

PRAYERS OF THE EUCHARIST
EARLY AND REFORMED
R. C. D. Jasper and G. J. Cuming

From the Jewish Blessing for Food, through the early Christian liturgies, the liturgies of the middle ages, the Reformation, to the Prayer Book of 1662 – this is a new presentation of 36 texts that show the development of the liturgy of the eucharist.

The editors' aim has been to indicate how each rite handles the four main eucharistic actions: taking, giving thanks, breaking, giving. Successive versions of a rite are indicated wherever possible, and the general structure of the liturgy from which each text is taken is outlined.

Every effort has been made to utilize the oldest and most reliable sources, including some which have come to light in the last ten years. The translations are based on the best available texts of the originals, and provide a clear modern English version for the student. (Prayers originally composed in English are modernised in spelling, but otherwise unaltered.)

Introductions to each text help the student to situate the prayer in its historical and liturgical context. Bibliographies indicate where the original is to be found, and easily accessible commentaries.
