Peasant Struggles Land Reforms And Social Change Malabar 1836 1982:

Peasant Struggles, Land Reforms and Social Change: Malabar 1836-1982 P. Radhakrishnan, 1989 Peasant Struggles, Land Reforms and Social Change P Radhakrishnan, 1989-06 This volume is an in depth study of the interrelationship between peasant struggles land reforms and social change in Malabar North Kerala The author postulates that land reforms have been historical struggles and that any coherent and comprehensive understanding of social change on the basis of such reforms should be in the context of related peasant struggles Radhakrishnan then documents the long series of peasant struggles and land reforms in Malabar from the second half of the nineteenth century up to 1970 and examines the ultimate outcome of these struggles Social Movements in India Ghanshyam Shah, 2004-04-08 Social movements hasn t been a popular topic with researchers making up less than 3 per cent of all studies in history political science sociology and anthropology sponsored by the Indian Council of Social Science Research ICSSR up to the mid nineties The research has had an institutional or government skew in that the study of the politics of the masses has been largely ignored There are reasons of history behind this but what has been consistently lost sight of is the fact that in the absence of an understanding of the politics of the masses the functioning of the state can be understood only partially This volume is a revised and enlarged edition of the author s review of literature on social movements in India first commissioned by the ICSSR After careful deliberation on the ideal definition of a social movement the author adopts for this volume the loose idea of non institutionalised collective political action striving for social and political change On the basis of the socio economic characteristics of participants and the issues involved this volume makes a nine fold classification of social movements peasant movements tribal movements dalit movements backward caste movements women s movements working class movements students movements middle class movements and human rights and environmental movements added in this edition This book is important as much for filling a scholarly lacuna in social science studies as for proposing and executing an orderly classification of literature on social movements in modern India The original shorter monograph received an enthusiastic response from both scholars and laypersons and this volume is likely to be welcomed similarly The Making of Modern Agriculture in Independent India Madhumita Saha, 2025-09-03 This book provides a comprehensive historical account of agricultural development in independent India It studies concerns regarding food shortages in the years immediately after independence covers the debates over the introduction of Green Revolution technology and examines the knowledge network that facilitated the introduction of new seeds The book presents a critical examination of agricultural modernisation its technoscientific practices manpower and institutions and provides deeper insights into how it shaped the rural economy the relationships it maintained with agricultural sciences and the extensive control it sought to exert over the environment It examines multiple facets of food crop research from sites of knowledge production transnational knowledge networks and the evolution of the research community to the challenges faced by Indian agricultural scientists An important contribution this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of South Asian Studies agriculture food security historians of science and technology environmental studies developmental studies agrarian studies modern Indian history and the Cold War Local Agrarian Societies in Colonial India Peter Robb, Kaoru Sugihara, Haruka Yanagisawa, 2013-10-31 The first systematic attempt to introduce a full range of Japanese scholarship on the agrarian history of British India to the English language reader Suggests the fundamental importance of an Asian comparative perspective for the understanding of Indian history Flottenbau und Forstbetrieb in Indien, 1794-1823 Michael Mann, 1996 Social Mobility in Kerala Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2000-12-20 The Izhavas are an ex untouchable community in the southern Indian state of Kerala Politically and economically weak stigmatised as toddy tappers and devil dancers and considered unapproachable by clean caste Hindus a century ago Izhavas were associated with other manual labouring untouchable castes In recent decades they have sought to improve their position by accumulating economic symbolic and cultural capital through employment religion politics migration marriage education and have tried to assert their right to mobility often in the face of opposition from their high status Christian and Nayar neighbours This study examines how Izhavas through repudiation of their nineteenth century identity and search for mobility have come into complex relationships with modernity colonialism and globalisation Filippo Osella and Caroline Osella highlight the complexities and contradictions of modern identity both locally and globally The authors approach builds upon and goes beyond a south Asian focus showing how the Izhavas represent the rise of formerly stigmatised groups who remain at the same time trapped by stereotype and material disadvantage Absolute mobility they argue has not led to relative mobility within a society which remains stratified and prone to new forms of social exclusion Peasants and Land Reforms in Orissa, 1936-1976 Subash Chandra Padhi, A. Sobha Rani, 2004 Life Is A Little Better Richard W Franke, 2019-09-10 This ethnography of Nadur Village explores the ramifications of Kerala State's policy of wealth redistribution to achieve equality The author shows a decline in income inequality and an improved quality of life for most villagers despite high unemployment low incomes and the persistence of inequalities that redistribution has not overcome This e Violence of Democracy Ruchi Chaturvedi, 2023-06-30 In Violence of Democracy Ruchi Chaturvedi tracks the rise of India's divisive politics through close examination of decades long confrontations in Kerala between members of the Communist Party of India Marxist and supporters of the Hindu nationalist Rashtriya Swayam Sevak Sangh and the Bharatiya Janata Party Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork and extensive archival research Chaturvedi investigates the unique character of the conflict between the party left and the Hindu right This conflict she shows defies explanations centering religious caste or ideological differences It offers instead new ways of understanding how quotidian political competition can produce antagonistic majoritarian communities Rival political parties mobilize practices of disbursing care and aggressive masculinity in their struggle for electoral and popular power a process intensified by a criminal justice system that reproduces rather than mitigating violence Chaturvedi traces these dynamics from the late colonial period to the early
