Peeka Boo Boats:

Crossing the River Carol Smith, 2021-05-04 A powerful exploration of grief and resilience following the death of the author's son that combines memoir reportage and lessons in how to heal Everyone deals with grief in their own way Helen Macdonald found solace in training a wild goshawk Cheryl Strayed found strength in hiking the Pacific Crest Trail For Carol Smith a Pulitzer Prize nominated journalist struggling with the sudden death of her seven year old son Christopher the way to cross the river of sorrow was through work In Crossing the River Smith recounts how she faced down her crippling loss through reporting a series of profiles of people coping with their own intense challenges whether a life altering accident injury or diagnosis These were stories of survival and transformation of people facing devastating situations that changed them in unexpected ways Smith deftly mixes the stories of these individuals and their families with her own account of how they helped her heal General John Shalikashvili once the most powerful member of the American military taught Carol how to face fear with discipline and endurance Seth a young boy with a rare and incurable illness shed light on the totality of her son's experiences and in turn helps readers see that the value of a life is not measured in days Crossing the River is a beautiful and profoundly moving book an unforgettable journey through grief toward hope and a valuable illuminating read for anyone coping with loss

Flying With Peek-a-Boo Multi-Colored Feathers Mary Ryan, 2021-03-09 Students learning how to witness the best version of themselves was an important aspect of pioneering multicultural education I wanted the children to learn the larger truth about how the knowledge of themselves and others can spin into arguments and judgments Unlearning something when new facts reveal that an original assumption is outdated or not factual is good While human skin comes in a variety of shades we all share the same color bones and the same color blood The purpose of my book Flying With Peek a Boo Multicolored Feathers is to share based on my personal experience as a classroom teacher what it is like in a classroom setting to develop in students a better awareness knowledge understanding and appreciation of our Canadian identity The clinical conclusions indicate that when students are introduced and interact with people of various cultural traditions and religions as members of a family who shop at the same stores enjoys TV and sports every bit as much as they do the students increase by a measurable margin a better appreciation of our various Canadian traditions Most importantly the students also gain in self esteem in a measurable margin
