Bowes ... [with] a Bibliography, Maps, Etc. [With Plates.]. Gordon E. BOWES, 1963 Peace River Chronicles, 1964 Eighty one eye witness accounts from the first exploration in 1793 of the Peace River region of British Columbia including the Finlay and Parsnip River basins short extracts from explorers journals The Water Chronicle, 1913 God's Galloping Girl W. L. Morton, 2011-11-01 What brought Monica Storrs to embark on a wilderness life in the depressed thirties amidst the hardships of B C s Peace River country the last North American frontier Monica Storrs was to stay in the north for twenty years She came to a wilderness almost roadless townless and schoolless without amenities or culture a land of hot dusty summers and unpredictable sub Arctic winters a land of untamed and unexpected grandeur Hearing the clear call of duty she was endowed with a strong desire to serve the Anglican cause A refined woman of 41 the delicately reared daughter of the dean of Rochester Cathedral she was following a family tradition in seeking missionary work in rough and alien surroundings Her mission was the settlers and the frontier She came to teach Sunday school and the traditions of guiding and scouting to tough work hardened country children She rode horseback to bring the gospel to the families of isolated farmers and trappers She welcomed the poor and hungry to her home both the God fearing and the godless And she was for the most part welcome in theirs She and the women who became her helpers were known affectionately by the people of the Peace as God s Galloping Girls Overcoming early fears of failure and rejection she learned to subdue the prejudices of her moral and social upbringing and at last won acceptance and a permanent place in the heart of the north Monica Storrs diaries are a moving narrative of a woman s indomitable courage faith and humour Her story is a vivid realistic description of frontier life and the struggle for survival Her words convey the wild and primitive beauty of the Peace River country not just a region but an adventure of the spirit

Carving the Western Path R. G. Harvey, 2011-06-15 The history of British Columbia s transportation systems north of the Canadian National Railway s mainline may not be well known but it certainly is colourful Continuing the story he began in the first volume of Carving the Western Path R G Harvey describes the development of river road and rail routes that crossed the northern two thirds of BC This was a land of dreams and schemes that seemed to feed on each other It started with the Collins Overland Telegraph a communication link that was to connect Europe and America in the 1860s Though this plan collapsed with the success of the trans Atlantic cable the telegraph surveyors established patterns for future roads and settlement They also sparked the Omineca gold rush It was a land full of larger than life characters including Charles Hays who dreamed of a major seaport at Prince Rupert but died on the Titanic before he could realize his vision Charles Bedaux who in the 1930s carved his 416 mile path into the northern Rockies Railway promoters Warburton Pike Sir Edward Phillippo Wolley William Mackenzie and Donald Mann who got gifts of land and money but couldn't always meet their promises Their stories mingle with those of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway the Alaska Highway the White Pass and Yukon Railway and those of the sternwheelers fur traders gold miners and other adventurers who were drawn to this last frontier Western Canada's Book of the Year! Peace River Chronicles, 19?? Bounty and Benevolence Arthur J. Ray, James Rodger Miller, Frank Tough, 2000 Bounty and Benevolence draws on a wide range of documentary sources to provide a rich and complex interpretation of the process that led to these historic agreements The authors explain the changing economic and political realities of western Canada during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and show how the Saskatchewan treaties were shaped by long standing diplomatic and economic understandings between First Nations and the Hudson's Bay Company Bounty and Benevolence also illustrates how these same forces created some of the misunderstandings and disputes that arose between the First Nations and government officials regarding the interpretation and implementation of the accords 81 eye-witness accounts from the first exploration in 1793 of the Peace River Region of British Columbia including the Finlay and the Parsnip River Basins. Peace River Chronicles, 1963 Peace Country Heritage Earl Clifford Stacey, 1974 The Forgotten Explorer Samuel Prescott Fay, 2011-02-15 North of Jasper in the Canadian Rockies is a large roadless and spectacular wilderness of alpine flower meadows glaciated peaks canyons waterfalls and abundant wildlife Compared to the millions each year who visit Banff and Jasper national parks immediately to the south this northern area sees few visitors Fewer still have ever attempted to travel through this wilderness in one continuous trip The first to do so was Samuel Prescott Fay in 1914 To this day his exact route has never been duplicated Fay and his party set out from Jasper on June 26 1914 with five saddle horses and 16 pack horses After a treacherous slogging journey of 1 200 kilometres through wild uncharted country they reached their destination on October 15 1914 with the outfit completely intact During his expedition Fay kept a detailed journal currently held at the Smithsonian Institution Washington DC which he provided to the US Biological Survey now known as the US Fish Wildlife Service and to various Canadian government authorities He also published several magazine articles about his discoveries However the journal in its entirety with all his day to day observations struggles and concerns has never been published Similarly his maps photographs and wildlife records have been preserved in various Canadian and US archives but never exhibited to a wider audience Brought together for the first time in book form they provide an early and dynamic record of an area that remains little known to this day Complete with a large selection of never before published photos and maps The Forgotten Explorer is destined to become a classic of North American exploration history The Forestry Chronicle, 1999 BC Studies, 1998 Images of the Plains Brian W.
