The Pearl Harbor Murders Max Allan Collins, 2001 Days before the attack on Pearl Harbor Tarzan author Edgar Rice Burroughs discovers the body of a Japanese American nightclub singer on the beach When the bombs fall Burroughs suspects that there may be a connection between her murder and the massive devastation Japanese War Crimes and Related Topics: A Guide to Records at the National Archives United States. National Archives and Records Administration, 200? This finding aid will help researchers interested in Japanese war crimes war criminals and war crimes trials to navigate the vast holdings of the U S National Archives and Records Administration at College Park NARA It will also be useful to anyone interested in military intelligence political diplomatic economic financial social and cultural activities in the Far East during 1931 1951 as well as to those searching for information regarding Allied prisoners of war the organization functions and activities of American and Allied agencies and the Japanese occupation of countries and the American occupation of Japan While not aimed at researchers interested in the strategic and tactical military and naval history of the war in the Far East this finding aid may nevertheless be useful to those with such interests if only to identify record groups and series of records that may bear on those topics This finding aid covers records from over twenty record groups and includes materials declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act of 2000 P L 106 567 as well as records that were never classified and those declassified before the passage of the Disclosure Act Because the process of identifying declassifying accessioning and processing of records under the Act is taking place as this finding is being compiled late arriving records may not be identified in this finding aid Researchers should consult the IWG Web site <http://www.archives.gov/iwg> for a complete and up to date list of records declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act Federal agencies involved in the identification and declassification of relevant classified records ascertained that there were relatively few pertinent records that were still classified Most relevant records were either never classified or were declassified decades before the Act and were already in NARA s custody While this finding aid s coverage is broad it is not comprehensive Researchers may find other relevant series of records within the record groups mentioned or not mentioned Researchers are encouraged to use other finding aids and consult with NARA staff to locate records of interest In addition the National Archives at College Park holds nontextual records such as still photographs and motion pictures that researchers may want to examine Other NARA facilities hold many records and donated material related to World War II including records related to the subjects covered in this finding aid This is particularly true of the Franklin D Roosevelt the Harry S Truman and the Dwight D Eisenhower archives Think of archives as vast mountain ranges of records with the archivists guiding the expeditions Explorations on familiar well trodden paths produce new perspectives when examined with fresh eyes and imagination A History of War Crimes Trials in Post 1945 Asia-Pacific Zhaoqi Cheng, 2019-06-06 Written by the Director of the Tokyo Trial Research Centre at China s Shanghai Jiao Tong University this book provides a unique analysis of war crime trials in Asia Pacific after

World War II It offers a comprehensive review of key events during this period covering preparations for the Trial examining the role of the War Crimes Commission of the United Nations as well as offering a new analysis of the trial itself Addressing the question of conventional war crimes crimes against humanity crimes against peace such as the Pearl Harbor Incident and violations of warfare law it follows up with a discussion of post trial events and the fate of war criminals on trial Additionally it examines other Japanese war crime trials which happened in Asia as well as considering the legacy of the Tokyo trial itself and the foundation of a new Post War International Order in East Asia     'Crimes against Peace' and International Law

Kirsten Sellars,2013-02-28 In 1946 the judges at the International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg declared crimes against peace the planning initiation or waging of aggressive wars to be the supreme international crime At the time the prosecuting powers heralded the charge as being a legal milestone but it later proved to be an anomaly arising from the unique circumstances of the post war period This study traces the idea of criminalising aggression from its origins after the First World War through its high water mark at the post war tribunals at Nuremberg and Tokyo to its abandonment during the Cold War Today a similar charge the crime of aggression is being mooted at the International Criminal Court so the ideas and debates that shaped the original charge of crimes against peace assume new significance and offer valuable insights to lawyers policy makers and scholars engaged in international law and international relations     Murder in Retrospect
