Preaching from a Pulpit of Bones Bob Avakian, 1999-04-01 Preaching From a Pulpit of Bones Bob

Avakian, 1999-06-01 This provocative book includes a scathing refutation of the reality behind conservative Christian fundamentalist morality a critical look at the limitations of liberation theology including a discussion of Jim Wallis's book The Soul of Politics and an inspiring look at morality from a revolutionary perspective This work is even more timely today as it was when it was published in 1999 Bob Avakian says in the Prologue that From whatever vantage point one looks it is unmistakable that there is what could be called a moral crisis in America There has been to a significant degree a breakdown of traditional morality But the answer to this at least the answer that is in the interests of the majority of people in the U S and the overwhelming majority of humanity is not a more aggressive assertion of that traditional morality but winning people to a radically different morality in the process of radically transforming society and the world as a whole Preaching from a Pulpit of Bones Bob Avakian, 1999-06 This provocative book includes a scathing refutation of the reality behind conservative Christian fundamentalist morality a critical look at the limitations of liberation theology and a new perspective on morality

Marxism and the Call of the Future Bob Avakian, Bill Martin, 2005 This book offers readers a rare chance to witness a mainstream thinker challenge an outlaw activist Avakian and Martin wrestle with big questions that have to do with the state of the world and the possibility for radical change The scope and relevance of Marxism and the nature and reach of communist revolution are at the heart of this rich and lively dialogue Avakian and Martin probe a wide range of issues the place of ethics in a transformative revolutionary politics Kant Rousseau and Hegel Marx and the question of colonialism and Eurocentrism the Maoist experience in China sustainable agriculture and the task of overcoming the urban rural divide imperialism and lopsided development in the world and the effects on social structure and revolution animal rights secularism and religion the post 911 agenda of the U S ruling class the political social cultural landscape of the U S and the prospects for resistance and revolution Marxism and the question of homosexuality the challenges confronting radical and communist intellectuals and the possibilities for engaged creative intellectual work today Birds Cannot Give Birth to Crocodiles, But Humanity Can Soar Beyond the Horizon Bob Avakian, 2014-04-16 This book makes the case for why humanity needs a communist revolution and deeply explores the means for actually bringing about such a liberating revolution In this two part work Part 1 Revolution and the State and Part 2 Building the Movement for Revolution Bob Avakian examines the contradictory dynamics of historical development in human society and the possible pathways of change and discusses the scientific methods and means for realizing the Impossible Dream of a viable and radically different world one where humanity can soar beyond social relations characterized by domination exploitation and oppression In a style that has been described as totally outrageous and eminently reasonable Avakian punctures conventional thinking on a number of diverse themes for example the theory of social contract notions of human nature and today's revolting culture In a penetrating critique capitalism and the philosophies of the bourgeois epoch are sharply contrasted with the basic vision principles and approach of a new liberating society including how this would be reflected in a constitution radically different than the current U S Constitution Birds Cannot Give Birth to Crocodiles But Humanity Can Soar Beyond the Horizon embodies the new synthesis of communism which Bob Avakian has been developing over the course of the past several decades and provides new insights into the dynamics of social change and the strategy for revolution From Ike to Mao and Beyond Bob Avakian,2005 Bob Avakian has written a memoir containing three unique but interwoven stories The first tells of a white middle class kid growing up in 1950s America who goes to an integrated high school and has his world turned around the second of a young man who overcomes a near fatal disease and jumps with both feet into the heady swirl of Berkeley in the sixties and the third of a radical activist who matures into a tempered revolutionary communist leader If you think about the past or if you urgently care about the future if you want to hear a unique voice of utter realism and deep humanity and if you dare to have your assumptions challenged and your stereotypes overturned then take a look at this book From publisher description Away With All Gods! Bob Avakian,2008-04-01 Is believing in gods actually harmful How has Christianity for centuries served as an ideology of conquest and subjugation Why is the Bible Belt in the U S also the lynching belt Why is there a rise of religious fundamentalism throughout the world In the intensifying conflict between U S imperialism and Islamic fundamentalism is the only choice to take one side or the other Why is patriarchy and the oppression of women foundational to so many religions Can people be good without god These are just some of the questions explored in this provocative work by Bob Avakian Bringing a unique revolutionary communist voice to the current discourse about god atheism and morality Avakian demystifies religious belief and examines how even in its most progressive interpretations religion stands in the way of the emancipation of humanity A thread deeply woven throughout Away With All Gods is the need to fully rupture with all forms of superstition and to take up instead a truly scientific approach to understanding and transforming reality Whether you believe in god or are an agnostic or an atheist Bob Avakian will challenge you with his powerful critique of long established traditions and his liberating vision of a radically different world Observations on Art and Culture, Science and Philosophy Bob Avakian,2005 This provocative collection of reflections and observations by Bob Avakian on art culture science and philosophy offers a rare treat Excerpted from formal talks as well as more informal discussions and conversations this collection allows the reader to experience Bob Avakian in the process of developing his thinking and re envisioning the communist project on a wide range of subjects from the dictatorship of the proletariat to discussions of truth beauty science and imagination This collection will provide the reader with important fresh and provocative insights and provoke further creative and critical thinking on art culture science philosophy and revolution The Middle East, Abstracts and Index ,2005 The Nation ,2006 The Penumbra of Ethics V. A. Demant,2018-04-18 Rev Vigo Auguste Demant 1893 1983 was a significant theologian and social commentator of the first half of the twentieth century This book contains his up until now unpublished Gifford Lectures in which Demant provides cultural analysis as he attempts to address why humanity struggles so much with modernity and living in the contemporary world The lectures have additional notes and commentary to make them comprehensible since not all of them are complete The first chapters set Demant in his context and the final section provides assessment of both his ideas and his impact Although Demant died in 1983 his ideas continue to prove influential to thinkers and theologians today The Family Herald ,1849 Preaching on Wax Lerone A Martin,2014-11-14 The overlooked African American religious history of the phonograph industry Winner of the 2015 Frank S and Elizabeth D Brewer Prize for outstanding scholarship in church history by a first time author presented by the American Society of Church History Certificate of Merit 2015 Award for Excellence in Historical Recorded Sound Research presented by the Association for Recorded Sound Collections From 1925 to 1941 approximately one hundred African American clergymen teamed up with leading record labels such as Columbia Paramount Victor RCA to record and sell their sermons on wax While white clerics of the era such as Aimee Semple McPherson and Charles Fuller became religious entrepreneurs and celebrities through their pioneering use of radio black clergy were largely marginalized from radio Instead they relied on other means to get their message out teaming up with corporate titans of the phonograph industry to package and distribute their old time gospel messages across the country Their nationally marketed folk sermons received an enthusiastic welcome by consumers at times even outselling top billing jazz and blues artists such as Bessie Smith and Ma Rainey These phonograph preachers significantly shaped the development of black religion during the interwar period playing a crucial role in establishing the contemporary religious practices of commodification broadcasting and celebrity Yet the fame and reach of these nationwide media ministries came at a price as phonograph preachers became subject to the principles of corporate America In Preaching on Wax Lerone A Martin offers the first full length account of the oft overlooked religious history of the phonograph industry He explains why a critical mass of African American ministers teamed up with the major phonograph labels of the day how and why black consumers eagerly purchased their religious records and how this phonograph religion significantly contributed to the shaping of modern African American Christianity Instructor s Guide The British Quarterly Review Henry Allon,1882 The British Quarterly Review ,1882 The Watchman-examiner ,1933 The Pulpit Charles Clayton Morrison,1946 Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly ,1885 The Freethinker ,1895 The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher,1874
