Peace Work:

Peace Jobs David J. Smith, 2016-03-01 This book is a guide for college students exploring career options who are interested in working to promote peacebuilding and the resolution of conflict High school students particularly those starting to consider college and careers can also benefit from this book A major feature of the book is 30 stories from young professionals most recently graduated from college who are working in the field These profiles provide readers with insight as to strategies they might use to advance their peacebuilding careers The book speaks directly to the Millennial generation recognizing that launching a career is a major focus and that careers in the peace field have not always been easy to identify As such the book takes the approach that most any career can be a peacebuilding career provided one is willing to apply creativity and passion to their work

ENDORSEMENTS The 30 profiles and other examples of career options across disciplines in Peace Jobs should be a required resource for all high school and college career offices Packed with valuable realistic examples of how students from a wide array of backgrounds connected their passion with a paid career it answers the ever present question but what job can I get in peacebuilding Jennifer Batton Co Chair Peace Education Working Group and Chair North America Global Partnership for the Prevention of Armed Conflict Coordinator International Conference on Conflict Resolution Education If changing the world is your calling David Smith offers the guiding framework to channel passions and talents into meaningful employment In Peace Jobs millennials and others can discover ways to apply their social conscience to traditional and transformative career opportunities Tony Jenkins PhD Director Peace Education Initiative The University of Toledo Managing Director International Institute on Peace Education Coordinator Global Campaign for Peace Education

Breathing Meditation as a Tool for Peace Work Jennie Helene Sandstad, 2017-10-25 Jennie Helene Sandstad brings together theoretical concepts and personal stories in an exploration of trauma and studies how breathing meditation can be a tool for peace work Through the lenses of Humanistic and Transpersonal Psychology as well as Elicitive Conflict Transformation this work provides useful insights into transrational methods and explores why practicing self awareness is fundamental to Elicitive Conflict Transformation As the author engages with her own traumas and emotional wounds the reader will undoubtedly be part of and co explore a journey towards healing
