Schwarzbart Pluie Et Vent Sur Telumee Miracle:

The Sense of Community in French Caribbean Fiction Celia Britton, 2008-01-01 This groundbreaking book analyzes the theme of community in seven French Caribbean novels in relation to the work of the French philosopher Jean Luc Nancy. The complex history of the islands means that community is often a central and problematic issue in their literature underlying a range of other questions such as political agency individual and collective subjectivity attitudes towards the past and the future and even the literary form itself. Celia Britton here studies a range of key books from the region including Édouard Glissant's Le Quatrième Siècle Patrick Chamoiseau's Texaco Daniel Maximin's L'Île et une nuit and Vincent Placoly's L'eau de mort among others.

Francophone Post-colonial Cultures Kamal Salhi, 2003-01-01 A collection of discussions of literary texts from areas as diverse as Europe and North Africa the Caribbean and South Asia regions of the world that seem to have only their language in common. But despite enormous differences among all the countries where French is spoken Francophone literatures tend to deal with a similar spread of issues. This volume positions the study of the Francophone world and its cultures as a comparative project in which post colonial Francophone cultures and the specific alterity of these cultures emerge as inextricable from and essential to an understanding of modern France. The volume is organized by region with an international roster of contributions and includes summaries of selected creative and critical works and a guide to selected terms and figures.

Schwarz-Bart: Pluie et Vent sur Télumée Miracle Simone Schwarz-Bart, 2015-03-02 Great granddaughter of Minerva first woman of the Guadeloupean branch of the Lougandor family to be freed from slavery in 1848 the elderly Telumée tells the story of her own difficult life and that of her ancestors. It is a poor black woman's tale of heroic survival set in the early 20th century harsh agrarian environment of a Caribbean island. Through the richly imaged narration of a constantly evolving cultural significant and always entertaining saga the author leads the reader into her native West Indian realm of legends magic folkloric wisdom and traditional reverence for the elderly and the past. Her protagonist Telumée embodies the innate strength and nobility of women in general and of black Caribbean women in particular. Published in 1972 this book received Elle magazine's literary prize. This edition reflects the editor's personal acquaintance with the author and her country. It provides a synthesis of the latest critical studies and a thorough interpretation of Creole terms symbolic imagery and a unique cultural background.

Of Suffocated Hearts and Tortured Souls Valérie Orlando, 2003-01-01 A striking number of hysterical or insane female characters populate Francophone women's writing. To discover why Orlando reads novels from a variety of cultures teasing out key elements of Francophone identity struggles.
