Preaching On Suffering And A God Of Love:

Preaching on Suffering and a God of Love Henry J. Young, 1978 Preaching to Korean Immigrants Rebecca Seungyoun Jeong, 2022-09-14 In terms of practical theology's critical reflection on marginalized people's wounds in a wider society this book investigates the question How to proclaim the good news in response to first generation Korean immigrants contextual suffering in the United States To answer the question the book starts with investigating Korean immigrant hearers contextual predicaments in a new land to point out emerging practical theological issues in relation to the practice of preaching In this book the primary subjects are first generation Korean immigrants especially those who have relatively low socio economic status and struggle with the purpose of their lives as immigrants particularly those whose material dreams have been shattered In order to proclaim the good news this book proposes a more appropriate immigrant theology for in the practice of preaching by reclaiming the priorities of God's future in our lives and confirming God's active identification with Korean immigrant congregations in the depths of their predicament Such reconstructive work for immigrant theology arises in response to their existential hardships marginality ethnic discrimination and relative powerlessness in life While acknowledging both the possibilities and limits of the diverse forms of current Korean immigrant preaching the book then offers a strategic proposal for a new homiletic theory namely a psalmic theological homiletic This proposed homiletic is deeply rooted in the theology of the Psalms and their rhetorical movement This re-envisioned mode of eschatological and prophetic preaching in times of difficulty recovers ancient Israel's psalmic rhetorical tradition that aims toward faith Its theological rhetorical strategy intends to both transform hearers' habitus of living in faith and enhance their hope-filled life through communal anticipation of God's coming future on the margins Specifically this proposed homiletic critically adopts key features from psalms of lament and their typical fourfold theological rhetorical movement i.e. lament retelling a story confessional doxology and obedient vow as now core elements of a revised Korean immigrant preaching practice

With Memoir by ... J. Moir, Etc* William WILSON (Minister of the Free Church at Musselburgh.), 1876 Transformational Preaching David M. Brown, 2003-02 Transformational Preaching Theory and practice is a comprehensive textbook for the beginning student of preaching the graduate student in pulpit discourse or the seasoned preacher Seeking to reclaim the pulpit for biblical preaching the book counteracts the popular teaching approach that is common today and argues that preaching must be persuasive rather than informative that the preacher is central to the act of preaching and that through the preaching event both preacher and listener together fashion the message and its meaning Both theoretical and highly practical the book offers a challenging look at all aspects of the preaching ministry It contextualizes preaching in pastoral ministry and congregational worship but most significantly argues that the practice of preaching must be informed and driven by theory As such the book draws from a wide perspective of disciplines including biblical theology classical rhetoric contemporary human communication public discourse persuasion linguistics performance and orality The book's wealth of practical guidelines for every step of sermon development encourages students to apply general principles within their own contexts of ministry Sermons for the Christian Year John Keble, 1875 Sermons for the Christian Year: Sermons for Christmas and Epiphany John Keble, 1875 Sermons for the Christian Year: Ascension Day to Trinity Sunday John Keble, 1876 Subject Catalog, 1979 Library of Congress, 1979 The Fruit of the Spirit and Other Sermons from a Greylock Pulpit Alford Brown Penniman, 1898
