Peace As Process Reconciliation And Conflict Resolution In South Asia:

Peace as Process Ranābīra Samāddāra, Helmut Reifeld, 2001 Peace As A Political Value Is The Fundamental Strain Of This Book Basing Itself On Essays Of Differential Nature Method Perspective And Strain The Volume Attempts To Convey The Idea That Peace Studies Can Not Be Monolithic And That Critical Peace Studies Will Have To Eschew The Absolute Polarities Of Realism And Ethics It Is Only Contesting All Values Of Authority By Valorizing Dialogue That Peace Acquires Its Own Value Peace, Literature, and Art - Volume II Ada Aharoni, 2009-08-30 Peace Literature and Art is the component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias Culture is the essence of individual and national identity What children and people read and watch and the kind of Culture Literature and Media they are exposed to through home education and society provide them with basic values attitudes and norms which affect and motivate them throughout their lives It is of crucial importance therefore that those stories we are exposed to at the socio cultural and educational levels which we watch on television in films and on the Internet and which we read should be peaceful ones which open our eyes to a humane world that can prosper from peace and harmony This Theme on Peace Literature and Art deals in two volumes and cover several topics related to Peace Education Definition Approaches and Future Directions Importance of a Literature and a Culture of Peace These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College Students Educators Professional Practitioners Research Personnel and Policy Analysts Managers and Decision Makers NGOs and GOs The Book Review ,2005 Handbook of Regional Conflict Resolution Initiatives in the Global South Jeronimo Delgado-Caicedo, 2022-07-28 During the first half of the twentieth century the international system was largely dominated by the USA and the colonial powers of western Europe After the two world wars the political and economic dominance of these states guaranteed them and their allies an almost complete control of world politics However as it is the norm in the international system power structures are not immutable After the end of the Cold War rapid changes to the existing international hierarchies took place as new countries from the so called developing world began to emerge as crucial actors capable of questioning and altering the power dynamics of the world It is therefore unthinkable to ignore emerging countries such as Russia the People s Republic of China India Brazil or South Africa in the decision making process in today s world order In addition there is a group of smaller yet increasingly important countries that while acknowledging their inability radically to change the rules of the international system are still eager to shift power relations and enhance their influence in the world Argentina Colombia Egypt Indonesia Iran South Korea Mexico Nigeria Pakistan Saudi Arabia Turkey and Vietnam are generally recognised as part of this grouping of emerging powers from the Global South While there is a consensus amongst academics that emerging powers from the Global South must have a stabilising role within their own regions previous analyses have focused primarily on the impact that emerging powers have had in their own regions conflict resolution initiatives This volume instead aims to go beyond these analyses and provide new insights regarding the effect that this stabilising role has on the continental and global positioning of emerging powers In other words this book explores the relation between a country's involvement in conflict resolution initiatives and its positioning in the international system The volume will contribute to this approach using the perspective of academics and practitioners from countries of the Global South particularly from states that have strengthened or sometimes weakened their position in the international hierarchy of power through a leading role in regional conflict resolution initiatives

Grassroots Mediation David Hoicka, In a world torn by conflict from neighborhood disputes to international wars this groundbreaking book offers hope and practical solutions through the power of grassroots mediation Drawing on more than 100 case studies from six continents it demonstrates how local community driven peacebuilding efforts can transform societies save lives and foster prosperity Discover for example how Grassroots Mediation works for peace in Colombia Peace Communities Israel Palestine Grassroots Peace Initiatives Northern Ireland Community Restorative Justice Programs Philippines Barangay Justice System Rwanda Community Reconciliation Efforts Somalia Grassroots Peace Initiatives EWERN and Peace Caravans South Sudan's Youth Led Ceasefire Monitoring Mechanisms This comprehensive guide explores The theoretical foundations of grassroots mediation Creative approaches using art sports and technology The crucial roles of women and youth in peacebuilding Economic initiatives that turn adversaries into partners Cultural practices that foster reconciliation Whether you're a community leader in a conflict zone a policymaker seeking innovative solutions or a citizen passionate about building peace this book provides the tools inspiration and evidence based strategies to make a difference Learn how Grassroots Mediators Initiate dialogue in divided communities Build trust across ethnic religious and political lines Empower marginalized voices in peace processes Create sustainable structures for long term peace Adapt global best practices to your local context Featuring insights from renowned peacebuilders like Liberia's Leymah Gbowee Kenya's Dekha Ibrahim Abdi Guatemala's Rigoberta Mench Tum and Notre Dame's John Paul Lederach this book bridges theory and practice offering a roadmap for transforming conflicts at all levels of society From the favelas of Rio to the villages of Afghanistan grassroots mediators are proving that peace can be built from the ground up Their stories challenge us to reimagine conflict resolution showing that even in the face of severe violence there are always seeds of hope waiting to be nurtured As conflicts like the war in Ukraine continue to claim lives and destabilize regions the lessons in this book become ever more urgent It reminds us that peace is not just the absence of war but the presence of justice dignity and shared prosperity By harnessing the power of grassroots mediation we can create ripples of peace that grow into waves of positive change This book is a call to action for anyone who believes in the possibility of a more peaceful world It shows that each of us regardless of our position or background has the power to be a mediator a bridge builder a source of healing in our communities In the words of Kenya's Wangari Maathai It's the little things citizens do That's what will make the difference This book equips you with the knowledge and inspiration to make that difference one conversation one community at a time Join the global movement of grassroots peacebuilders Discover how you can save lives bring peace foster economic growth and build a healthier happier homeland The journey to a more peaceful world begins with you and it begins now To ensure broad accessibility this book is priced affordably It is my sincere hope that by making this resource widely available it can have a meaningful positive impact If my book Grassroots Mediation How to Save Lives and Bring Peace Happiness Economic Growth in Your Homeland can save even one life or bring a measure of happiness to a single individual I will feel a deep sense of fulfillment and happiness myself I will be grateful to be able to make a difference through this work David Hoicka Peace Watch ,2001 Reconciling Enemy States in Europe and Asia Seunghoon Emilia Heo,2012-04-24 Heo conceptualizes reconciliation in International Relations theory and fills a gap by building a theoretical framework for interstate reconciliation Combining historical and political scientific approaches she analyses case studies from Europe the Middle East and Northeast Asia Encyclopedia of Mental Health ,2015-08-26 Encyclopedia of Mental Health Second Edition Four Volume Set tackles the subject of mental health arguably one of the biggest issues facing modern society The book presents a comprehensive overview of the many genetic neurological social and psychological factors that affect mental health also describing the impact of mental health on the individual and society and illustrating the factors that aid positive mental health The book contains 245 peer reviewed articles written by more than 250 expert authors and provides essential material on assessment theories of personality specific disorders therapies forensic issues ethics and cross cultural and sociological aspects Both professionals and libraries will find this timely work indispensable Provides fully up to date descriptions of the neurological social genetic and psychological factors that affect the individual and society Contains more than 240 articles written by domain experts in the field Written in an accessible style using terms that an educated layperson can understand Of interest to public as well as research libraries with coverage of many important topics including marital health divorce couples therapy fathers child custody day care and day care providers extended families and family therapy SAPANA: Conflict resolution in South Asia Imtiaz Alam,2006 Regional Development Dialogue ,2005 An international journal focusing on third world development problems Understanding Regional Peace and Security Rodrigo Tavares,2006 Development of Modern Indian Thought and the Social Sciences Sabyasachi Bhattacharya,2007 Part of the PHISPC series on modern Indian history this volume provides an overview of the history of social economic and political thought prior to the development of disciplinary categories in social sciences South Asia Politics ,2004 India's Fragile Borderlands Archana Upadhyay,2009-05-30 The nature of terrorism is the subject of ever increasing scrutiny and there are many lessons to be learned from India's borderlands Terrorism fostered at first by post colonial resentments took root in the region because of an increased sense of cultural identity and perceived discrimination and exclusion by the Indian state This book examines the long term effects of terrorism on the population of North East India where the best known conflict is the Naga tribe's ongoing campaign for a greater Nagaland as well as its international consequences India's fragile borderlands traces the development of terrorist groups within the region from small domestic groups to internationally connected and financed organizations This comprehensive and penetrating study examines three major components of terrorism the causes of terrorism in their national global and historical context the nature and manifestations of this phenomenon in India's north eastern frontiers and trends within counter terrorism and security and their effectiveness both within the region and internationally India's Fragile Borderlands offers a comprehensive study of the nature origins and history of terrorism in India's North East within an international perspective Sharing borders with China Bangladesh Nepal Myanmar Burma and Bhutan the region abounds in nationalist separatist and even religious organizations that have used terrorism as a strategy to achieve their aims Archana Upadhyay explores the complex and specific ideologies of these groups while highlighting the cross border links and connections with organized crime that fund the violence in the region This book includes many insights into the nature of terrorism in India's north eastern frontiers and will be invaluable for students of Politics History and International Relations BOOK JACKET
