Peer Response In Second Language Writing Classrooms:

Peer Response in Second Language Writing Classrooms, Second Edition Jun Liu, Jette G. Hansen Edwards, 2018-05-25
Since the publication of the first edition in 2002 there have been two major developments in L2 writing and peer response teaching and research. The first is the increased interest in CALL and computer mediated communication CMC for L2 pedagogy; the second is the accessibility and viability of research on L2 peer response from all over the world. Both developments are thoroughly addressed in this new edition. Now that classes are as likely to be online as held in physical classrooms and now that a new generation of digital natives can routinely read and respond to what others write via laptops, tablets, and phones, peer response as pedagogical practice is not just more easily implemented but it is more likely to feel natural to L2 learners. The Second Edition is a highly accessible guide to how the world is using peer response and serves as a motivator and facilitator for those who want to try it for the first time or want to increase the effectiveness of the activities, whether via CMC or not. The volume includes 11 forms useful in training students to provide good peer feedback, including a final checklist to ensure teachers have taken all the necessary steps to achieve a successful peer feedback activity.

Exploring the Dynamics of Second Language Writing Barbara Kroll, 2003-04-14
A collection of 13 original articles, this book is intended to provide a series of discussions about multiple aspects of second language writing, presenting chapters that collectively address a range of issues that are important to new teachers at the post-secondary level. The chapters provide scholarly vision, insight, and interpretation oriented toward explaining the field of teaching academic writing to non-native speakers. The book is designed to provide foundational content knowledge in this area; each chapter is authored by recognized experts in the field. Throughout the chapters, presentation and review of scholarship is presented primarily in the interest of understanding how such knowledge directly or potentially impacts teaching, making this a pedagogically relevant book. In addition to helping train new teachers, the book will serve as an updated reference book for practicing teachers and scholars to consult.

Practicing Theory in Second Language Writing Tony Silva, Paul Kei Matsuda, 2010-01-15
Theory has been used widely in the field of second language writing. Second language writing specialists, teachers, researchers, and administrators have yet to have an open and sustained conversation about what theory is, how it works, and more importantly, how to practice theory. Practicing Theory in Second Language Writing features fourteen essays by distinguished scholars in second language writing who explore various aspects of theoretical work that goes on in the field.

Teacher Written Commentary in Second Language Writing Classrooms Lynn M. Goldstein, 2005
Although second language writing instructors know that providing effective written feedback is essential to any good composition course, beginning and seasoned teachers alike struggle with this challenging task. In Teacher Written Commentary in Second Language Writing Classrooms, Lynn M. Goldstein uses ample research and experiential evidence to explain both how and why teachers should comment on their students' writing assignments. Among the problems that Goldstein addresses are how to attend to the product without slighting the process how to intervene in process without appropriating product how to facilitate student comprehension and use of teacher feedback while promoting student independence and how to respond efficiently while remaining attentive to individual student needs While it may not necessarily reduce the time spent on commenting the book will enable teachers and teachers in training to provide written commentary that will help their students to become stronger and more independent writers in English This volume is the only source that contains such in depth consideration of the issues and the range of practices within teacher written commentary and the only resource that focuses solely on issues of rhetoric and content in multilingual writing students texts Teachers and teacher educators will appreciate the Goldstein s thorough and well grounded analysis Lynn M Goldstein is Professor TESOL and Applied Linguistics Monterey Institute of International Studies CA

TEACHING WRITING IN SECOND AND FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLASSROOMS Jessica Williams, 2005 Provides research based information and practical advice to instructors who teach writing to second and foreign language learners This book is suitable for a basic methods course or a course on second or foreign language writing It is also useful as a preparation course for ESL or foreign language teaching assistants

Feedback in Second Language Writing Ken Hyland, Fiona Hyland, 2006-08-14 This collection of scholarly articles by leading researchers offers empirical data and analysis of complex issues related to providing feedback during the writing process

Technologies in the Second Language Composition Classroom Joel Bloch, 2008 Grounded in applied linguistics research and composition theory and practice Technologies in the Second Language Composition Classroom encourages teachers to explore the role technology can play in the acquisition of writing for second language students This research based volume supports the incorporation of technology into classrooms providing students with motivation and tools to develop their writing skills The book provides not only an intellectually engaging perspective on the on going debates regarding technologically enhanced writing and writing pedagogy but it also delves in to the technologies themselves from blogs and blogging to computer mediated discourse and concordancing Technology is a growing and rapidly evolving presence in academia and Joel Bloch brings an informed approach to understanding its place and potential benefits in the classroom Each chapter includes reflection questions that will help individual readers apply the theories and ideas to their own classrooms This book will interest ESL teachers in training teacher educators current ESL instructors and researchers and scholars in the area of ESL writing and technology

Studies in Applied and Theoretical Linguistics Ravi Sheorey, Judit Kiss-Gulyás, 2007

Peer Response of Digital and Non-digital Texts in a Composition Classroom Stephanie A. Sheffield, 2009

English Language Teaching in China Jun Liu, 2007 This book examines the importance of English language teaching in China but also the need for this teaching to be modernised in order for China to better join the world economy The current trend within English teaching in China is for communicative competence that is being able to communicate with linguistic pragmatic discourse and strategic competence This volume argues that such a theoretical framework of communicative competence needs to be expanded to address both global needs and local contexts if English language teaching in China is to be successful The contributors to this volume examine every aspect of language teaching and suggest new ways in which communication and grammar can be balanced The chapters include coverage of the importance of English in a global world the theoretical framework of communicative competence the role of grammar in learning English assessing and evaluating communicative competence the starting age of learning English teaching language skills in the post methods era using multimedia in teaching and testing online learning and self learning teacher training through empowerment With its balance of theory and practice and internationally renowned contributors this guide to new approaches perspectives and standards in language teaching will be essential reading for academics interested in applied linguistics and second language acquisition and English language teaching professionals

Arizona Working Papers in Second Language Acquisition and Teaching (SLAT), 2002 Critical Academic Writing and Multilingual Students A. Writing in a Second Language Bruce Leeds, 1996 The Oral-literate Connection Diane Dewhurst Belcher, Alan Hirvela, 2008 The Oral Literate Connection Perspectives on L2 Speaking Writing and Other Media Interactions presents the most current insights from research and theory on the numerous ways in which L2 speaking and writing support and enhance each other Contributors to this collection not only report on recent research and theoretical developments but also on state of the art pedagogical practices linking oral skills and literacy Although research and theory are informed by practice throughout the text s four parts the thematic organization proceeds from more theoretical and research oriented issues to more classroom based perspectives Theory and research on the interaction between speaking and writing How speaking scaffolds writing How writing scaffolds speaking How technology bridges speaking and writing This volume offers readers both a compelling rationale for connecting speaking and writing in the L2 classroom and an informed means of making these connections A wide array of theoretical and classroom oriented topics is offered ranging from sociocultural and second language acquisition theory to classroom concordancing and blogging The book has a foreword by John M Swales and an Afterword by Paul Kei Matsuda Second Language Instruction/acquisition Abstracts, 1996 Learning and Instruction, 2000 Encyclopedia of Language & Linguistics E. K. Brown, 2006 Online Intercultural Exchange Robert O'Dowd, 2007 This volume provides foreign language educators and classroom researchers with an introduction to online intercultural exchange the activity of engaging foreign language learners in collaborative project work with partners from other cultures through the use of online communication tools such as email discussion boards and videoconferencing. The authors use their extensive experience in both the practice and research of online exchange to present a clear overview of the pedagogical theory behind online exchange and its contribution to different aspects of foreign language learning including communicative competence, intercultural awareness and learner autonomy. The chapters look at different ways of organising such projects such as the Tandem and Cultura models and also provide clear discussions on practical aspects of the area including task design, the choice of communication tools and the role of the teacher.
