Best Practice Occupational Therapy for Children and Families in Community Settings Winnie Dunn, 2024-06-01

As the occupational therapy profession concerns itself with how people occupy their time during daily life it is critical for occupational therapists who serve children to understand how to apply their knowledge and skills within the complex and varied environments of the community. A core text for over 10 years, Best Practice Occupational Therapy for Children and Families in Community Settings Second Edition by Dr Winnie Dunn provides a clear insight into how to conceive, design, implement and evaluate services that reflect core principles. Best Practice Occupational Therapy for Children and Families in Community Settings Second Edition provides the most current information about providing services within community settings with material addressing early intervention, early childhood, school age services and transitions. The context of this text is rooted in best practice principles from interdisciplinary literature and illustrates how occupational therapy professionals implement those principles in their everyday practices. New Features of the Second Edition: Updated assessments, evidence and appendices, Case studies that illustrate the implementation of ideas in a practice situation, Worksheets that outline each step in the occupational therapy process from what to include to how to provide rationale for team members, families and consumers, Tables and inserts that summarize key points, Information regarding state and federal legislation to guide the occupational therapists in how to negotiate for best practice services within parameters of regulations. Integrated throughout the text is the American Occupational Therapy Association's Occupational Therapy Practice Framework. Additional online resources that are available with new book purchases: Included with the text are online supplemental materials for faculty use in the classroom. Best Practice Occupational Therapy for Children and Families in Community Settings Second Edition contains many suggestions about how to practice the skills needed for evidence based practice, making this the perfect resource for occupational therapy students, faculty and practitioners who serve children and families.

Occupational Therapy Models for Intervention with Children and Families Sandra Dunbar, 2024-06-01

Occupational Therapy Models for Intervention with Children and Families explores recent theoretical models that enable occupational therapists to practice and interact with families in a more holistic and occupation centered manner. This comprehensive and dynamic text offers the latest information on viewing the broader contexts of environment and family in order to meet diverse occupational needs in a range of settings. Sandra Barker Dunbar presents a variety of case scenarios that feature culturally diverse populations and varying diagnoses of children with occupational needs. With contributions from 11 renowned leaders in occupational therapy, this comprehensive text is designed to increase awareness and understanding of theoretical models and their relationship to current occupational therapy practice with today's children and families. Inside Occupational Therapy Models for Intervention with Children and Families, traditional frames of reference in pediatric practice are explored, including sensory integration and neurodevelopmental treatment. Some current theoretical models discussed include the Model of Human Occupation the Person Environment Occupation model the Ecology of Human Performance model and the Occupational Adaptation model The new Occupational Therapy Practice Framework is incorporated throughout the text Employing a practical approach to this significant aspect of pediatric practice in occupational therapy Occupational Therapy Models for Intervention with Children and Families is an invaluable tool for students at all curriculum levels
