Shultz,Roy Godson,Ted Greenwood,1993 The United States is grappling with a new security framework to replace the structure of the Cold War era American policymakers face a host of challenges including regional conflicts ethnic tensions and weapons proliferation that commanded little attention in the past And tomorrow is likely to bring new concerns barely on today s horizon Despite these changes the study of national security remains largely a creature of the Cold War The security studies discipline needs to be overhauled But how should it be revised so that tomorrow s citizens and experts are equipped to understand and help manage new challenges One option is to downgrade security studies and divert educational resources elsewhere Another is to redefine the subject to include the study of an all encompassing list of international problems The third choice is to retain basic definitions concepts and subjects while also making significant adjustments Security Studies for the 1990s addresses all three options This book is the first to reexamine security studies in the post Cold War era Scholars and directors from leading security studies programs representing a cross section of viewpoints on foreign affairs discuss what new material needs to be taught and which courses and concepts should be recast Each chapter provides an indepth review of a major security studies course proposing needed changes and a model syllabus Subjects include intelligence policy global environmental problems the causes and termination of wars and collective security A chapter on the teaching of ethics a subject often neglected in the past is also featured BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Honor by Fire Lyn Crost,1994 The story of the Nisei first generation Japanese Americans Purple Heart Battalion Dark and Cruel War Don Lowry,1993 The Secret Wars, a Guide to Sources in English: Intelligence, propaganda and psychological warfare, resistance movements, and secret operations, 1939-1945 Myron J. Smith,1980 The Hawaiian Journal of History ,1989 This is No Drill Henry Berry,2001-05 This powerful collection of first hand accounts of the events of December 7 1941 in Pearl Harbor Hawaii are told from the survivors of the attack in their own words from all branches of the service The to Z of World War II Anne Sharp Wells,2009-09-28 Because of the enormity of World War II and the numerous geographic areas and belligerents involved this study has been divided into two volumes The first examines the war between Japan and the Allied powers It covers the conflict in Asia beginning with the Japanese seizure of Manchuria in September 1931 to Japanese s surrender in September 1945 and the immediate post war years in Asia and the Pacific The second volume addresses the war against Germany and Italy LIGHTNING OVER BOUGAINVILLE R.
