Prefaces to Canon Law Books in Latin Christianity Robert Somerville, Bruce C. Brasington, 2020-10-07 An updated and expanded version of the original edition published in 1998 That original edition went up through 1245 This new version extends to 1317 and adds two important prefaces Praise for the First Edition Both students and specialists can be grateful to the authors for this major contribution in English to the study of medieval canon law It is a clear statement one emphasized by the late John Gilchrist that because of its critical importance in medieval life and culture canon law should not remain the obscure domain of specialists but should be shared with students and non specialists alike The American Journal of Legal History A learned and useful book which for the first time assembles a body of canonistic prefaces presents them in an accessible form and provides students of medieval canonical thought with a valuable new resource for study and teaching The Catholic Historical Review This volume is an important and welcome addition to a field of studies where translations into English are few and far between The breadth of the works selected the quality of the translations and the attention to detail that has long characterized the work of both editors make this a valuable resource for specialist and student alike Church History A welcome combination a text that is informative for students and professionals alike The translations succeed in rendering accessible to a general audience some otherwise highly inaccessible material Somerville and Brasington are to be greatly commended for undertaking this very original enterprise and bringing it to successful parturition Journal of Law and Religion Somerville and Brasington have chosen to let their compilers and commentators speak for themselves In doing so they have had to wrestle with often obscure Latin and frequently less than satisfactory editions That they succeed in making these texts intelligible through translation and annotation is no small feat Sixteenth Century Journal This is a significant elegantly presented contribution to the field of theology cultural history and canon law Theological Studies Celtic

Theology Thomas O'Loughlin, 2000-09-13 O Loughlin examines the theological framework within which St Patrick presented his experiences and considers how the Celtic lands of Ireland and Wales developed a distinctive view of sin reconciliation and Christian law that they later exported to the rest of western Christianity Latin Christian Writers in Late Antiquity

and Their Texts Mark Vessey, 2005 By close engagement with both traditional and contemporary approaches to ancient Christian literature this volume delineates a historiographical problem at the same time rendering patristics as part of the subject matter of a new literary history The essays consider how one should account for the abiding formativeness of Latin Christian writing of the fourth and fifth centuries CE and what demands such writing lay on a modern history of literature

Church Law and Church Order in Rome and Byzantium Clarence Gallagher, 2019-03-11 This book presents a comparative study of church order in the East and West of the Christian world It deals with the development of canon law from the 6th century the time of Dionysius Exiguus and John Scholastikos up to the period of Balsamon and Gratian While the focus is upon Rome and Constantinople the author includes in his discussion the churches under Islamic rule in Syria and Persia and describes the beginnings of Slavonic canon law in Moravia The issues of church government the discipline of the clergy married or celibate and the question of divorce and re marriage are key themes By illustrating how these were faced in the canon law of the Christian churches of late antiquity and the earlier Middle Ages the book highlights questions of unity and diversity within the Christian tradition Annuario historiae conciliorum ,2007 Das Augsburger Oficialatsregister (1348-1352) Christian Schwab,2001 Christian Jewish Relations 1000-1300 Anna Sapir Abulafia,2014-05-22 The history of relations between Jews and Christians has been a long complex and often unsettled one yet histories of medieval Christendom have traditionally paid only passing attention to the role played by Jews in a predominantly Christian society This book provides an original survey of medieval Christian Jewish relations encompassing England Spain France and Germany and sheds light in the process on the major developments in medieval history between 1000 and 1300 Anna Sapir Abulafia s balanced yet humane account offers a new perspective on Christian Jewish relations by analysing the theological socio economic and political services Jews were required to render to medieval Christendom The nature of Jewish service varied greatly as Christian rulers struggled to reconcile the desire to profit from the presence of Jewish men and women in their lands with conflicting theological notions about Judaism Jews meanwhile had to deal with the many competing authorities and interests in the localities in which they lived their continued presence hinged on a fine balance between theology and pragmatism The book examines the impact of the Crusades on Christian Jewish relations and analyses how anti Jewish libels were used to define relations Making adept use of both Latin and Hebrew sources Abulafia draws on liturgical and exegetical material and narrative polemical and legal sources to give a vivid and accurate sense of how Christians interacted with Jews and Jews with Christians Prefaces to Canon Law Books in Latin Christianity Robert Somerville,Bruce Clark Brasington,1998-01-01 This anthology offers a selection of key prefaces to ecclesiastical law collections from late antiquity to the mid 13th century during which time the Western church was wrestling with the complexities and ambiguities of its legal traditions 50 Christian Books - Scripture, Theology, Philosophy and Spirituality (Including Christian Novels) Johann Wolfgang von Goethe,Martin Luther,Henryk Sienkiewicz,Henry Van Dyke,David Hume,James Allen,Ralph Waldo Emerson,Andrew Murray,John Bunyan,Grace Livingston Hill,Thomas Paine,Voltaire,Lew Wallace,John Milton,Charles M. The Easter Computus and the Origins of the Christian Era Alden A. Mosshammer, 2008-10-16

The system of numbering the years AD (Anni Domini) Years of the Lord originated with Dionysius Exiguus. Dionysius drafted a 95-year table of dates for Easter, beginning with the year 532 AD. Why Dionysius chose the year that he did to number as 1 has been a source of controversy and speculation for almost 1500 years. According to the Gospel of Luke 3:1-3:23, Jesus was baptized in the 15th year of the emperor Tiberius and was about 30 years old at the time. The 15th year of Tiberius was AD 29. If Jesus was 30 years old in AD 29, then he was born in the year that we call 2 BC. Most ancient authorities dated the Nativity accordingly. Alden Mosshammer provides the first comprehensive study of early Christian methods for calculating the date of Easter to have appeared in English in more than one hundred years. He offers an entirely new history of those methods, both Latin and Greek, from the earliest such calculations in the late second century until the emergence of the Byzantine era in the seventh century From this history Mosshammer draws the fresh hypothesis that Dionysius did not calculate or otherwise invent a new date for the birth of Jesus instead adopting a date that was already well established in the Greek church Mosshammer offers compelling new conclusions on the origins of the Christian era drawing upon evidence found in the fragments of Julius Africanus of Panodorus of Alexandria and in the traditions of the Armenian church A Dictionary of Christian Biography, Literature, Sects and Doctrines: Hermogenes-Myensis William Smith, Henry Wace, 1882 Christian Collection: Scripture, History, Theology, Spirituality and Fiction Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Martin Luther, Henryk Sienkiewicz, Dante Alighieri, Henry Van Dyke, David Hume, James Allen, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Andrew Murray, John Bunyan, Grace Livingston Hill, Thomas Paine, Voltaire, Lew Wallace, John Milton, Charles M.
