Imagining Teachers Gustavo Fischman, 2000 This book calls for a different understanding of the professional preparation of pre service teachers critically reflecting on issues of caring and gender and challenging the dominance of words only educational research methodologies Using conceptual tools from visual anthropology cultural studies feminism and critical pedagogy Fischman focuses on the educational dilemmas that students and professors in teacher education programs face within institutions that reinforce rather than challenge oppressive class racial ethnic and gender dynamics He pays special attention to the transmission of models of teaching that are invested of essential masculine and feminine patterns that potentially lead to two very distinctive professional careers one that is associated with dedication and care and a second that emphasizes order and command Democratic Education Yusef Waghid, 2002 Education and Society ,2005 The Poverty of Life-Affirming Work Mechthild Hart, 2002 While society may applaud middle and upper class women who decide to stay home to raise their children there exists a decided abhorrence for single mothers welfare queens who collect public funds but do not work Here Hart challenges traditional notions of welfare mothers by providing first hand accounts of poor urban mothers and revealing the life affirming and moral aspects of their motherwork a form of subsistence work involving many tasks that incorporate the physical psychological emotional and spiritual dimensions of life Though the mothering work these women do is vilified in public discourse as unnecessary and unwanted the author contends that the ethical and epistemological dimensions of life affirming work a key component of motherwork not only structure social political activism but also educational efforts that are oriented towards radical change Concrete experiences of motherwork policy analyses regarding welfare reform efforts oriented towards educational and epistemological border crossings and collective struggles for social change are examined here in a larger theoretical political economic framework Pulling together the many strands of different theoretical fields addressing issues related to critical transformative pedagogy community activism and forms of unpaid work this unique work calls for the unlearning of ways of thinking and feeling which uphold prejudices and life threatening social political hierarchies While the public may sneer at women who choose to accept welfare in order to stay home to raise their children these mothers must continue to perform this invisible work in order that their children may break the cycle of poverty in which they are entrenched The author examines ways in which these mothers organize and carry out educational efforts and political work in the context of extreme poverty and against the harsh criticisms of an unforgiving public Ultimately Hart hopes to convince the public of the inherent importance of motherwork and break down the prejudices that have worked against the urban poor and single mothers The Power of Critical Theory Stephen Brookfield, 2005 The Power of Critical Theory presents powerful arguments for the importance of critical theory in fostering the kind of learning that leads to a truly democratic society and it explores a number of tasks for adult learners including learning to challenge ideology contest hegemony unmask power overcome alienation learn liberation reclaim reason and practice democracy The Power of Critical Theory examines the work of such noted theorists as Adorno Horkheimer Foucault Althusser Gramsci Fromm Marcuse and Habermas Brookfield guides readers through key concepts and explains which theorist is most closely identified with each concept Dust jacket New Books on Women and Feminism ,1996 writing and its cultural structures to model alternatives to them Community and Democracy in South Africa Yusef Waghid, 2003 Though the tradition of liberalism in South Africa has significantly helped shape the multi party democracy says Waghid philosophy of education U of Stellenbosch it suffers from such weaknesses as an aversion to majority rule attempts to equalize opportunities through affirmative action and a focus on securing political rights as opposed to substantive rights for all citizens He promotes a form of liberalism he thinks can minimize the flaws through a rational reflexive discourse oriented procedure of deliberative democracy He has not indexed his work Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews Stories Out of School James L. Paul, Terry Jo Smith, 2000-04-03 The changes in how we Current Contents .1999 com understand and study teaching and learning are uneven Strongly held beliefs support the changes and equally strongly held beliefs challenge them However the discourse about teaching and learning and our understandings of the nature of educational research have changed rather dramatically in the last two decades These changes form the context for the work described in this book on stories out of school adult memories of their teachers. The authors have been guided by the work of Jackson 1992 Noddings 1992 Eisner 1998 Palmer 1998 Coles 1989 and Lindley 1993 among others who have focused on the qualities of life experienced by children particularly in the classroom Interests have centered on memory meaning and the self in relationship Using a database of letters written by adults most of whom are teachers or are preparing to be teachers to their former teachers the authors examine the interpersonal spaces shared by teachers and students and the kinds of unacknowledged pedagogies created in those spaces They are interested in the ethics of experienced pedagogies and the implications of those pedagogies for educating teachers The Spirit of Resistance Melissa Rivera, 1999 Boletin Internacional de Bibliografia Sobre Educacion, 1998
