Peasant And Community In Medieval England 1200 1500:

Peasant and Community in Medieval England, 1200-1500 P. Schofield, 2002-12-17 In recent years work on the medieval English peasant has tended to stress the degree of interaction between the village and the world beyond its bounds This book not only provides an overview of this research but also develops this approach Phillipp R Schofield describes the traditional world of the peasant with attention given to such issues as relations between lord and tenant and the nature of the peasant family and places the peasantry of the late middle ages within the wider political legal ecclesiastical and commercial world of the medieval community

Emcs; Standing Order Sbn Rubin M Phillipp R. Schofield, 2003 Concise elegantly written explorations of themes in the history of Medieval Europe

Beyond Lords and Peasants: Rural Elites and Economic Differentiation in Pre-Modern Europe Frederic Aparisi & Vicent

Royo, 2014-01-30 The present volume explores the process of economic stratification within the rural societies in the Middle Ages and in the Pre modern period paying special attention to the leading sectors of the community Established experts and younger scholars in the field examine the rural elites and its relation with the emergence of agrarian capitalism through different observatories ranging across European regions from Wiltshire England the County of Flanders and the Duchy of Brabant Low Countries to the Kingdom of Valencia Crown of Aragon The contributions analyse the differentiation within the peasantry from various perspectives such as the social conditions the evolution of communal structures the investment strategies the expenses for burials the means for social promotion and the uses of the common lands The book employs a variety of historical methods and draws on a wide range of diverse sources including court records wills law codes manuals of institutional landowners and notarial registries Considering the interest of the issue and the newness of the observatories this volume will be essential reading for specialists on rural history and also engage a more general readership interested in conditions and structures in pre industrial societies

The Rural History of Medieval European Societies Isabel Alfonso Antón, 2007 This collection gathers a number of scholars to reflect on recent developments in medieval rural history in their respective countries Each individual contribution surveys recent areas of research significant results as well as perspectives for the future This is meant not only to provide a deeper insight into how medieval rural studies relate to current debates in the social sciences but also to help understand the connections between specific national historiographic traditions and present day research issues in their historical context By comparing different European regions one can see more clearly the similarities and the differences and this is a truer means of constructing syntheses and for identifying fruitful future lines of research

The Parish in Late Medieval England Clive Burgess, Eamon Duffy, 2006

Credit and Village Society in Fourteenth-Century England Chris Briggs, 2009 Credit transactions were a common and important feature of peasant society in the middle ages This study of rural credit in medieval England uses the evidence of inter peasant debt litigation to investigate the lenders and borrowers the uses to which credit was put and the effects of credit on social relationships

The Rise of Market Society in England, 1066-1800 Christiane Eisenberg, 2013-12-01 Focusing on England this study reconstructs the centuries long process of commercialization that gave birth to the modern market society It shows how certain types of markets e g those for real estate labor capital and culture came into being and how the social relations mediated by markets were formed The book deals with the creation of institutions like the Bank of England the Stock Exchange and Lloyd s of London as well as the way the English dealt with the uncertainty and the risks involved in market transactions Christiane Eisenberg shows that the creation of a market society and modern capitalism in England occurred under circumstances that were utterly different from those on the European continent In addition she demonstrates that as a process the commercialization of business society and culture in England did not lead directly to an industrial society as has previously been suggested but rather to a service economy

Peasants and Landlords in Later Medieval England, C. 1380-c. 1525 E. B. Fryde, 1996 This book assesses the realities of life in rural England during the later Middle Ages based as much on the perspective of the peasants themselves as that of their landlords It examines the effect of the Great Revolt of 1381

Church Building and Society in the Later Middle Ages Gabriel Byng, 2017-12-14 The construction of a church was undoubtedly one of the most demanding events to take place in the life of a medieval parish It required a huge outlay of time money and labour and often a new organisational structure to oversee design and management Who took control and who provided the financing was deeply shaped by local patterns in wealth authority and institutional development from small villages with little formal government to settlements with highly unequal populations This all took place during a period of great economic and social change as communities managed the impact of the Black Death the end of serfdom and the slump of the mid fifteenth century This original and authoritative study provides an account of how economic change local politics and architecture combined in late medieval England It will be of interest to researchers of medieval socio economic and art history

The Development of Leasehold in Northwestern Europe, C. 1200-1600 B. J. P. van Bavel, Phillipp R. Schofield, 2008 In the twelfth to sixteenth centuries the exploitation of landownership underwent drastic changes in various parts of Northwestern Europe In these changes the emergence of the lease plays a pivotal role At the end of the Middle Ages in a number of areas within the North Sea area the greater part of available land was held at lease for relatively short terms The competitive and contractual nature of such leasing has caused many to associate it with the emergence of capitalism in the countryside seeing its rise as a key element in the transformation of the rural economy and society in the last millennium In view of this it is surprising that the emergence of leasing has received little systematic attention particularly where its roots its early development its exact arrangements and the social and economic context of its emergence are concerned let alone the regional and chronological differences in these elements This volume aims to make a first step in exploring these issues Bas van Bavel is professor of Economic and Social History of the Middle Ages at Utrecht University the Netherlands Phillipp P R Schofield is professor of Medieval History Aberystwyth University United Kingdom Credit and the Rural Economy in North-western Europe, C. 1200-c. 1850 Phillipp R. Schofield, Thijs Lambrecht, 2009 1200 and c Rodney Hilton's Middle Ages Rodney Howard Hilton, Christopher Dyer, Peter R. Coss, Chris Wickham, 2007 This collection of essays based on original research is an exploration of the sort of themes which Rodney Hilton worked on in the light of recent research particularly lord peasant relationships revolts and urban commercial development It aims at summing up where these themes are at present and where they will go in the future The volume was edited by Christopher Dyer Peter Coss and Chris Wickham

The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies, 2004 Terry Jones' Medieval Lives Terry Jones, Alan Ereira, 2004 Famous for lampooning the medieval world in Monty Python and the Holy Grail Terry Jones has a real passion for and detailed knowledge of the Middle Ages In Terry Jones Medieval Lives his mission is to rescue the Middle Ages from moth eaten clichés and well worn platitudes Behind the stereotypes of damsels in distress and knights in shining armor there are wonderfully human stories that bring the period to life Terry will start with the medieval archetypes the Knight Peasant Damsel Monk Outlaw King Merchant and Physician and in the course of unravelling their role and function will introduce a host of colorful real life characters recreating their world by visiting key locations Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur, 2006 Schuldenlast und Schuldenwert Gabriele B. Clemens, 2008 Freedom of Movement in the Middle Ages Peregrine Horden, 2007 After the Black Death Mark Bailey, 2021 The Black Death was the worst pandemic in recorded history This book presents a major reevaluation of its immediate impact and longer term consequences in England Rural Society and Economic Change in County Durham A. T. Brown, 2015 In the middle of the fifteenth century the economy of north east England was beset by crises population was low production was stagnant and many landowners faced penury By the end of the sixteenth century however the precocious development of the coal industry and high levels of inflation provided opportunities for investment and profit in the Durham countryside This book examines the development of agrarian capitalism estate management tenure and the land market social mobility the gentrification of merchant wealth and the emergence of the yeomanry during this period in the region It looks at such questions as how the coal industry was affected by the fifteenth century recession and the effects its rapid expansion had upon landed society reassesses debates on the rise of the gentry and the crisis of the aristocracy and considers how the wholesale economic changes of this period affected the social structure of late medieval and early modern England Although this period is often seen as a transitional era this book argues that it needs to be studied as one long agrarian cycle showing the degree to which patterns of landholding fixed during the fifteenth century recession affected the distribution of profits between different types of lords and tenants in the sixteenth and early seventeenth century A T Brown is an Addison Wheeler Fellow at Durham University
