

Practical Mysticism

- Published in 1914 at the beginning of World War I: dedicated "to the unseen future."
- As Mysticism surveys the theory of mysticism, this book lives up to its title: it offers a practical introduction to mystical spirituality "for normal people."
- While some of the language is dated, it is accessible and insightful.
- Much of Underhill's content is based on St. Teresa of Ávila.
- The book's goal: to help ordinary people to live "the mystical life."
- Preparation for the mystical life includes meditation, recollection, and three dimensions ("forms") of contemplation
- "Prayer" is not a major concern — the word only appears once in the entire book!
