Early, 2022-12-28 The Bible can be a difficult book to read because of an obscuring fog that overhangs much of the biblical text Many would be readers have begun with Genesis but have soon given up the effort They were confused frustrated by their inability to follow and understand the narrative This book is intended to help such readers as well as those thinking of undertaking the task for the first time The author is a recognized anthropologist an ex Jesuit with a background in theological and biblical studies He has spent considerable time living with non literate populations These experiences made him realize how much of the Bible is a product of non literate cultures These insights have been confirmed and expanded by archeological historical anthropological and literary research Seen from this perspective most of the Bible consists of theological stories that were later committed to writing rather than a written document of narrative history directly dictated by God In large part the biblical story is a Jewish Epic with its stages of blessing tragedy and redemption It highlights the role of the covenants and the prophets in providing the underlying theological structure of the entire Bible A brief Introduction in Genesis and the Pauline letters extend the moral lesson of the Epic to all of humanity The relationship between the literary and theological structures can be diagrammed on a chart that lays out a synthetic view of the entire Bible as well as an outline of this book Open the front or back covers to view the chart Thomas Carlyle's Works: Critical and miscellaneous essays, v. 1-3 Thomas Carlyle, 1887 Locomotive Engineers Journal, 1896 Common School Education and Teachers World, 1894 British Oribatidae Albert Davidson Michael, 1884 Piercing the Future William Terry James, 2000-03 Nineteen authorities in the field carefully examine prophecies past present and future and how
