Praying The Movies Daily Meditations From Classic Films:

Praying the Movies Edward McNulty, 2001-01-01 Praying the Movies is a collection of thirty one devotions that connect movies with the spiritual life of moviegoers Each devotion contains a passage from Scripture a description of a scene from a popular film and a meditation connecting the themes in the scene to the Scripture passage Also included in each devotion are questions to encourage further reflection a suggestion for a hymn and a brief prayer Praying the Movies II Edward N. McNulty, 2004-01-31 From To Kill a Mockingbird to O Brother Where Art Thou this collection of 31 devotionals incorporates popular movies with passages from Scripture Each devotional includes a meditation questions to encourage reflection a prayer and a hymn Encyclopedia of Religion and Film Eric Michael Mazur, 2011-03-08 Comprising 91 A Z entries this encyclopedia provides a broad and comprehensive introduction to the topic of religion within film Technology has enabled films to reach much wider audiences enabling today s viewers to access a dizzying number of films that employ diverse symbolism and communicate a vast array of viewpoints Encyclopedia of Religion and Film will provide such an audience with the tools to begin their own exploration of the deeper meanings of these films and grasp the religious significance within Organized alphabetically this encyclopedia provides more than 90 entries on the larger religious traditions the major film producing regions of the globe the films that have stirred controversy the most significant religious symbols and the more important filmmakers The included topics provide substantially more information on the intersection of religion and film than any of the similar volumes currently available While the emphasis is on the English speaking world and the films produced therein there is also substantial representation of non English non Western film and filmmakers providing significant intercultural coverage to the topic The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film John Lyden, 2009-05-07 The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film brings together a lively and experienced team of contributors to investigate the ways in which this exciting discipline is developing Faith and Film Edward N. McNulty, 2007-01-01 Growing numbers of church leaders are discovering that many films are able to impact viewers with gospel truths almost as well as a good sermon Ed McNulty a former pastor and longtime reviewer of films offers this guide to help church leaders enter into dialogue with contemporary films McNulty carefully crafts a theology of movies and then provides practical suggestions for creating and leading movie discussions with groups In addition he provides people from all across the theological spectrum with a framework to understand whether the overall message of a film outweighs concerns over profanity violence or sex in the film He concludes by introducing twenty seven films and including provocative questions about each that will prepare leaders to assemble and facilitate a group Popular films explored include The Color Purple Crash Hotel Rwanda The Matrix Million Dollar Baby O Brother Where Art Thou and The Shawshank Redemption Deep Focus (Engaging Culture) Robert K. Johnston, Craig Detweiler, Kutter Callaway, 2019-03-19 Three media experts guide the Christian moviegoer into a theological conversation with movies in this up to date readable introduction to Christian theology and film Building on the success of

Robert Johnston's Reel Spirituality the leading textbook in the field for the past 17 years Deep Focus helps film lovers not only watch movies critically and theologically but also see beneath the surface of their moving images The book discusses a wide variety of classic and contemporary films and is illustrated with film stills from favorite movies Media Mindfulness Gretchen Hailer, Rose Pacatte, 2007 Whether you are a Catholic high school teacher of any discipline a catechist or a youth minister feel confident that you can educate teens in one of the most difficult yet crucial areas of their growth in faith Beware Sister Media and Sister Catechist have written an information packed resource that also shares their sense of fun and exploration You and your students might consider this study of Media Mindfulness to be one of the most enjoyable and meaningful educational experiences in high school The Religion and Film Reader Jolyon P. Mitchell, S. Brent Plate, 2007 Film is now widely studied in theology and religious studies departments This volume explores key topics including early responses to film directors films and audiences cultural and social contexts biblical connections theological approaches and religious studies perspectives amongst others Cinéma Divinité Eric S. Christianson, Peter Francis, William Telford, 2005 Cinema Divinite sets out various critical approaches to the study of film and theology such as formalism expressionism realism textual analysis contextual analysis post modern eclecticism narrative criticism and cultural studies It examines the major concepts in film studies such as cinema spectatorship the nature and application of film theory to theology and includes a discussion of the extensive literature which has been published recently on the film and religion The book also examines case studies of specific films filmmakers and genres from film noir to animation and the western The final part looks specifically at religion within film with a concluding discussion of the recently released The Passion of the Christ

Implications of the Sacred in (post)modern Media Johanna Sumiala-Seppänen, Knut Lundby, Raimo Salokangas, 2006

Communication Research Trends, 2005 Between Sacred and Profane Gordon Lynch, 2007-11-28 Over the past ten years there has been an explosion of interest in how religion and the sacred connect with the media and cultures of everyday life How are religious communities identities and rituals being transformed by new media such as the internet What is the significance of the media when for many people it becomes the primary source of images and of an encounter with religious traditions Do the media and popular culture themselves take on religious significance and how do people make use of these popular resources to do religion in the contemporary world As researchers have tried to answer these and other questions a growing body of literature has begun to develop Between Sacred and Profane offers a major review of this young and exciting field of scholarship highlighting both its achievements and flaws and setting out an agenda for its next phase of study The book is an invaluable guide and handbook for beginning students who are looking for a first overview of the key issues and debates as well as for more experienced scholars who wish to reflect on how their work will develop in future Between Sacred and Profane will be required reading for courses in theology religion and contemporary culture for many years to come Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 What Would I Believe if I Didn't Believe Anything? Kent Ira

Groff,2004-01-02 What Would I Believe if I Didn't Believe Anything is a guidebook for spiritual orphans that shows how they can doubt their way home by embracing their doubts and asking the hard questions as a meaningful path toward genuine faith. The author helps readers value their own questions and learn to talk about spiritual matters in fresh non-religious language. Rather than handing down doctrines from above, Groff invites readers to look at life from below, exploring experiences of daily living. He helps the reader to find the grace in the grit of everyday life, seeking analogies of faith in film and literature, psychology and science, poetry and arts, music and sports. Drawing primarily from the well of his Christian experience, Groff also incorporates insights from the world's primal myths and major religions. Fifty reflection exercises make it ideal for group use with journeyers of varied backgrounds for campuses, prisons, communal residences, religious communities, and work places. American Book Publishing Record, 2004. Attraverso lo schermo: Dagli anni Settanta ai giorni nostri Ruggero Eugeni, Dario Viganò, 2006. The Christian Librarian, 2001. Articles on Christian interpretation of librarianship, theory and practice of library science, bibliographic essays, reviews, and human interest articles relating to books and libraries. Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed. Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed., 2004. A dangerous grace : daily readings Charles Colson, 1994. Educational Film/video Locator of the Consortium of University Film Centers and R.R.
