Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria Land and Disaster

Conflict Basil Ugorji, René Lemarchand, Ph.D., Jamie L. Hurst, Zarrín Caldwell, Erna Anjarwati, Allison Trimble, Lanhe S. Shan, David Silvera, Ph.D., 2014-09-18 Welcome to the first edition of the International Center for Ethno Religious Mediation's Journal of Living Together We were surprised and delighted to receive so many outstanding submissions and see the resounding response to our very first call for papers as an appreciable indication of the connection people feel to our mission and our community Through this journal it is our intention to inform inspire reveal and explore the intricate and complex nature of human interaction in the context of ethno religious identity and the roles it plays in war and peace By sharing theories observations and valuable experiences we mean to open a broader more inclusive dialogue between policymakers academics researchers religious leaders representatives of ethnic groups and indigenous peoples and field practitioners around the world Lasting peace stems from changes in thinking about what it is to be a part of the human family who we are to one another and what mutual obligations and responsibilities exist between us It requires us to accept that we are each a resource an advantage an asset to the whole It hinges on our ultimate acceptance of cultural identity history faith and tradition as simply vivid aspects of our overarching human kinship The belief based perspectives that influence these patterns of being however are among the most deeply ingrained of all individual and social mechanisms Any efforts to reshape them are highly ambitious and fraught with seemingly insurmountable obstacles Yet cultures and their societies are not static and their adaptive nature requires that even within the most intractable of conflicts there will be change how they change will depend upon shifts in the environment changes in human experience and the availability of new information with which to make different choices The theme of this issue The Role of Religion and Ethnicity in Contemporary Conflict Related Emerging Tactics Strategies and Methodologies of Mediation and Resolution looks at ways to influence these changes improve interethnic and interfaith experiences and offers information which can enlighten social discourse and reveal the possibility of previously unforeseen choices We begin with Words from the Board where Dr David Silvera explains that mediation is at the very heart of democratic thought lays out the value of mediation as a vital aspect of adult education in his commentary Education for Democratic Citizenship and Intercultural Conflicts by Mediation Dr Ren Lemarchand s cautionary discussion regarding the risks involved in mankind s willingness and even propensity to ignore some of history s worst atrocities follows in his article Remembering Forgotten Genocides Jamie L Hurst s paper Holy Conflict the Intersection of Religion and Mediation explores the junction where religion and mediation meet focusing on the unique challenges and opportunities this crossroads brings to bear In her piece Identity Reconsidered Zarr n Caldwell describes the cost of narrowly construed identity formations and puts forward the idea that the teachings of the Bah Faith on nested identities might offer some new ways of approaching peacebuilding Similarly in their work Storytelling as a Means for Peace Education Intercultural Dialogue in Southern Thailand Erna Anjarwati Allison Trimble describe their research conducting peace storytelling as a means to encourage social reconciliation between Thai Buddhists and Malay Muslims youth And finally Lanhe S Shan presents an in depth assessment of the long term outcomes following the implementation of unfortunate conflict mitigation strategies and offers suggestions for improved results in Analysis of Tito s Policies on Ethnic Conflict the Case of Kosovo This journal is not meant to be a bastion of declarative wisdom rather it is intended to be a conduit a medium for vibrant exchange and discussion of its contents is vital to its purpose We want your input your ideas your thoughts and your insights You will find plenty to discuss every quarter in the articles book reviews Living Together Movement updates
