Elle se concentre dans l'éducation de la tête insuffisamment sur l'éducation des mains, négligeant celle du cœur. Pourtant, le cœur de l'éducation réside ainsi dans l'aptitude sociale. En norme, l'éducation de développement des talents est le chemin empruntant l'identification et le développement des talents, les voies d'action. La spécialisation et la professionnalisation sont les objectifs poursuivis, structures autour des talents, des domaines d'intérêts les plus forts des motivations et des aspirations. Son succès dépend d'un partenariat entre les enseignants, les conseillers d'orientation et les parents. L'éducation de développement des talents est holistique, atteignant son but dans l'emploi de qualité, la sortie de l'éducation, l'épanouissement individuel durable, travers une contribution significative à la transformation de l'environnement et ainsi au bien-être collectif. L'éducation du cœur est essentielle pour réaliser l'harmonie sociale, la paix et la sécurité communautaire nationale et globale.

Une formation pour tous France. Commission Education, formation, recherche, France. Commissariat général du plan, 1989 La pédagogie du projet en formation Jean Vassileff, 2003 La notion de projet envahit la formation. Le but de celle-ci n'est plus seulement de conduire les personnes en formation à un certain niveau de connaissances ou de performances, mais d'intégrer connaissances et performances dans la logique de leur projet. Cette évolution qui place l'apprenant à l'origine et au centre de l'activité d'apprentissage se traduit pour les formateurs par une problématique nouvelle : comment prendre en compte pédagogiquement la laboration et l'accompagnement des projets des formés ? On sait l'importance de cette question dans les formations pour publics défavorisés et dans les formations professionnelles. Le présent ouvrage propose d'y répondre grâce à l'enrichissement du concept de projet par celui de projection : le projet d'une personne se présente comme le fruit de sa capacité de projection. La projection exprime la démarche de l'individu qui donne du sens ses pensées et ses actes, part de ses propres conceptions. C'est cette démarche, expression du désir qui fonde l'autonomie et qu'il convient en premier lieu de développer chez les formés. Pour cela, la formation est mise à la disposition des formés qui rendus propriétaires de leur espace temps font directement et concrètement l'expérience de leur projection dans l'ici et maintenant de la formation. Le rôle des formateurs consiste alors à gérer pédagogiquement la dynamique d'apprentissage née de cette situation.
