Preaching And Crisis Of Faith:

Liguorian ,1975      Sacred Anthropology Tyshawn Gardner,2022-10-25 Pastors are often ill equipped in preparing churches to be sacred advocates and activists in the communities most affected by social injustice and neglect Sacred Anthropology aims to inform and equip pastors in discipling the body of Christ to effect social transformation in times of social crisis Tyshawn Gardner envisions the pastor as a sacred anthropologist as one who understands the cultures of other image bearers for the sake of promoting the justice of God in the world As a pastoral mandate the sacred anthropologist challenges churches to be engaged in the political and social transformation of their community The social anthropologist employs both secular and theological tools for an effective contextualized ministry This book posits prophetic radicalism as a pastoral theology and the pastoral office as the center of prophetic radicalism yet it does not limit prophetic radicalism to the pastoral office Sacred Anthropology is written with pastors and parishioners from any ethnic group in mind but draws heavily on the prophetic pastoral and preaching tradition of African American pastors and churches Using this foundation and tradition sacred anthropologists can lead their congregations in a way that challenges them to be involved engaged and transformative

Evangelistic Sermons with an Essay on the Scriptural and Catholic Creed of Baptism Robert Trott Mathews,1891      Literary Churchman Sermons ,1889      Christianity in Crisis Hank Hanegraaff,2012-06-18 Nearly two decades ago Hank Hanegraaff s award winning Christianity in Crisis alerted the world to the dangers of a cultic movement within Christianity that threatened to undermine the very foundation of biblical faith But in the 21st century there are new dangers new teachers who threaten to do more damage than the last These are not obscure teachers that Hanegraaff unmasks We know their names We have seen their faces sat in their churches and heard them shamelessly preach and promote the false pretexts of a give to get gospel They are virtual rock stars who command the attention of presidential candidates and media moguls Through make believe miracles urban legends counterfeit Christs and twisted theological reasoning they peddle an occult brand of metaphysics that continues to shipwreck the faith of millions around the globe God cannot do anything in this earthly realm unless we give Him permission Keep saying it I have equality with God talk yourself into it Being poor is a sin The Jews were not rejecting Jesus as Messiah it was Jesus who was refusing to be the Messiah to the Jews You create your own world the same way God creates His He speaks and things happen you speak and they happen Christianity in Crisis 21st Century exposes darkness to light pointing us back to a Christianity centered in Christ From the Preface Having lost the ability to think biblically postmodern Christians are being transformed from cultural change agents and initiators into cultural conformists and imitators Pop culture beckons and postmodern Christians have taken the bait As a result the biblical model of faith has given way to an increasingly bizarre array of fads and formulas      What Shall We Say? Thomas G. Long,2014-03-11 Tsunamis earthquakes famines diseases wars these and other devastating forces lead Christians to ask painful questions Is God all powerful Is God good How can God allow so much innocent human suffering

These questions taken together have been called the theodicy problem and in this book Thomas Long explores what preachers can and should say in response he offers biblically based approaches to preaching on theodicy guided by Jesus parable of the wheat and the tares and the greatest theodicy text in Scripture The book of Job from book jacket

Effective Preaching Deane Alwyn Kemper, 1985 The Wanderer in African American Literature Gena E. Chandler-Smith, 2024-01-12 The Wanderer in African American Literature highlights an enduring feature of African American letters From the slave narrative to Afrofuturism the literature is populated driven and emboldened by wanderers who know

no bounds Gena E Chandler argues that wanderers and the theme of wandering push the limits of narrative forms and challenge assumptions about the African American experience The slave narratives of Olaudah Equiano and Harriet Jacobs echo eighteenth and nineteenth century literary traditions and chronicle journeys toward freedom and faith Equiano traces his changing identity integrating his native African culture with his adopted European one Jacobs addresses the gender restrictions she faces as a slave and then a free woman whose progress in life remains uncertain and ongoing La ngston Hughes and Nella Larsen chronicle real and imagined journeys during the Harlem Renaissance and the Great Migration Hughes s autobiography I Wonder as I Wander 1956 traces his global travels in the 1930s highlighting his unique identity as a black American Larsen s novel Quicksand 1928 follows its biracial heroine as she travels throughout the United States and to Denmark while navigating matters of race and gender The protagonist of Richard Wright s The Outsider 1953 seeks individual freedom and a new identity but is constrained within the boundaries of an American nation and a Western ideal that continuously views the black subject as outside and distinct from the modern project of advancement and freedom In James Baldwin s Giovanni s Room 1956 the white protagonist flees America for France yet cannot escape difficult questions about sexuality and race Finally John Edgar Wideman s The Cattle Killing 1996 tells the story of two wanderers an itinerant preacher spreading God s word during the Great Awakening and a twentieth century writer on a journey of self discovery about his identity and vocation The former experiences a crisis of his Christian faith and the latter endures a crisis of faith in his literary abilities Tying these diverse threads together Chandler demonstrates the power of the black narrative to assimilate and redeploy the literary trope of wanderlust exchanging its premise of rootless drifting for something altogether more mobilizing

The Preacher's Complete Homiletical Commentary on the Old Testament: Joshua ,1892

Preaching in Contemporary Nigeria ,2003

More than a Sermon Douglas D. Webster,2024-05-08 In More than a Sermon Douglas D Webster highlights the prophetic and pastoral challenge of preaching today The task is both harder and easier than we imagine as we are called to proclaim the biblical text in a way that convicts a hostile world while encouraging our congregations to rest in Christ s love We need preaching that both swings the hammer that breaks hard hearts yet does not break the bruised reeds in our care Offering practical insights and examples Webster explores what it means to preach the gospel in different seasons such as Advent and Lent memorial services and weddings and times of crisis or social impact More than a Sermon is a valuable resource for both new pastors and veteran preachers who want to proclaim the whole counsel of God with power and wisdom

Power and the Pulpit Gerald Hiestand,Joel Lawrence,2025-10-22 The evangelical tradition places the sermon at the center of church life We build buildings around pulpits and preachers We champion gifted communicators We celebrate effective homiletical techniques But too often these emphases are not the result of deep theological convictions but of the church s adoption of modern visions of communication and success In our day preaching is easily unmoored from its biblical theological and historical anchors Too often it has become a tool of celebrity We have seen pulpits and preaching taken captive by political and pragmatic ideologies The teaching office of the church has sometimes been manipulated to secure and maintain human power The present condition of much preaching in our time compels us to ask What is our theology of preaching Is our vision of the sermon rooted in the miracle of God's word proclaimed or in the desire to entertain Is our preaching a function of a theology of glory or a theology of the cross Reflecting on such questions the essays in this volume seek to chart a path forward for word centered God glorifying preaching The preacher's commentary on the book of Joshua F G. Marchant, 1883 The theory of preaching, lects. on homiletics Austin Phelps, 1882 Preacher and Homiletic Monthly, 1884 The Minister's Annual Manual for Preaching and Worship Planning, 2000-2001 Sharilyn A. Figueroa, 2000 Guide to Biographical Preaching Roy E. De Brand, 1988 Guide to biographical preaching shows you how to preach on Bible characters Whether you use this book as a text in a preaching class or as an aid in a busy pastorate it is for you Dr De Brand writes as a preaching professor who still remembers the rigors of preparing for Sunday The Rabbinical Council Manual of Holiday and Sabbath Sermons, 1957 The Coming Evangelical Crisis John Harper Armstrong, 1996 A compelling and challenging book this is a valuable resource for pastors teachers leaders and anyone who is concerned about the effectiveness of the church in this generation
