Preaching Parables Postmoderns

Byron Rempel-Burkholder, Dora Dueck

Preaching Parables Postmoderns:

Preaching Parables to Postmoderns Brian Stiller, 2005-01-01 Preachers in their call to preach the Scriptures are not only charged with the responsibility of speaking its truth but of speaking in such a way that people of this age and culture understand To do this the preacher builds a bridge between today's people and the gospel of both testaments For some this task is more difficult than for others Preaching to those living in an inner city housing project is far removed from an outpost mission in the two thirds world Each community has its own way of thinking and attaches different values to symbols of its own making For those called preach to a generation raised on MTV and late night comedians or those rooted in various economic cultures from government sponsored jobs overseen by union bosses to entrepreneurial dot com companies or generations stretching from high school students to freedom fifty fivers the task is enormous When one adds to that the complexity of a radical shift in underlying intellectual and cultural assumptions the task of preaching becomes even more complicated Elenchus of Biblica ,2005 Preaching Parables to the Postmodern Brian C. Stiller, 2002

Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2007 American Book Publishing Record ,2006 From Modernist Transcendence to Postmodern Immanence Mary Katherine Kochlefl, 2003

Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Northern Lights Byron Rempel-Burkholder, Dora Dueck, 2008-08-18 Canada is known for its wild and diverse physical geography But do Canadians have a spiritual geography an identity uniquely shaped by their land their history their people This first of its kind collection brings together writings from within the Christian heritage to help Canadians explore that question The forty six contributors include award winning literary figures religious and political leaders and social activists from one end of Canada to the other Their traditions range from evangelical to Catholic mainline Protestant to Orthodox Pentecostal to Mennonite Some still have family connections beyond Canada's borders others have ancestors who were here long before Europeans came These writers do not analyze define or argue about Christianity in Canada They simply showcase it through their memoir or poetry fiction or meditation mapping into words something of what it means to be Christian in this country The spiritual landscape they paint is diverse inspiring and provocative It's a colourful dance of words a wonderful Canadian celebration Liturgy in a Postmodern World Keith F. Pecklers, 2003-06 Addresses the fundamental questions of the role that liturgy will play in the Catholic Church in the 21st century Entirely new perspective on Liturgical form and practice in a new century Sparkling list of contributors including Cardinal Daneels Timothy Radcliffe and the Jesuit Superior General Hans Kolvenbach Essential reading for anyone concerned with liturgical reform from any Christian tradition A collection of papers from a conference organised by Keith Pecklers S J on Liturgy in the Catholic Church the future The book comes at a time when countless people feel that the reforms of Vatican II have been gradually edged out and when there is a kind of neo reaction against these reforms The book will consist of eight key papers Topics include What role will the liturgy play as it confronts new sociological realities How is liturgy to assist necessary dialogue with the growing presence of Islam in the world How do we welcome the divorced and the remarried and all those who remain on the fringes of our churches There is one Anglican participant Canon Donald Gray Postmodern Bible Stories ,2006 Jesus and Postmodernism James Breech,1989

Christian Witness in a Postmodern World Harry Lee Poe,2001 A professor of religion asserts that the difficulties faced in communicating the gospel are as much an opportunity as they are a challenge This book analyzes contemporary trends in American cultural life related to what those who don't attend church know about Christianity and how they think about questions of ultimate meaning Postmoderns Craig Kennet Miller,1996 Miller offers a fresh outlook at GenXers To understand and minister with this generation we must take seriously their specific challenges Life in a Postmodern Culture ,1995 During the past decade postmodernism has become a much used buzz word For example one hears and reads about postmodern architecture postmodern films a postmodern economy and so forth What precisely is meant by this term Life in a Postmodern Culture attempts to answer this question In the introduction to the book the relation between the modern and the postmodern world is pointed out Following this the significance of postmodernity to various dimensions of life is examined These dimensions include politics art theology economics language science ethics and the cinema

Post-Western : Postmodern Fictions of the U.S. West Jake J. Thomas,2011 Performatism, Or the End of Postmodernism Raoul Eshelman,2009 The author suggests that in this era following the postmodern we have entered a new monist epoch in which aesthetically mediated belief replaces endless irony as the dominant force in culture The book documents the new monism through an examination of popular films and novels such as American beauty Life of Pi and Middlesex as well as in the work of major architects and artists such as Sir Norman Foster Andreas Gursky and Vanessa Beecroft book cover The Postmodern Organization William H. Bergquist,1993-05-06 Examines the characteristics of postmodern organizational forms and dynamics and compares them to those of organizational they functioned in the premodern and modern worlds and continue to function in the hybrid reality of our emerging postmodern world Style and Authenticity in Postmodern Poetry Jonathan Holden,1986 Ethics in Postmodern Fiction Barbara Schwerdtfeger,2005 Postmodern texts have generally been associated with a radical challenge of established conventions and with an anything goes mentality which seems to exclude serious ethical discussion While the postmodern texts of the American novel and short story writers Donald Barthelme and William Gass indeed challenge traditional ethical rules they are nonetheless deeply concerned with moral questions Using contemporary ethics as its theoretical framework the study shows that the fiction of Barthelme and Gass not only makes readers aware of the complexity of ethical issues but also argues that the premise for good ethical behavior is to have the right postmodern attitude to be open minded flexible and able to deal with the ambiguities of life Retrospectively these findings can also be applied to other postmodern writers to reveal the hidden ethical dimensions of their fictions God, the Gift, and Postmodernism John D. Caputo,Michael J. Scanlon,1999 At a time when the themes and motifs of French phenomenology have moved in an increasingly religious direction God the Gift and Postmodernism raises with new energy Tertullian's ancient question What has Athens to do with Jerusalem Jacques Derrida the father of deconstruction engages here with theologian Jean Luc Marion on the questions of mystical theology and the gift Is the gift a matter of the overflowing excess of givenness as Marion argues or is it precisely what is never given as Derrida maintains Is mystical theology ultimately a higher way of affirming presence or is it a path beyond the metaphysics of presence Probing essays by the leading scholars in the field of postmodernism and religion spell out the terms of these important contemporary debates and related issues in clear exciting and timely form Book jacket
