"Painting, Politics and the Struggle for the ?ole de Paris, 1944?964 " Natalie Adamson,2017-07-05 Painting Politics and the Struggle for the ole de Paris 1944 1964 is the first book dedicated to the postwar or nouvelle ole de Paris It challenges the customary relegation of the ole de Paris to the footnotes not by arguing for some hitherto hidden merit for the art and ideas associated with this school but by establishing how and why the ole de Paris was a highly significant vehicle for artistic and political debate The book presents a sustained historical study of how this school was constituted by the paintings of a diverse group of artists by the combative field of art criticism and by the curatorial policies of galleries and state exhibitions By thoroughly mining the extensive resources of the newspaper and art journal press gallery and government archives artists writings and interviews with surviving artists and art critics the book traces the artists exhibitions and art critical debates that made the ole de Paris a zone of aesthetic and political conflict Through setting the ole de Paris into its artistic social and political context Natalie Adamson demonstrates how it functioned as the defining force in French postwar art in its defence of the tradition of easel painting as well as an international point of reference for the expansion of modernism In doing so she presents a wholly new perspective on the vexed relationships between painting politics and national identity in France during the two decades following World War II Painting and Reality Etienne Gilson,2023-08-15 A classic study of the art of painting and its relationship to reality In this book tienne Gilson puts forward a bold interpretation of the kind of reality depicted in paintings and its relation to the natural order Drawing on insights from the writings of great painters from Leonardo Reynolds and Constable to Mondrian and Klee Gilson shows how painting is foreign to the order of language and knowledge Painting he argues seeks to add new beings to nature not to represent those that already exist For this reason we must distinguish it from another art that of picturing which seeks to produce images of actual or possible beings Though pictures play an important part in human life they do not belong in the art of painting Through this distinction Gilson sheds new light on the evolution of modern painting A magisterial work of scholarship by an acclaimed historian of philosophy Painting and Reality features paintings from both classical and modern schools and includes extended selections from the writings of Reynolds Delacroix Gris Gill and Ozenfant Etude sur la synthèse de l'art lyrique et de l'art dramatique Paul d' Acosta (p),Constant Fredricx,1889 L'esthétique Eugène Véron,1878
