Peace And Bread In Time Of War Nasw Classics Series:

Community Practice Skills Dorothy N. Gamble, Marie Weil, 2010 Dorothy N Gamble and Marie Weil differentiate among a range of intervention methods to provide a comprehensive and effective guide to working with communities Presenting eight distinct models grounded in current practice and targeted toward specific goals Gamble and Weil take an unusually inclusive step combining their own extensive experience with numerous case and practice examples from talented practitioners in international and domestic settings The authors open with a discussion of the theories for community work and the values of social justice and human rights concerns that have guided the work of activists from Jane Addams and Martin Luther King Jr to Cesar Chavez Wangari Maathai and Vandana Shiva They survey the concepts knowledge and perspectives influencing community practice and evaluation strategies Descriptions of eight practice models follow incorporating real life case examples from many parts of the world and demonstrating multiple applications for each model as well as the primary roles competencies and skills used by the practitioner Complexities and variations encourage readers to determine through comparative analysis which model at which time best fits the goals of a community group or organization given the context culture social economic and environmental issues and opportunities for change An accompanying workbook stressing empowerment strategies and skills development is also available from Columbia University Press

Social Group Work Joseph Lassner, Kathleen Powell, Elaine Finnegan, 2013-12-16 Here is an exciting and stimulating book featuring expert evaluations and descriptions of current social work group practice with an overall focus on competence and values The contributors give detailed information on group work theory group structure gender and race issues in group work group work in health care settings and the use of groups for coping with family issues that will be invaluable for all professionals in their daily practice This thorough and inspiring overview of the state of the art in social group work today contains the published proceedings of a recent Symposium for the Advancement of Social Work With Groups

Social Work Approaches to Conflict Resolution B Harold Chetkow-Yanoov, 2013-10-11 Social Work Approaches to Conflict Resolution helps readers understand the nature and causes of conflict and offers suggestions for coping with conflict effectively It is based on two assumptions that conflict is a basic part of the life of normal human beings groups organizations communities and nations and that resolving conflict is part of the ongoing interventions of all social workers A practical text for theory practicum courses for MSW and doctoral students it is filled with information also useful to therapists group workers community workers administrators scholars in the social sciences practitioners in other helping professions and trainers in the emerging field of conflict resolution itself Deliberately linking conflict resolution and systems analysis Social Work Approaches to Conflict Resolution tackles a number of related themes to help you see the connections between topics not normally presented together in social work literature You ll see how unmet needs may cause conflict to evolve and escalate and learn about the connections between strongly held feelings and the destructive relations that have developed between diverse ethnic peoples in many parts of our planet Author Benjamin Chetkow Yanoov draws on his own background of being a minority as well as his experience in Arab Jewish reconciliation in Israel as he offers readers thorough explanations of a systems model for analyzing conflict problem solving versus resolving conflict how value clashes and victimization are some of the basic causes of conflict escalation 9 professional roles required for resolving conflicts the effectiveness of volunteers in conflict resolution teaching conflict resolution skills to various audiences trends in the evolution of voluntary conflict resolution efforts You can apply much of what you learn in Social Work Approaches to Conflict Resolution not only to your professional life but also to your personal relationships and experiences Also since victimized people and groups are major contributors to the perpetuation and escalation of conflict the book suggests 10 steps for helping victims free themselves from repeated conflict generating behaviors International Journal of Group Tensions ,1992 Journal of Social Work and Policy in Israel ,1987 Social Work ,1984 Social Development Issues ,1986 Young Adult Reader's Adviser Marion Sader,1992-01-30 The best in literature and language arts mathematics and computer science Incorporating Peace and Social Justice Into the Social Work Curriculum Dorothy Van Soest,1992 Books in Print Supplement ,1988 Books in Series ,1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles Books in Print ,1991 □□□□□□□□, 1945-1984. 3 ,1985 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985 Social Worker ,1986 Peace and Bread in Time of War Jane Addams,2020-09-28 The Literary World ,1888 Scientific American ,1886 Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce,1942 Peace and Bread in Time of War Jane Addams,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1922 edition Excerpt CHAPTER XI IN EUROPE AFTER TWO YEARS OF PEACE Our Third International Congress was held at Vienna in July 1921 almost exactly two years after the Peace of Versailles had been signed This third Congress was of necessity unlike the other two in tension and temper and in some respects more difficult At the first one held at The Hague in 1915 women came together not only to make a protest against war but to present suggestions for consideration at the final Peace Conference which as no one could foresee the duration of the war everyone then believed might be held within a few months The second Congress was held in Zurich in 1919 and while there was open disappointment over the terms of the Treaty the Peace Commission was still sitting in Paris and it was believed not only that the terms would be modified but that the constitution of the League of Nations would be developed and ennobled Both of the earlier Congresses therefore were hopeful in the sense that the better international relationships which were widely supposed to be attained at the end of the war were still in the making The third Congress was convened in Vienna which as we realized had suffered bitterly both from the war and the terms of Peace The women from the thirty countries represented there had been sorely disillusioned by their experiences during the two years of peace and each group inevitably reflected something of the hopelessness and confusion which had characterized Europe since the war Nevertheless these groups of women were united in one thing They all alike had come to realize that every crusade every beginning of social change must start from small numbers of people convinced of the righteousness of a cause that the coming together of
