Peace In Everyday Relationships Resolving Conflicts In Your Personal And Work Life:

Peace in Everyday Relationships Sheila Alson, 2003 The author outlines a practical and forward looking guide to resolving conflict that will help readers smooth relationships at home in the workplace and within families Original Violent No More Michael Paymar, 2000 The book speaks directly to men who have been abusive taking them step by step from recognizing their abusive behaviors through facing their own rage fear and insecurities to learning how to interact with an intimate partner without being abusive Abuse counselor Michael Paymar shows how they can move beyond abusive behavior to lead healthy loving nonviolent lives When Violence Begins at Home K. J. Wilson, Ed.D, 2013-03-15 Since its initial publication this far reaching reference has provided professionals and victims of abuse with guidance on everything from indicators of an abusive relationship to domestic violence legislation from antiburnout tips for helpers to advice on leaving an abusive partner This updated edition addresses new research and programs adding information on date rape drugs stalking cyber stalking pregnancy and domestic violence and the effectiveness of batterer intervention programs Current controversial social and legal issues such as mutual battering child welfare and failure to protect policies child custody and visitation rights for batterers mandatory arrests and welfare reform are also covered Two new chapters devote attention to domestic violence in the military and to the challenging and rewarding role of those who work with battered women and their children New resources have been included to reflect the ever evolving wealth of books web sites and agencies available to both helpers and those in need Counseling Victims of Violence Sandra L. Brown, 2007 This book is designed as a quick reference resource for counselors social workers therapists psychologists psychiatrists R N s and medical staff victim advocates and legal personnel and all those engaged in supporting or helping victims of violence BOOK JACKET After the Storm Kendall Johnson, 2006 We live in the New Age of Anxiety Today we are all challenged by global warming terrorism job loss and economic uncertainty This stress lowers our resilience and we feel vulnerable When personal crises and disasters get added to the mix the results can be traumatic How do we cope What actions can we take to best respond How do we help our children or the children in our care How can we reestablish meaning in our lives Using strategies learned and developed during 18 years on the frontlines Dr Johnson shows people how to manage their emotional reactions in an emergency stabilize those around them and gradually work through the lasting effects of crisis Ditch That Jerk Pamela Jayne, 2011-02-15 Neither weighed down by research nor weightless with airy promises Ditch That Jerk is a gritty honest and most of all experienced view of physical and emotional abusers and their effect on victims Engagingly written it shows women how to assess their partners and relationships for potential abuse and for potential change or not Author Pamela Wiseman uses examples from counseling sessions to illustrate how the mind of an abusive man works and how to identify the patterns She details the tricks used by such men to keep women in line and discusses warning signs alcohol and drugs and the excuses people use to explain abuse Optimistic and empowering without candy coating a difficult topic this book gives
