wim Wenders s classic Paris Texas the Beach Boys work in the Netherlands and the consideration of the European vision of the internet as a new frontier Comparable connections to East Asia are granted in a chapter on the presentation of Japan in seminal works by Richard Brautigan Close textual analysis of abiding works is given against a background of seminal related critical works not only in historical and cultural studies but also in film analysis and information technology therefore yield a pertinent and timely contribution of that reassessment of the nation as it enters the new millennium

The Psychologist ,2004 Through the Screen Wildly Joanne Benford,2008 As with the relationship between any two cultural areas the flow of ideas between science and science fiction is two way An exchange of knowledge and perspectives exists fed by the concerns of society at large This book explores the dialogues that take place between science fiction and the postmodern world and what effects these have had on identity I take the science fiction novel to be the paradigmatic form of postmodernism Instead of presenting a truth with possible explanations between which it may be impossible to choose the science fiction novel presents possible worlds The stuff of fiction the human condition is framed by unusual worlds which in turn create surprising dilemmas with which the characters must cope It is this question of possible worlds exploring how they relate to temporality in postmodern fiction linking to ideas of hyperspace and finally to my discussion of the postmodern city and the notion of the wildzone

Memory and Survival Emma Wilson,2000 Offers specific focus on Kieslowski s La double vie de Veronique and Trois couleurs bleu blanc rouge and their place within the broader context of French film making

D.M. Thomas Bran Nicol,2004 This book argues that D M Thomas continually stretches the boundaries of the novel to find a suitable form to reflect the the impact of the uniquely violent often nightmarish events of our times on the desires and fantasies within us all

The Films of Tod Browning Bernd Herzogenrath,2006 Known as the Edgar Allan Poe of cinema Tod Browning is the dark master of filmmaking However despite the commercial success he enjoyed during his lifetime he has never received the critical acclaim his work deserves The Films of Tod Browning at last pays tribute to his cinematic legacy With contributors including Vivian Sobchack Bernd Herzogenrath and Nicole Brenez The Films of Tod Browning covers subjects including images of disability the body as spectacle the transition from silent to talkie films and theatrical illusion in Browning s films as well as analysing films such as Dracula Mark of the Vampire and the often overlooked Iron Man in detail An essential for film buffs and academics alike

The Palimpsest: Literature, Criticism, Theory Sarah Dillon,2007-12-25 This innovative monograph proposes the concept of the palimpsest as a paradigm for the relationship between theory and traditional literary criticism which could have a major impact on debate surrounding the role of theory in literary studies

Crash Cinema Mark Goodall,Jill Good,Will Godfrey,2007 Crash Cinema Representation in Film is a collection of essays that emerged from Crash Cinema an annual symposium that is an integral part of the Bradford

Film Festival at the National Media Museum UK The symposium was created by academics and curators who share the common aim of promoting the importance of film both as an academic study and for critical public appreciation Films can be enjoyed as entertainment they can educate and inform and they can excite and disturb Films are powerful pieces of culture The films that we now consume TM do more than simply amuse or horrify Cinema not only thrills us but also communicates to us about ourselves and in the twentieth and twenty first century moving images have become the dominant form of this communication Bombarded by images we inhabit a media intensive world in which every aspect of life is pervaded by visual signs In these circumstances it becomes increasingly significant to engage with the politics of representation Through this vital process we can acknowledge that all cultural forms whether in high art or the mass media are in the broadest sense political We can also appreciate that it is a complex agenda of interests that shapes specific ideological meanings Fulsomely equipped we can apply this essential tool to the exciting task of decoding the political social and cultural meanings articulated through the making promotion and consumption of film This book aims to offer an arena for the analysis of these representations Representations cannot depict the truth TM and the essays in this book do not claim to search for the truth TM We ask whose truth TM is being represented how is it represented and why is it represented like that We also ask how do representations tell us something about the culture within which they are created Yet the essays in this volume are not stuck TM in the representational concerns of the past and try instead to uncover the power of cinema to shock and surprise whether that be through visceral impact subversive content experiments with identity or the exploration of the taboo Representation as defined by the eleven essays in this book is a fluid and dynamic approach to the study of film The study of film to which this book contributes some unique case studies is as popular as ever and has withstood growing challenge from the new media such as CG Animations the internet and computer console and online gaming This is because the pleasure of film is still the most humanistic and because the sophistication of the representations offered by cinematic expression remain ever more complex and pleasurable to decipher This book can therefore be read by any student academic writer or filmmaker hooked on these delights

The Cinema of Lars Von Trier Caroline Bainbridge, 2007 Lars von Trier is the most controversial figure of contemporary European cinema This volume is the first book to analyse in depth the changes he has brought to modern film Since founding the back to basics Dogme philosophy of filmmaking in 1995 von Trier's name has become a by word for taboo breaking cinema As a director he has courted media controversy through films such as The Idiots 1998 with its unsimulated sex and non conformist politics and through his complex relationships with actresses such as Bj rk and Nicole Kidman from whom he coaxed career best performances in Dancer in the Dark 2000 and Dogville 2003 respectively Analysing these films as well as recent works such as The Five Obstructions 2004 from a psychoanalytic perspective it forges a new understanding of the founder of Dogme 95 as a great democratiser of cinema in the digital age presenting von Trier as one of the most daring cinematic exponents of postmodern politics and satire
