Peacemaking Practicing At The Intersection Of Law And Human Conflict:

Peacemaking Douglas Noll, 2003 In his large and ambitious project Noll weaves many strands of academic thinking about human conflict into an integrated view of why people fight how they fight what they fight over and how they can instead make peace whether in the courtroom or beyond Die elegante Art, Hitzköpfe und andere Streithammel zu beruhigen Douglas E. Noll, 2018-03-09 Basierend auf der praktischen Erfahrung eines erfolgreichen Mediators und belegt durch die neurowissenschaftliche Forschung ist dieses Buch ein Problem das wir alle kennen wie geht man mit aufgebracht streitenden oder cholerischen Mitmenschen um Douglas E Noll früher Rechtsanwalt heute Friedensstifter hat eine ebenso einfache wie verblüffend wirksame Kommunikationsweise entwickelt die den Rger des Gegenübers buchstäblich in Sekunden in Luft auflöst Diese De Eskalations Strategie ermöglicht genau das Richtige in genau der richtigen Art im genau richtigen Moment zu sagen und so auch bei Unhöflichkeiten Provokationen oder Mobbingakttacken ruhig und souverän zu bleiben Statt auf die Sachebene einzugehen spiegelt man die Emotionen des Gegenübers wieder Durch Techniken die nachweislich die Emotionszentren des Gehirns beruhigen lassen sich konfliktgeladene Situationen in kürzester Zeit entspannen

Introduction to Peace and Conflict Studies Lois Edmund, 2021-05-21 This book integrates research and theoretical findings from multiple disciplines to present a holistic approach to conflict resolution It highlights the wide ranging and compelling relevance of Conflict Resolution Studies by exploring the entire spectrum of applications in interpersonal relationships family and group functioning and national and international relations Child Soldiers and Restorative Justice Jean Chrysostome K. Kiyala, 2018-07-18 This book investigates how while children used as soldiers are primarily perceived as victims of offences against international law they also commit war atrocities In the aftermath of armed conflict the mainstream justice system targets warlords internationally armed groups and militias commanders who abduct and enrol children as combatants leaving child perpetrators not being held accountable for their alleged gross human rights violations Attempts to prosecute child soldiers through the mainstream justice system have resulted in child rights abuses Where no accountability measures have been taken demobilised young soldiers have experienced rejection and eventually some have returned to soldiering This research provides evidence of the potential of restorative justice peacemaking circles and locally based jurisprudence specifically the Baraza to hold former child soldiers accountable and facilitate their reintegration into society

Public administration, democracy and peacebuilding in the Democratic Republic of the Congo Jean Chrysostome K. Kiyala , 2025-08-01 The Democratic Republic of Congo DRC presents a striking paradox vast natural and mineral wealth coexist with persistent poverty weak infrastructure and fragile institutions Kiyala's four part scholarly book explores these tensions aiming to identify practical and effective strategies to address the country's complex challenges To meaningfully confront the DRC's enduring crises Kiyala argues that public administration must engage with key drivers of insecurity and instability These include 1 Employing the Dodd Frank Act's Section 1502 on conflict minerals particularly the impact of the de facto embargo on the 3Ts tin tungsten and tantalum 2 The question of Congolese citizenship for the Banyamulenge Tutsi communities of the DRC and the need for legislative clarity 3 Regional and international collaboration to address ongoing threats to peace such as the remnants of the FDLR and other armed groups 4 The complex integration of the M23 movement and other armed factions into the national army through effective screening vetting and identification processes 5 The revitalisation of transitional justice reconciliation and national healing efforts Without addressing these core issues with resolve and coherent strategies efforts toward lasting peace and sustainable development will remain elusive The book also introduces the peacebuilding evolution systems theory PBEST a novel framework that integrates peacebuilding theory with insights from neuroscience The PBEST emphasises the progressive development of peace from individual disposition to collective global action for domestic and international security Rich in empirical analysis this scholarly work offers significant insights not only for scholars and researchers but also for practitioners and policymakers in African studies political science public administration and conflict resolution Collaborative Divorce Handbook Forrest S.

Noll,2011-04-01. This in depth analysis goes behind the headlines to understand why crucial negotiations fail. The author argues that diplomats often enter negotiations with flawed assumptions about human behavior sovereignty and power. Essentially the international community is using a model of European diplomacy dating back to the 18th century to solve the complex problems of the 21st century. Through numerous examples the author shows that the key failure in current diplomatic efforts is the entrenched belief that nations through their representatives will act rationally to further their individual political economic and strategic interests. However the contemporary scientific understanding of how people act and see their world does not support this assumption. On the contrary research from decision making theory behavioral economics social neuropsychology and current best practices in mediation indicate that emotional and irrational factors often have as much if not more to do with the success or failure of a mediated solution. Reviewing a wide range of conflicts and negotiations Noll demonstrates that the best efforts of negotiators often failed because they did not take into account the deep seated values and emotions of the disputing parties

In conclusion Noll draws on his own long experience as a professional mediator to describe the process of building trust and creating a climate of empathy that is the key to successful negotiation and can go a long way toward resolving even seemingly intractable conflicts
