Praying With The Desert Mothers:

Praying with the Desert Mothers Mary Forman, 2005 Introduces the reader to the lives sayings and stories of the fourth and fifth century women who were foundational members of the early Christian community in the Mediterranean region invites readers to explore their own spiritual journeys Provided by publisher The Desert Mothers Mary C. Earle, 2007-02 Includes summaries of the thoughts and spiritual approaches of the Desert Mothers along with spiritual practices based on their writings

An Asian Woman's Religious Journey with Thomas Merton Jung Eun Sophia Park, 2021-11-30 Join Jung Eun Sophia Park on her personal quest for God and her true self through the writings of Thomas Merton Approaching Merton as an Asian immigrant feminist in the postcolonial era Park's perspective is a unique one and in this dance sometimes it is her and sometimes Merton who leads Throughout Eastern and Western spirituality are organically woven together in reflection on Merton's narratives and in the examination of late capitalism poverty beauty and violence These reflections are insightful provocative and illuminating particularly with regard to his androcentric spirituality especially as it relates to his relationships with women

Irreverent Prayers Elizabeth Felicetti, Samantha Vincent-Alexander, 2024-07-02 Two pastors share their experiences with serious illness and their candid darkly humorous prayers for making it through Samantha Vincent Alexander almost died from a septic leg infection Elizabeth Felicetti underwent aggressive treatment for both breast and lung cancer in the space of a few months and then the cancer came back As Episcopal priests they know well the typical prayers offered in times like these But when you're seriously sick you need more than psalms and sentimentality You need to tell God how you really feel With vulnerability and wry humor Felicetti and Vincent Alexander share the prayers they wish they had when they were ill thanksgiving for one size fits all hospital underwear curses against Tylenol frustrated appeals when well wishers call you brave or inspiring At once faithful and brutally honest these prayers offer readers a more candid way of communicating with the God who understands human suffering with an incarnational intimacy Talking to God when you're fighting serious illness can feel impossible But God can bear our doubt anger anxiety and grief This unconventional prayerbook helps readers access a deeper relationship with God in raw times and offers them a place of solidarity and spiritual rest

The Language of the Soul in Narrative Therapy Laura Béres, 2022-07-08 The Language of the Soul in Narrative Therapy uniquely bridges the gap between narrative therapy and spirituality to describe how the theory and practice of narrative therapy may be expanded and enriched by incorporating the language of the soul Divided into three parts the book begins by contextualizing the approach of narrative therapy and spirituality Chapters then debate the complexity of the soul as a term drawing on the work of Christian mystics and philosophers such as Teresa of Avila Edith Stein Merleau Ponty and Bakhtin to show how their theoretical ideas can be incorporated in counseling practice and spiritual direction The book concludes by discussing how the language of the soul can be integrated and applied in postmodern practice With case examples from faith belief systems such as Christianity

Buddhism Paganism Wicca and Yazidism throughout this book is essential reading for therapists clinical social workers and counsellors in practice and graduate training as well as spiritual directors and pastoral counselors interested in the ideas and practices of narrative therapy

The Path of Centering Prayer David Frenette, 2012-09-01

In the teachings of Jesus there are prayers and then there is prayer the silent loving communion with the divine beyond words or ritual With Father Thomas Keating's book Open Mind Open Heart hundreds of thousands discovered the transformative power of Centering Prayer as a form of Christian meditation Now with The Path of Centering Prayer Keating's senior student friend and advisor David Frenette reveals the profound depths of this practice making it easier for meditators to deepen their connection with God

Has your spiritual path grown routine or unfulfilling or is it at a crossroads for new discovery For all Christians who seek to move closer into the presence of the divine The Path of Centering Prayer offers guidance in this rewarding and time honored meditation practice to help break through obstacles and illuminate the way This book in my view is the best most comprehensive and most practical book on centering prayer

Father Thomas Keating In this beautiful book David Frenette expands the map of the known Centering Prayer universe With the blessing of his spiritual father Thomas Keating David develops and gently reshapes fundamental building blocks of the Centering Prayer teaching This is an important moment in the Centering Prayer lineage transmission when a faithful student emerges into mastery David's work will breathe significant new life into your personal practice

Rev Cynthia Bourgeault author of Centering Prayer and Inner Awakening This excellent book represents Christianity come to maturity Here you will find good theology good practice good psychology and a recovery of the foundation itself how to live in communion all the time

Fr Richard Rohr OFM founding Director of the Center for Action and Contemplation With simplicity and great wisdom David Frenette reconnects you to the universal tradition of how to open to God how to pray in silence and finally how to let the spirit pray within your heart If you want or need to be drawn deeper into prayer read this book and live its guidance

Llewellyn Vaughan Lee PhD Sufi teacher and author of Prayer of the Heart in Christian and Sufi Mysticism In his lucid guide to Centering Prayer David Frenette navigates a path for beginners and seasoned practitioners who wish to enter ever deepening states of loving friendship with the Divine

Mirabai Starr author of God of Love A Guide to the Heart of Judaism Christianity and Islam This wonderful book provides direction encouragement and support for a prayer practice with ancient roots Drawing on his considerable experience as a spiritual director David Frenette skillfully shares stories and offers wisdom that illuminates the heart of the practice and will lead practitioners through the subtle challenges that inevitably arise in the process of living into ever deepening levels of prayer

This is a book not only to be read but to be consulted regularly for insight and help along the way

The Right Reverend Robert O'Neill Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Colorado The Path of Centering Prayer is a beam of light in what can sometimes be a dark and unknown journey with God It is written from the heart of David's relationship with God and his discoveries along his contemplative journey in solitude in community and in spiritual direction From this place of wisdom David enlightens readers with encouragement and enrichment which will nourish them in their own commitment to the centering prayer practice and the contemplative life Gail Fitzpatrick Hopler President of Contemplative Outreach Ltd Forgotten Desert Mothers, The Swan, Laura, 2022 In The Forgotten Desert Mothers Laura Swan introduces readers to the sayings lives stories and spirituality of women in the early Christian desert and monastic movement from the third century on In doing so she finally sets the record straight that women played an important and influential role in early Christianity indeed a role that has been long overshadowed by men She begins with an exploration of the historical context and spirituality of the desert ascetics Then she weaves together the sayings of the major desert ammas or mothers along with commentary that invites readers to reflect on their own spiritual journey as they share their wisdom The book then journeys between desert monastery and city to reveal the stories of ascetics and solitaries whose stories are rarely heard organized in the author's own alphabetical collection The Forgotten Desert Mothers demonstrates like no other work that women have long had a history of leadership in Christianity This engaging eye opening and insightful work targets all faith seekers looking to reclaim the history and spirituality of the women who came before them as well as to understand their own inner journey It will be a welcome addition to courses on early church history women's studies and religious studies Practice the Pause Caroline Oakes, 2023-01-24 These days many of us live in a state of overreactive fight or flight response and chronic stress The demands of modern life pull us in all directions and can often put the meaningful connections in our lives at risk connections to our deepest selves to others and even to God But there is good news New developments in brain science have recently proven that an intentional practice of pausing for a few minutes of meditation prayer or other contemplative practice actually rewires our brain in ways that make us calmer less reactive and better able to see the bigger picture In Practice the Pause spiritual director and writer Caroline Oakes offers easy to understand explanations of how this new brain science is confirming what every spiritual tradition has been telling us for millennia by practicing the pause we become more self aware and better able to understand others We become more God aware With a refreshing focus on the Eastern Christian understanding of Jesus as a master of wisdom Oakes shines a spotlight on Jesus's own centering pause practice as a transformative path for personal and social change We learn that even a seven second pause practice can move us beyond the fight or flight responses of our ego in our daily lives and actually equip us to cultivate the common good in the world

Desert Fathers and Mothers Christine Valters Paintner, 2012 Timeless and contemplative sayings from the earliest Christian sages of desert spirituality can be a companion on your own spiritual journey The desert fathers and mothers were ordinary Christians living in solitude in the deserts of Egypt Palestine Syria and Arabia who chose to renounce the world in order to deliberately and individually follow God's call They embraced lives of celibacy labor fasting prayer and poverty believing that denouncing material goods and practicing stoic self discipline would lead to unity with the Divine Their spiritual practice formed the basis of Western monasticism and greatly influenced both Western and Eastern Christianity

Their writings first recorded in the fourth century consist of spiritual advice parables and anecdotes emphasizing the primacy of love and the purity of heart Focusing on key themes of charity fortitude lust patience prayer and self control the Sayings influenced the rule of St Benedict and have inspired centuries of opera poetry and art This probing and personal SkyLight Illuminations edition opens up their wisdom for readers with no previous knowledge of Western monasticism and early Christianity It provides insightful yet unobtrusive commentary that describes historical background explains the practice of asceticism and illustrates how you can use their wisdom to energize your spiritual quest Wonder, Fear and Longing Mark Yaconelli, 2011-02-15 In our hectic lives it s easy to forget that prayer is more about a conversation and experience with God than it is a request line This book is an invitation to meaningful prayer It invites us through stories images contemplative exercises poetry and meditation to explore the human experiences where prayer originates Every heart feels wonder Every heart knows fear Every heart aches with longing Every heart needs prayer Prayer - 10th Anniversary Edition Richard J. Foster, 2009-10-13 Best selling author Richard J Foster offers a warm compelling and sensitive primer on prayer helping us to understand experience and practice it in its many forms from the simple prayer of beginning again to unceasing prayer He clarifies the prayer process answers common misconceptions and shows the way into prayers of contemplation healing blessing forgiveness and rest Coming to prayer is like coming home Foster says Nothing feels more right more like what we are created to be and to do Yet at the same time we are confronted with great mysteries Who hasn t struggled with the puzzle of unanswered prayer Who hasn t wondered how a finite person can commune with the infinite Creator of the universe Who hasn t questioned whether prayer isn t merely psychological manipulation after all We do our best of course to answer these knotty questions but when all is said and done there is a sense in which these mysteries remain unanswered and unanswerable At such times we must learn to become comfortable with the mystery Foster shows how prayer can move us inward into personal transformation upward toward intimacy with God and outward to minister to others He leads us beyond questions to a deeper understanding and practice of prayer bringing us closer to God to ourselves and to our community

The Spiritual Life Henri J. M. Nouwen, 2016-08-16 Henri Nouwen the world renowned spiritual guide and counselor wrote over forty books that many today consider spiritual classics People come to Nouwen for his unique style of wisdom and his ability to write about the life of Jesus the love of God and our service to others in ways that have inspired countless people to trust God more fully This collection includes eight of Nouwen s quintessential titles Intimacy A Letter of Consolation Letters to Marc About Jesus The Living Reminder Making All Things New Our Greatest Gift Way of the Heart and Gracias previously out of print in a single beautiful keepsake volume The Mother's Family Prayer Book ... Mother, Author of Light beyond, 1870 The American Benedictine Review, 2022 The mother's family prayer book; or, A help to family worship, by the author of 'Light beyond'. Mother, 1870 Desert Banquet David G. R. Keller, 2011 The wisdom of the desert fathers and mothers lies in their experiences of solitude prayer community life work and care for their neighbors Their goal was transformation of their lives through openness to the presence and energy of God in Christ. They taught by example and by sharing narratives and sayings that reflect the deep human psychological and spiritual aspects of their journey toward authentic human life. The venue for their transformation was the whole person: body, mind, and spirit. They emphasized self-knowledge, humility, purity of heart, and love of God and neighbor. Far from being naive, their sayings and narratives reflect honest struggles, temptations, and failures. They also demonstrate the disciplines of prayer and meditation that kept them centered in God as their only source of strength. The daily reflections in Desert Banquet introduce readers to a variety of these early Christian mentors and offer reflections on the significance of their wisdom for life in the twenty-first century.

David G. R. Keller, an Episcopal priest, is adjunct professor of ascetical theology at the General Theological Seminary in New York City. He is co-steward with his wife Emily Wilmer of Oasis of Wisdom, an Institute for Contemplative Study, Practice, and Living based in Asheville, North Carolina (www.oasisofwisdom.net). He is the author of Oasis of Wisdom: The Worlds of the Desert Fathers and Mothers (Liturgical Press) and Come and See: The Transformation of Personal Prayer (Morehouse Publishing).

The Mothers' treasury, 1723. On the Way to the Sanctuary, Or, A Mother's Prayer Heard (Mathias M. Gerend, 1897). Red berries; pictures and stories [ed.] by W.M. Whittemore. (Christmas suppl. to Sunshine). William Meynell Whittemore, 1889.

The Way of the Heart (Henri J. M. Nouwen, 2016-07-12). In The Way of the Heart, author and teacher Henri Nouwen looks to the desert for spiritual inspiration, specifically the text Apophthegmata Patrum or Sayings of the Desert Fathers. This was created by a group of Christians who fled to the Egyptian desert in the fourth and fifth centuries CE to avoid conformity to the world. Nouwen explores the ways in which solitude and silence can help modern Christians become closer to God. Nouwen focuses on three simple words that in themselves create a spiritual discipline that can forge a path to the Holy Spirit: They are: flee, be silent, and pray. In his straightforward and easily accessible style, Nouwen helps us to examine our lives and reconnect with what really matters. The Way of the Heart teaches us that a desert is not always a barren place; sometimes it is a paradise of faith and love.

Henri J. M. Nouwen (1932-1996) was the author of With Open Hands, Reaching Out, The Wounded Healer, Making All Things New, and many other bestsellers. He was the senior pastor of L'Arche Daybreak in Toronto, Canada, a community where men and women with mental disabilities and their assistants create a home for one another. Brings desert spirituality to bear upon the contemporary scene. Hauntingly relevant for us today.
