Peace Studies Matthew Evangelista, 2005 The academic field of Peace Studies emerged during the Cold War to address the nature and sources of interstate and internal conflict and methods to prevent it and deal with its consequences Peace Studies Matthew Evangelista, 2005 The academic field of Peace Studies emerged during the Cold War to address the nature and sources of interstate and internal conflict and methods to prevent it and deal with its consequences Peace Studies Matthew Evangelista, 2005-04-14 The academic field of peace studies emerged during the Cold War to address the nature and sources of interstate and internal conflict as well as the methods to prevent this conflict and deal with its consequences Peace studies much like political science itself is an interdisciplinary field built upon contributions from psychology sociology history and economics among others It differs from related fields such as strategic studies or security studies in its implicit normative and teleological orientation an expectation that scholarly research can contribute to reducing the sources of conflict to produce a more just and peaceful world Public administration, democracy and peacebuilding in the Democratic Republic of the Congo Jean Chrysostome K. Kiyala , 2025-08-01 The Democratic Republic of Congo DRC presents a striking paradox vast natural and mineral wealth coexist with persistent poverty weak infrastructure and fragile institutions Kiyala s four part scholarly book explores these tensions aiming to identify practical and effective strategies to address the country s complex challenges To meaningfully confront the DRC s enduring crises Kiyala argues that public administration must engage with key drivers of insecurity and instability These include 1 Employing the Dodd Frank Act s Section 1502 on conflict minerals particularly the impact of the de facto embargo on the 3Ts tin tungsten and tantalum 2 The question of Congolese citizenship for the Banyamulenge Tutsi communities of the DRC and the need for legislative clarity 3 Regional and international collaboration to address ongoing threats to peace such as the remnants of the FDLR and other armed groups 4 The complex integration of the M23 movement and other armed factions into the national army through effective screening vetting and identification processes 5 The revitalisation of transitional justice reconciliation and national healing efforts Without addressing these core issues with resolve and coherent strategies efforts toward lasting peace and sustainable development will remain elusive The book also introduces the peacebuilding evolution systems theory PBEST a novel framework that integrates peacebuilding theory with insights from neuroscience The PBEST emphasises the progressive development of peace from individual disposition to collective global action for domestic and international security Rich in empirical analysis this scholarly work offers significant insights not only for scholars and researchers but also for practitioners and policymakers in African studies political science public administration and conflict resolution Richard Ned Lebow: A Pioneer in International Relations Theory, History, Political Philosophy and Psychology Richard Ned Lebow, Nathan Funk, 2016-09-13 This is the first of four volumes to be published as part of this book series on the life and work of Richard Ned Lebow In a career spanning six decades Richard Ned Lebow has made important contributions to the study of international relations political and intellectual history motivational and social psychology philosophy of science and classics He has authored coauthored or edited 30 books and almost 250 peer reviewed articles These four volumes are excerpts from this corpus The first volume includes an intellectual autobiography bibliography and assessments of Lebow's contributions to diverse fields by respected authorities It shows how a scholar's agenda evolves in response to world events and his efforts to grapple with them theoretically and substantively It elaborates pathways for addressing these events and their consequences in an interdisciplinary manner and offers new concepts and methods for doing so Richard Lebow's research bridges international relations psychology history classics political theory and philosophy of science He is author coauthor or editor of 34 books and almost 250 peer reviewed articles Contributors to the book are Simon Reich Mervyn Frost Janice Gross Stein Stefano Guzzini Markus Kornprobst Harald Müller Christian Wendt Robert English Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict Karl Cordell, Stefan Wolff, 2010-10-18 A definitive global survey of the interaction of race ethnicity nationalism and politics this handbook blends theoretically grounded rigorous analysis with empirical illustrations to provide a state of the art overview of the contemporary debates on one of the most pervasive international security challenges today The contributors to this volume offer a 360 degree perspective on ethnic conflict from the theoretical foundations of nationalism and ethnicity to the causes and consequences of ethnic conflict and to the various strategies adopted in response to it Without privileging any specific explanation of why ethnic conflict happens at a specific place and time or why attempts at preventing or settling it might fail or succeed the Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict enables readers to gain better insights into such defining moments in post Cold War international history as the disintegrations of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and their respective consequences and the genocide in Rwanda as well as the relative success of conflict settlement efforts in Northern Ireland Macedonia and Aceh By contributing to understanding the varied and multiple causes of ethnic conflicts and to learning from the successes and failures of its prevention and settlement the Handbook makes a powerful case that ethnic conflicts are neither unavoidable nor unresolvable but rather that they require careful analysis and thoughtful and measured responses Nuclear Weapons and International Security Ramesh Thakur, 2015-02-11 This volume brings together more than three decades of research and writings by Professor Ramesh Thakur on the challenges posed by nuclear weapons Following an introduction to the current nuclear state of play the book addresses the challenge of nuclear weapons in three parts Part I describes the scholar practitioner interface in trying to come to grips with this challenge the main policy impact on security strategy and the various future nuclear scenarios Part II addresses regional nuclear challenges from the South Pacific to East South and West Asia and thereby highlights serious deficiencies in the normative architecture of the nuclear arms control and disarmament regime In the third and final part the chapters discuss regional nuclear weapon free zones NPT anomalies and their implications for the future of the nuclear arms control regime and finally assess the global governance architecture of nuclear security in light of the three Nuclear Security

Summits between 2010 and 2014 The concluding chapter argues for moving towards a world of progressively reduced nuclear weapons in numbers reduced salience of nuclear weapons in national security doctrines and deployments and ultimately a denuclearized world This book will be of much interest to students of nuclear proliferation global governance international organisations diplomacy and security studies The Olympic Movement and the Sport of Peacemaking Ramón Spaaij, Cindy Burleson, 2016-04-22 Sport and peacemaking have evolved It is no longer the case that the Olympic Games and war games exist in isolation from each other Increasingly policymakers peacekeepers athletes development workers presidents of nations and others combine forces in an integrated approach towards peace This approach is located not only within the broader historically evolved Olympic Movement but also in relation to a newly emerged social movement which promotes development and peace through sport This book critically examines the ways in which this development is being played out at global national and local levels particularly in relation to the Olympic Movement and initiatives such as the biennial Olympic Truce Resolution The volume constitutes a unique scholarly attempt to provide an in depth comparative analysis of the sport of peacemaking in the context of the Olympic Movement Through international comparison and empirically grounded case studies the book provides an important new departure in the study of the social impact of the Olympic Movement and related peacemaking efforts It discusses these issues from a range of academic disciplines including history sociology political science economics geography philosophy and international relations This book was previously published as a special issue of Sport in Society Positive Peace in Kosovo Elisabeth Schleicher, 2012 Kosovo today more than eleven years after the war is still a fragile and unfinished state enjoying only limited sovereignty while continuing to be divided into a Serb north and an Albanian dominated south All the important dimensions of society in Kosovo remain critical and highly unstable While the security situation in the country except the North has considerably improved the living conditions of the Kosovar population are still in a dismal state Corruption and organized crime continue to block the development of a viable state an efficient bureaucracy and a democratic political culture This book systematically analyzes and describes the relevant developments in Kosovar society since the end of the war and investigates how successfully peace has been established in Kosovo Peacebuilding Vincent Chetail, Oliver Jütersonke, 2015 Pakistan, Regional Security and Conflict Resolution Farooq Yousaf, 2020-10-20 This book explains how colonial legacies and the postcolonial state of Pakistan negatively influenced the socio political and cultural dynamics and the security situation in Pakistan s Pashtun tribal areas formerly known as the Federally Administered Tribal Areas FATA It offers a local perspective on peace and conflict resolution in Pakistan s Pashtun tribal region Discussing the history and background of the former FATA region the role of Pashtun conflict resolution mechanism of Jirga and the persistence of colonial era Frontier Crimes Regulations FCR in the region the author argues that the persistence of colonial legacies in the Pashtun tribal areas especially the FCR coupled with the overarching influence of the military on security policy has negatively impacted the security situation in the region By focusing on the Jirga and Jirga based Lashkars or Pashtun militias the book demonstrates how Pashtuns have engaged in their own initiatives to handle the rise of militancy in their region Moreover the book contends that even after the introduction of constitutional reforms and FATA s merger with the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa province little has changed in the region especially regarding the treatment of tribal Pashtuns as equal citizens of Pakistan This book explains in detail why indigenous methods of peace and conflict resolution such as the Jirga could play some role towards long term peace in the South Asian region Historically and contextually informed with a focus on North West Pakistan this book will be of interest to academics researching South Asian Studies International Relations Peace and Conflict Studies terrorism and traditional justice and restorative forms of peace making

Peacebuilding Vincent Chetail, Oliver Jutersonke, 2014-06-22 The controversies raised by the withdrawal of US troops from Afghanistan the situation in Iraq and the management of the Arab Spring uprisings have demonstrated anew that achieving peace is not merely a matter of ending wars Indeed the consequences of conflicts often extend far beyond the termination of local hostilities impeding the reconstruction of war torn societies and making the resumption of violence more likely than not Moreover in today s interdependent world such consequences may jeopardize not only the stability of directly concerned states but may also undermine regional even global peace As a result the call to build genuine just and sustainable peace conditions exemplified by the establishment in 2006 of the UN Peacebuilding Commission Fund and Support Office has never been more urgent and underscores the pressing need for a comprehensive analysis and understanding of the critical concept of peacebuilding This new four volume Routledge Major Works collection answers such a need by bringing together the best and most influential scholarship from a wide range of academic disciplines to illuminate the idea and challenges of peacebuilding Volume I addresses the concepts actors and institutions of peacebuilding Volume II meanwhile assembles key works to focus on the challenges of security welfare justice and the rule of law Volume III is devoted to democratization the state and civil society while Volume IV brings together major works on the implementation of peacebuilding in particular reconciling international standards and local dynamics With a full index together with a comprehensive introduction newly written by the learned editors which places the collected material in its historical and intellectual context Peacebuilding is an essential work of reference Moreover its interdisciplinary and international perspective is certain to secure the collection a broad readership including scholars advanced students policymakers and practitioners
